

Fund Established To Honor Writer

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — Establishment of a Leukemia Memorial Fund honoring the late Angelo Angelopolous was announced Wednesday by Butler University.

Angelopolous was a prominent sports and feature writer and a Butler alumnus. He died of leukemia last October at the age of 43.

Tony Hinkle, Butler's athletic director and coach, was named chairman of the fund. A special collection for the fund will be made Jan. 16 at the Butler-Ball State basketball game here.

Fireman Is Injured In Restaurant Fire

HAMMOND, Ind. (UPI) — Fireman John O'Keefe was hospitalized Wednesday with injuries suffered in a $5,000 fire at the Al Knapp Restaurant. Firemen said they believed the fire started in an upstairs apartment.

Ex-Convict Recants Story Of Robbery

BOSTON (UPI) — An ex-convict who accused three men of the $1.5 million Plymouth mail hijacking recanted Wednesday night and denied they were involved in the nation's largest armed robbery.

George W. (Billie A.) Agisotelis, 41, an unemployed used car salesman and oil deliveryman of Lexington, said he named the three as participants to get postal agents "off my back" and because he feared he would be sent back to prison.

In a 17-page typewritten statement released by his lawyer, F. Lee Bailey, Agisotelis charged that postal officials turned him into a human walkie talkie by concealing a tape recorder under his shirt to gather evidence against the three suspects.

He was sentenced in 1956 to 13-15 years for robbery of the Quincy Trust Co., was paroled in 1961 and said he suffered a heart attack last March.

Agisotelis said that since his undercover work for postal officials he has learned that he also is a prime suspect in the Plymouth robbery.

Earlier, the three men he named publicly admitted they were considered top suspects but denied they were involved in the robbery last August 14. They were John J. Kelley, 48, of Watertown; Joseph C. Tripoli, 41, of Lawrence; and Thomas R. Richards, 37, of Weymouth. All are represented by Bailey.

Agisotelis said that when he realized his hoax was out of hand he told Bailey of the predicament and since then has become a "double agent" spying on postal officials for the lawyer.

In the dual role, he said he also wore a concealed tape recorder to gather evidence on the investigatory methods of postal agents.

Kensington Palace Is Damaged By Fire

LONDON (UPI) — A fire today damaged the Kensington Palace home of Princess Marina, the Duchess of Kent. Princess Margaret also lives in the palace, but her apartment was not affected by the fire.

No one was injured in the blaze which spread to the roof above the servants' quarters.

Billie Sol Estes Collects For School

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Billie Sol Estes, convicted and bankrupt Texas financier, came here Wednesday night to collect nickels and dimes for a Nigerian school.

The mild-mannered Texan and deacon of the Church of Christ addressed about 200 Negroes in a modest church on the city's far West Side. In his sermon, entitled "The Simple Plan of Salvation," Estes told the group "If you follow Christ's life there will be no problems."

Estes confined his talk to a listing of the five steps to salvation and only briefly mentioned the Nigerian mission fund, saying "it is a very good thing."

Estes has conducted several such talks in behalf of the Nigerian Mission Fund, a group that wants to raise $6,000 in 1963 to build a school in Nigeria.

Several times during his sermon Estes stressed the need for repentance. Estes was convicted in Tyler, Tex., on charges growing out of a multi-million dollar fertilizer-grain storage scandal and now is free pending an appeal.

Estes is free on state and federal bonds totalling $130,000 and may travel anywhere in the United States.

He was convicted and sentenced to eight years in prison in November on a state charge involving a $95,000 mortgage on anhydrous ammonia tanks. He also is under a 25-count federal indictment.

Estes has filed a bankruptcy declaration. He frequently attends Negro churches and built the Negro church in Pecos, Tex., his hometown. He neither smokes nor

Evidence Growing Of Castro Plotting

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

When Nikita Khrushchev's scheme to set up rocket bases in Cuba backfired and Fidel Castro suffered subsequent humiliation throughout Latin America, it was natural and expected that an important policy shift to restore lost prestige would follow.

First tangible evidence came when Venezuela reported intercepting a coded signal from Havana Radio directing Fidelesta-Communist agents in Latin America to step up their campaigns of subversion and violence.

Within hours, saboteurs in Venezuela blew up four oil-company power stations at Lake Maracaibo.

Since then, more evidence has accumulated. Last week, Peru's ruling military junta suddenly carried out a vast roundup of Communists, Castroites and fellow-travelers on charges that they plotted a simultaneous break-out of violence throughout the country in order to pave the way for a Communist government controlled by Moscow.

That the arrests were not merely acts of oppression by a frightened military dictatorship was confirmed in Washington where worried officials had been warning the Lima government for weeks that just such a plot was in the works.

In Sao Paulo, Brazil, UPI correspondent Joseph Brant interviewed a secret police inspector in the Public Security Ministry.

be an immediate Communist takeover. Rather, a first objective might simply be to create such chaos that the army would feel obliged to take over. Thus they would prove that peaceful processes advocated by the U.S. Alliance for Progress must fail and that violent revolution is inevitable.

Hi-Way Trailer Court News

Lisa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bell, Jr., 59 Bella Casa, observed her second birthday Jan. 3.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anthony, of Muncie, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moulton and family, 73 West St. Ext.

Mrs. Rilla Amstutz, 13 Krick St., spent Saturday with her niece, Miss Orpha Klopfenstein in Grabill.
Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hambrook, of Terre Haute, were guests of her brother, Herman Linnemeier, 68 Bella Casa, last Wednesday.

Word from Mr. and Mrs. Bud Lindeman (Betty Pasco), aerial artist, and former resident of the court, states that they have just finished an engagement with Mickey Rooney at Palm Springs, Calif., and will be with the Liberace show in New Jersey beginning Jan. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bell, Jr., and Lisa, 59 Bella Casa, took his mother to her home in South Milford last Saturday afternoon. She had been staying with them here for a week while her husband, Sam Bell, Sr., was in the Lutheran hospital in Fort Wayne recovering from a broken leg caused by a fall on the ice.

Mrs. Edith Boley, 35 Star Lane, received a nice letter from Mrs. Cecelia Mitchell, former resident of the court, and also a photo of her taken in front of her beautiful home at 94 Herandez Ave., Los Gatos, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Gerig and family, 519 South 13th St., spent last Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gerig in Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Stevenson and son Darrell, who resided at 33 Star Lane, moved their mobile home to Alexandria, Va., last Monday. The family had gone on ahead a week before, and Darrell likes his school and teacher. They report to us that they find by the records there that the Hi-Way Trailer court has the best record on any trailer court in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eversole, 62 Bella Casa, spent several days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Eversole in Middle Point, Ohio, and also with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Frimoth in Delphos, Ohio. They also accompanied her sister, Mrs. Gary Stoup and husband, to a New Year's party in Lima, Ohio.

Those from the Hi-Way Trailer Court who attended the monthly meeting of the Welcome Wagon club at the home of Mrs. Glen Mauller, 427 Stratton Way, Tuesday evening were: Mrs. Donna Wilson, 74 West St. Ext.; Mrs. Maude Wallace, 38 Star Lane; Mrs. Beverly Kruckeberg, 72 West St. Ext.; Mrs. Judy Reynolds, 75 West St. Ext. and Mrs. Wm. Moulton, 73 West St. Ext. Mrs. Beverly Kruckeberg was elected secretary-treasurer during the meeting, and Mrs. Judy Reynolds won a prize for low score in crazy bridge. Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eversole were his brother, Ralph Eversole, and Dick Miller of Middle Point, Ohio.
