When you want to leave the lid on a cooking vessel partially open to emit steam, a spring-type clothespin and a nail come in handy. Drive the nail partially into the side of the clothespin, clip the clothespin to the edge of the vessel, and the protruding nail will serve as a resting place for the upraised lid.

Gloria Jean Wall Is Bride Saturday

Zion Lutheran church was adorned with white, gold and yellow chrysanthemums and the aisle was candlelight for the wedding, Saturday at 6:30 p.m., of Miss Gloria Jean Wall and Patrick M. Nelson. The Rev. Richard C. Ludwig read the double-ring vows, following a musicale by organist Mrs. Daniel Freeby. Her selections were "Berceuse," "Intermezzo," "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" and traditional wedding music. Vocalist Lyman Hann sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Wedding Prayer," and "O, Perfect Love."

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Wall, 303 Limberlost Trail, and Mrs. Nathan Nelson, 217 South Seventh St., and the late Nathan Nelson. Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of bridal taffeta. The molded bodice featured a scalloped, scoop neckline, and sleeves tapering to points at the wrists. The scissor-cut skirt was accented with a front panel of lace and matching lace appliques were scattered over the bouffant chapel train. A large, self-material rose, touched with sequins and pearls, at the waist, accented the back fullness. A matching pill-box, highlighted with seed pearls, held her bouffant veil of silk illusion. The bride's bouquet was of white roses with white and yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Sue Vickrey, Dayton, O., was maid of honor, and Miss Charlene Wilde, Villa Park, Ill., was bridesmaid. The attendants wore identical dresses of brilliant green peau jolie, styled with scoop necklines and elbow-length sleeves. Their bell-shaped skirts were accented with small, tailored bows, and tailored bows embellished their pillboxes with maline bouffant veils. The attendants carried white fur muffs to which were attached yellow and gold chrysanthemums. Rachelle Spaulding and Leslie Freeby were flower girls.

A brown silk dress, with black and brown accessories, was chosen for her daughter's wedding by Mrs. Wall. The groom's mother wore a beige silk dress with beige accessories, and both mothers wore cor-sages of yellow roses.

David Butcher, Anderson, stood as best man while those ushering were Ronald Heshner, Robert Nelson of Sarasota, Fla., and James Nelson, both brothers of the groom. For the reception at 7:30 p.m. in the Decatur Community Center for 250 guests, a three-tier cake, candelabra, and bouquets of white, gold and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the table. Assisting were Mrs. James Nelson, Mrs. Robert
