

Decatur K. C. Takes State K. C. Tourney

The Decatur Knights of Columbus basketball won the state K. C. tourney championship Sunday, defeating Terre Haute, 72-70, in the final game of the meet held at Crown Point.

The championship tilt was a close battle all the way. Terre Haute led at the first quarter, 21-20, but Decatur was out in front by two points, 41-39, at the half. Terre Haute pulled into a 54-54 tie at the end of the third period, but the Decatur team edged out the two-point victory.

George Waning, D.C.H.S. coach, topped the Decatur scoring with 21 points, trailed closely by Baker with 18. Lew led Terre Haute with 26 markers, and the losers had three other players in double figures.

Waning was awarded the individual sportsmanship trophy.

There were nine teams entered in the tourney, played Saturday and Sunday. Scores of earlier round games were:

Terre Haute 78, Our Lady of Fatima (Indianapolis) 62; Decatur 95, Logansport 63; Connersville 52, Gary 48; Msgr. Downey (Indianapolis) 73, Lafayette 62; Terre Haute 89, Crown Point 62; Decatur 58, Connersville 50; Terre Haute 79, Msgr. Downey 77.

Cooler Weather Is Prevalent In State

By United Press International
Cooler temperatures prevailed today in Indiana after the temperature hit the 70s over most of the state Monday afternoon.

Forecasts of a chance of light rain in certain sections of the state late today were revised and the precipitation prospect was cancelled out.

Nevertheless, the fair skies of the past few days were gradually diminishing to cloudiness. Forecasts called for partly cloudy north today and mostly cloudy elsewhere, and mostly cloudy everywhere Wednesday and Thursday with little change in temperatures.

Temperatures touched 75 at Evansville, 74 at Louisville, 72 at Lafayette and 71 at Indianapolis Monday afternoon but peaked no higher than 58 at South Bend and 59 at Fort Wayne.

Biggie Munn To Decide On Keeping Stock

CHICAGO (UPI) — Clarence (Biggie) Munn, Michigan State University athletic director, was expected to decide today whether to retain his stock in a country club management firm, which also lists a reputed Chicago crime syndicate gambler as a stockholder.

Munn confirmed Monday he is a stockholder and member of the board of directors of Golf Club Management Co. of Chicago.

But he said he was surprised to learn that Frank (Big Frank) Buccieri was listed by Chicago police as a Crime Syndicate member.

"I only met Frank twice and he was introduced to me as a furniture man," Munn said from his East Lansing home.

He said he expected a call today from Loren A. Cameron, 38, president of Golf Club Management, and would decide then whether to sell his stock. Munn said he has attended only one board meeting.

Newspaper Discloses Information
The fact that Munn and Buccieri were both members of the board for several months was disclosed Monday by Chicago's American.

Cameron said Munn's 500 shares (worth 10 cents a share when Munn received them) today were worth $3,000. Munn said he had no idea of their present value.

Cameron said he would ask Buccieri "point blank if he is a member of the crime syndicate."

He said if Buccieri is "I'll ask

Adams Central Winner Monday In Triangular

Adams Central won both relay races to post a come-from-behind win over Decatur and Monmouth in a triangular meet on the Eagle track Monday afternoon.

Coach Carl Honaker's thimble won both relays for ten points and nosed out Decatur, 60.5 to 58.1, while Monmouth finished a distant third with 18.6.

Mike Ripley of the Greyhounds was the meet's only double winner, taking blue ribbons in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. He also ran the first leg of the winning 880 relay team.

Dave Anspaugh of Decatur posted a personal high when he vaulted 10 feet, six inches to win the pole vault. Sophomore Tom Whitaker won the mile for Decatur.

Summary:
100-yr. dash — Ripley (AC), Fravel (D), Swickard (D), Hirsch (AC). Time — 11.0.

220-yd. dash — Ripley (AC), Swickard (D), Fravel (D), Brokaw (AC). Time — 23.7.

440-yd. dash — Hively (AC), Hilyard (D), Conrad (M), tie between Morningstar (AC) and Conrad (D). Time — 60.4.

880-yd. run — Gause (D), Buuck (M), Reinking (D), Smith (D). Time — 2:22.6.

Mile run — Whitaker (D), Rieff (D), P. Hirsch (AC), Schoaf (AC). Time — 5:11.8.

High hurdles — Hirsch (AC), Scheumann (M), Hoagland (AC), Melchi (D). Time — 18.8.

Low hurdles — Magley (D), Hoagland (AC), Hirsch (AC), Melchi (D). Time — 22.5.

him to sell his shares and I'll probably buy them back myself."

According to Cameron, Buccieri was a board director from December 1961 to January 1962. He said Munn is still a director.

Cameron, a 1950 graduate of Michigan State, said the first meeting between Buccieri and the former Spartan football coach was an accident.

Cameron said he knew nothing about any gangland ties Buccieri might have because "I'm so busy I don't have time to read anything except the sport pages."

Munn said a year ago he was introduced to Buccieri as a "furniture man." He said the second meeting occurred when Buccieri was in East Lansing to visit his son, Kenneth Buccieri, a sophomore at Michigan State.

In 1951, Buccieri figured in the investigation of the attempted bribe of a University of Oregon football player by Frank Rosenthal, a Miami, Fla., gambler. The Miami investigation revealed that Rosenthal, since indicted by a North Carolina grand jury on charges of attempting to fix a college basketball game, made a number of telephone calls to Buccieri before the Miami bribe attempt.

The American said Buccieri's older brother, Flore (Fife), is a Crime Syndicate "enforcer." Chicago police, the newspaper said, believe the brothers work together in gambling and loan shark rackets.

Orioles, Reds Win In Major League Openers

By TIM MORIARTY
UPI Sports Writer

You won't be able to tell the players without a scorecard today when baseball's other 18 major league teams—featuring a multitude of new faces—attempt to catch up with the Baltimore Orioles and the Cincinnati Reds.

The Orioles and the Reds were first out of the gate Monday. President Kennedy was among 43,022 fans who watched Baltimore turn back the Washington Senators, 3-1, in the nation's capital while the Reds bounced the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-2, at Cincinnati.

Nine additional openers are on today's schedule, including a pair of night games. The Reds will help the Phillies launch their season under the lights at Philadelphia. The other night game will find the Los Angeles Angels entertaining the Boston Red Sox.

Yankees Visit A's

In the other American League openers, the world champion New York Yankees visit the Kansas City Athletics, the Detroit Tigers host the Chicago White Sox, and the Minnesota Twins entertain the Cleveland Indians.

The San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers, who are expected to battle it out for the National League pennant again this year, open on the road. The Giants visit the Houston Colts and the Dodgers play the Cubs at Chicago.

The Pirates launch their home schedule against the Milwaukee Braves and the New York Mets, who lost a record 120 games in their initial season last year, open at home against the St. Louis Cardinals.

More than 70 players changed uniforms during the off-season as every team except Minnesota completed a trade involving at least one key player.

Mets Look Different

The Mets, obviously figuring that any change has to be an improvement, will use only three of

Commodores Open Season Wednesday

The Decatur Commodores open an 11-game baseball card Wednesday afternoon, playing host to Columbia City.

Game time for the contest, scheduled for the Hanna-Nuttman Park diamond, is 4 p.m.

Also to be met at home this season are Lincolnview, O. Portland, New Haven, Huntington Catholic and Manchester. Following Wednesday's opener, the local nine will not return to action Monday, April 15, when they travel to Huntington Catholic.

The Commodores are the Central Indiana Catholic conference champs, and will not have to defend that title this season as the league has disbanded due to the dropping of spring baseball by all but one of the other conference members.

Coach George Waning has a young squad, with several lettermen returning from last season. Not a senior is listed on the team roster. Sophomore right-hander Terry Myers is expected to be the starting hurler.

Lead Pencil Stains

Lead pencil stains on material can be removed by working some glycerin or heavy detergent solution into the stains with a blunt-edge object, then applying a few drops of ammonia, and gently working into the stain. As the stains dissolve, flush from the fabric with warm water.

SEC Committee To Study Butts' Case

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—The executive committee of the Southeastern Conference will take a look into the Wally Butts-Paul Bryant case, Commissioner Bernie Moore said Monday.

But Moore declined to say when and where such a meeting will be held.

Moore has given lengthy details on conference football procedure to Georgia Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook who made an investigation after the Saturday Evening Post said that Butts, while University of Georgia athletic director, telephoned Georgia football secrets to Bryant, coach at Alabama.

Both Butts and Bryant have denied that vital information was given in the telephone call and Butts has filed a $10 million libel suit against the magazine.

Moore said he will "use all the evidence I have" at a meeting of the executive committee. He said Cook had made his files available for the SEC study but has not so far actually given him any material.

In his summary of his investigation, Cook concluded that Butts gave Bryant team secrets that could have affected the outcome of the game, which Alabama, a 17-point favorite, won 35-0.

VFW Bowling Team Sixth In Tourney

The Decatur VFW post bowling team competed in the annual Olympic Recreation five-man event at Van Wert, O. Sunday. The team rolled games of 885, 879 and 932 for a 2796 total. With a handicap of 342, the total was 3138, good for sixth place to date. There are 510 teams entered, with 110 yet to bowl.

Kenneth Butcher rolled a 257 game and a 596 series. Other scores were Donald Reidenbach 577, Herman Lyons 604, Ellis Shaw 453, and Lloyd Reef 566. The VFW team bowls in the Decatur Mayor league.
