PLEASANT MILLS W. M. S.
HAS RECENT MEETING

The ladies of the Pleasant Mills W. M. S. met recently in the home of Mrs. Ralph Longenberger.

The devotions were conducted by Mrs. Paul McCullough, and her subject was "What Have I to Give?" In many the giving of self is a more acceptable offering than money, she said. Mrs. Ben McCullough gave the lesson on missions.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Lowell Noll in serving delicious refreshments.

ROSE GARDEN CLUB
HAS MAY BREAKFAST

Mrs. Walter Butcher and her assisting hostesses, Mrs. Harry Hebble and Mrs. Cecil Gause, entertained the Rose Garden club at a lovely May breakfast Wednesday morning at nine o'clock at the Butcher home.

Spring flowers centered the tables throughout the rooms and lace doily flower baskets marked the place of each guest, adding a touch of spring loveliness to the occasion.

Mrs. C. D. Amick, the president, presided over the business meeting which followed the breakfast, reading the collect and reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

During the meeting the new year books were distributed among the members. The local garden club also received an invitation to attend the June carnival flower show to be held June 8 and 9 at the Fort Wayne Coliseum. The garden clubs will hold their state convention at Lafayette May 20, 21 and 22. On June 4, a flower show will be held at Roanoke.

Mrs. John Floyd gave her report from roadside council. A memorial was given by Mrs. Frank Crist for all deceased members. The meeting was closed by the club prayer being recited.

During the social hour a birthday auction was conducted by Mrs. Frank Crist, and an exchange of seeds and plants was held by the members.

A very interesting and entertaining contest was then conducted when each member modeled the hat which she made from flowers, vines and greenery of every description. While there were no Mr. John, Hattie Carnegie of Lilli Dache designers present, the local designers displayed quite a bit of ingenuity when the hats went on parade. Prizes for the best assembled and most original hats were awarded to Mrs. Clem Kortner and Mrs. Grover Levy.

The next meeting has been changed to the third week in June. Mrs. John Floyd will be the hostess.

Guest at the breakfast was Mrs. Walter J. Elzey, Fort Wayne. Her daughter, Mrs. Donald Frane, gave a gift of 5 orchids to the club. The orchids were flown to the states from Hawaii.
