MRS. JACKSON HOSTESS TO MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Twenty-three members of the Music department of the Woman's club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Sephus Jackson. Mrs. Ferris Bower, chairman, presided at the business meeting. The program committee for the department's general club meeting during the 1963-64 year was appointed. Those on the committee will be Miss Helen Haubold, Mrs. William Cass, Mrs. Dan Frey and Mrs. Richard Linn. Mrs. Bower announced that Mrs. Richard Wasson would complete the secretary-treasurer's term for the next club year in the absence of Mrs. Glenn Borchers.

Mrs. Richard Linn again asked all members of the group to her cottage at Hamilton lake during July. A definite date will be selected in the near future.

A total of $21 was given by the group and presented to Miss Helen Haubold, to be used toward the high school choir robes. Following the business meeting, Mrs. Glen Borchers was very pleasantly surprised when the committee announced that the remainder of the evening would be spent as a going-away party in her honor. Visiting and indoor golf were enjoyed by everyone.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ferris Bower, Mrs. William Cass and Mrs. Dan Tyndall, served delicious refreshments, in keeping with the Easter season, at the close of the evening.

MRS. DICKERSON HOSTESS TO LITERATURE DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Glen Dickerson was hostess to the literature department of the Woman's club Monday evening. Mrs. Jack Knudsen opened the meeting by leading the group in the collect. She announced the program committee for next year would be composed of Mrs. David Langston, Mrs. Elbert Smith, Mrs. James Stokke, and Mrs. Dickerson.

Mrs. Richard Schauss then reviewed Jesse Stuart's "God's Odding," the story of Stuart's father and his life in the Kentucky hills. Stuart, a well known short story writer and poet, told of his father's love of the earth and nature and his great desire to have his children receive an education, a desire fulfilled.

A social hour followed with Mrs. Dickerson and the assisting hostesses, Mrs. Lewis Smith and Mrs. James Stokke, serving refreshments to the group.

RESEARCH CLUB HAS LUNCHEON

The Research club members and their guests enjoyed the year's closing meeting of the club, Monday at 12:30 p.m., in the Youth and Community center. The color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in the decoration of the room, tables and napkins. Each person's place was marked with a place card and an individual Easter novelty. After grace was said by Mrs. L. A. Cowens, a delicious lunch was served.

Mrs. A. R. Holthouse was the mistress of ceremony. She introduced the new officers for the coming year, and each member introduced her guest. Two new members, Mrs. Robert Babcock and Mrs. Clarence Zinger, were welcomed into the club.

Mrs. Holthouse introduced Mrs. Reid Erekson, club member, who was in charge of the program. Mrs. Erekson delightfully entertained the members and guests with a dramatic reading of "Just Around the Corner," a portrayal of family life and the problems involved as the family gets ready to send the daughters to college.

The club meetings will be resumed next October.

INSTALLATION FOR O. E. S. HELD

Mrs. Merritt Alger was installed recently as worthy matron of Decatur chapter 127, Order of Eastern Star. After being invested with the badge of her office, at the altar, she was escorted to her station in the east, by her son, Stanley Alger of Wabash.

Other officers, installed to serve with her, are worthy patron, Merritt J. Alger; associate matron and patron, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Corson; secretary, Mrs. Howard Eley; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Bohne; conductress, Mrs. Francis Howard; associate conductress, Mrs. Niland Ochsenrider; chaplain, Mrs. Lhonas McIntosh; marshal, Mrs. Charles Houk; organist, Mrs. Rolland Gillion Ada, Mrs. Gerald Light; Ruth, Mrs. Brice Roop; Esther, Mrs. William Hutter; Martha, Mrs. Lloyd Reynolds; Electa, Mrs. Walter Lister; warder, Mrs. Wilford Plasterer; and sentinel, Gerald Light.

Following the installation, a reception was held for the new officers in the dining room. Lovely refreshments were served to about 10 members and friends, from a table centered with a beautiful arrangement of lavender mums, the new matron's flower for the year.

The Hope circle of the Union Chapel church will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. with Mrs. Wilbur Foor. Mrs. Wayne Troutner will be the program leader.

Mrs. Don Smith will be hostess to the Charity circle of the Union Chapel E. U. B. church, Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The Naomi circle of the Decatur E. U. B. church will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m., with Mrs. Frank Kitson. Mrs. James Shackley will be the leader.

The regular meeting of the Southeast P. T. A. will be held Thursday, at 7:30 p.m., in the school auditorium. Election of officers for the coming year will be held. There will be an art exhibit by grades one through six, and the fifth and sixth grade music classes will present the program. There will be refreshments at the close of the meeting by the hospitality committee.

The Gals and Pals home demonstration club will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m., in the Pleasant Mills school.

Thursday, at 7:30 p.m., the Wesley Sunday school class of the First Methodist church, will meet in the dining room of the church.

Mrs. Dan Simmerman will be hostess to the Ruth circle of the E. U. B. church, Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The Past President parley of the American Legion auxiliary 43, will meet Monday at 8 p.m. in the Legion home. Margaret Eiting will be the hostess.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 418 met at the Southeast school Monday evening. Officers were elected, president, Rita Wendle; secretary, Connie Shaffer; scribe, Linda Johnson. Mrs. Babcock helped us to act out some play about April Fool's day. Miss Iliff played some records. The treat was brought by Sheryl Baughn. Scribe, Linda Johnson.

Troop 377 met Wednesday at the Southeast school. Dues were collected. We talked about going on a field trip this summer. Scribe, Teresa Andrews.

Troop 178 Monday, after school, we had our Girl Scout meeting. First we had the roll call and the dues were taken up. Then we played some games. Two girls came in and taught us some songs, so they could earn their sash. Girl Scout badge. Scribe, Pam Shelton.

TALENT SHOW HELD AT COUNTY HOME

The monthly talent show for the Adams county home residents and visitors was held recently.

Opening the evening of fun and entertainment were Karen and the Caroms, a musical group composed of Ronald Secaur, Karen Price and Blas Mendez. Next was "Queen for a Day," in comedy. The cast included Waneta Walchle as Jack Bailey, Marie Fisher as Gene Cagney, Mary Travel as the escort and the candidates were Marcella Loshe, Josephine Voglewede, Cecil Haney, and Evelyn Kingsley. The models were Jenny McAlhoney, Irene Weaver, Bonnie Mariner, Isabelle Sheets and Charolet Marbaugh.

A cornet quartet from Adams Central were John Geimer, Gary Gerber, Tad Wullman and Richard Gerber. They played four lively selections, very much enjoyed by the residents and visitors. Mrs. Edwin Bryan sang the evening hymn, "Will there be any Stars in My Crown," accompanied by Mrs. Dale Libby.

The next talent show will be held April 28 at 7:30 p.m. Taking part will be a double trio from Decatur high school, under the direction of Miss Helen Haubold. Mrs. C. S. Martindill, story teller from the Decatur library, will enlighten us with her stories. Several scenes from the "The Music Man" will be presented, under the direction of Mrs. Reid Erekson. Miss Charlene Hill, a soprano soloist, will also take part in the program.

More talent is always needed for these talent shows, and anyone may appear in these programs by contacting Mrs. Leo Sheets or calling 3-2342.

The Gray Ladies of the Red Cross, serving at the talent program this month, were Mrs. Richard Marbaugh, Mrs. Frank Braun, Mrs. Herman Dierkes and Mrs. Leland Ripley.

39ERS HAVE SUPPER MEETING

The 39ers held their supper meeting Thursday evening at the Community center. Mrs. Plummer of Fort Wayne, a guest, was introduced to the members.

Mrs. John Doan gave an interesting talk on a hobby show she visited while in Florida. After the business meeting and secretary's report by Mrs. Henry Neireiter, cards and other games were enjoyed.

DECATUR FIREMEN'S AUXILIARY MEETS

The Decatur Firemen's auxiliary met Monday evening in the fire station with Mrs. Ed Hurst as hostess.

The president, Mrs. Maurice Colchin, opened the meeting by having the group of 11 members present stand and repeat the Lord's Prayer. The secretary's report was read, and further plans were made for the Tupperware party that is to be held at the fire station April 29. The meeting was closed.

Games were played and prizes awarded to the winners. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Life Of Mississippi Negro Is Deplored

GREENWOOD, Miss. (UPI)—Comedian Dick Gregory told a Negro rally Tuesday night that the Kennedys would send missiles rather than troops if they had to live the lives of Mississippi Negroes.

Gregory made the remark at a rally at Clarksdale, about 50 miles northwest of Greenwood, after he was manhandled here Tuesday by police who broke up Negro voter registration demonstrations.

"If Bobby Kennedy or any of his family came down here painted black, they wouldn't send troops but missiles," the Chicago Negro comedian said.

"Police here are a little lower than dogs," he told the Clarksdale gathering.

Gregory planned to return here today but there was no indication whether there would be any new demonstrations.

A policeman grabbed Gregory in one of a series of voter demonstration incidents Tuesday, twisted his arm behind him and marched him across the street when the comedian refused a command to move on.

Gregory said another policeman struck him in the back as he was being hustled away but did not injure him.

The entertainer came here to lend moral support to week-long voter registration demonstrations which have been broken up by police holding police dogs on leashes and by barricades.

Locals

James C. King of Dayton, O., formerly of Decatur, flew to Oklahoma City Saturday to attend the national convention of elementary school principals. He is presently president of the Western Ohio elementary school principals, and is attending as their representative.

Roller Painting
When painting with a roller, it's an excellent idea to line the inside of the pan or container with heavy aluminum foil. This will save scouring out the pan, and permit you to use it for another color.
