Ernest Leland Eckrote, 30, former near-Decatur resident now residing in Fort Wayne, was arraigned Monday afternoon in the Adams circuit court on charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Adams circuit court Judge Myles F. Parish explained Eckrote's rights to him, and gave him further time before entering a plea to the charge of contributing.

Eckrote was jailed early Saturday morning after being picked up in the 100 block of N. First street at 1:05 a.m. by city police officers.

The 30-year-old man was operating an auto with three 15-year-old and two 16-year-old boys as passengers. A quantity of beer was discovered in the auto by the police.

The five local juvenile boys have been referred to the Adams county juvenile court.
