MONROE METHODIST WCS IN MEETING

The Monroe Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service met Tuesday evening in the church fellowship hall with Mrs. Philip Barger playing the prelude. The group sang, "O, Master, Let Me Walk With Thee." For devotions, Mrs. Loren Burkhead, Jr., read the thirteenth chapter of Corinthians and also read the "Beatitudes of the Home." The lesson, "The Crusade Scholarship Procession," was given by Mrs. Charles Workinger. The song, "He Keeps Me Singing," was sung in place of a special number.

The business meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Harry Crownover, president. The secretary's report was read and approved. The treasurer's report was given. Mrs. Glen Stucky reported on assembly held at Epworth Forest which seven members attended June 26. Plans were discussed for seminar that will be held at the Monroe church July 23 starting at 9:15 a.m. The dismissal prayer was given by Mrs. Delota Engle.

For the social time, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Clifford Essex, Mrs. Orval Lenthart, Mrs. Lillian Stucky, Mrs. Louis Mattax, Mrs. Clarence Dick and Mrs. Arthur Mitchell.

RECENT WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chronister Decatur announced the recent wedding of their daughter, Lois, of Denver, Colo., to David E. Fleming, son of Mrs. Julia Fleming of Lakewood, Colo., June 1 at the Lakewood Methodist church.

Mrs. Richard Chronister of Kendallville was matron of honor, while Miss Susan Chronister served as flower girl. William Wolf of Denver was his friend's best man. The bride had attended International Business College and I. U. Extension in Fort Wayne, while the groom attended the University of Colorado in Denver. They will reside in Lakewood.

The V. F. W. Post 6236 held their regular meeting recently with 14 members present. Several topics were discussed with the most important being the improvement of the post home both inside and out. It is hoped that it will have a new coat of paint in the near future. The Cooties of the V. F. W. traveled to Marion July 4 to put on a show for the veterans there, with Robert and Blaz Mendez furnishing the entertainment. Any person wishing to donate old glasses, pocket reading books, sports magazines or old radios or TV's are asked to leave them at the V. F. W. post or call 3-2601 for pick up. After the regular meeting a joint meeting was held with the auxiliary.

The Welcome Wagon Club will hold a picnic at the Hanna-Huttman park Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.

The Dorcas Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred McConnell with Mrs. Simeon Hain as leader, Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The Calvary Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Iona Shifferly, Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

The fourth district meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held July 11 at the Woodburn elementary school on highway 101 east. The hostess unit will be number 377 Woodburn. Members of unit 34 wishing reservations are to call Mrs. Herbert Lengerich at 3-3984 before noon Saturday.

The Decatur Methodist Church will hold an ice cream social on the church lawn from 5-8 p.m. Wednesday.

The Sarah Circle of the Decatur E. U. B. church will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold Harvey at 1 p.m. Tuesday. Mrs. Charles Kent will be the leader.

The St. Ann's Study club will meet at the home of Mrs. Carl Rumschlag Wednesday at 1:30 p.m.

The W. C. T. U. zone rally will be held Tuesday in the Mennonite church in Berne. The rally will begin at 10 a.m. with a sack lunch at noon. Dessert and beverage will be furnished. The afternoon session will begin at 1:15 p.m. Mrs. E. G. Arnold, state director, will be the guest speaker for the day.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Heimann returned last weekend from a 4,100 mile trip to the northwestern states. They visited the Badlands and Black Hills in South Dakota; Yellowstone national park and the Grand Teton mountains in Wyoming; and spent several days in Colorado Springs where they visited the Royal Gorge, Garden of the Gods, and many other points of interest before returning home via a central route.

Mrs. Michael E. Beery

Michael Beery Claims Bride In Kentucky

Miss F. A. Duncan Woodbridge became the bride of Michael Edwin Beery in a wedding ceremony held at 4 p.m., June 29 at the St. John's Episcopal church in Versailles, Ky., with the Rev. Addison Hosea officiating. The altar was decorated with white gladioluses and carnations.

The parents of the couple are Mrs. Sam Woodbridge of Versailles, Ky., and the late Sam Woodbridge, and Mr. and Mrs. John Beery, Master Drive, Decatur.

The bride, escorted to the altar by Harvey Stedman, chose a gown of light ivory peau de soie designed with a long princess bodice with bracelet length sleeves and a babrina neckline. Narrow bows detailed the sleeves and the back of the skirt which terminated in a fan shaped train in two panels. Her bouffant tiered veil of matching imported illusion was waist length and was held in place by a flange shaped double bow of matching peau de soie worn with a face veil. She wore short white gloves and carried a bouquet of stephanitis.

Mrs. James Walker McKee, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Kay Tapp and Mrs. Clyde Smith. The junior bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie Lou Beery, sister of the groom, and Miss Catherine McKee, niece of the bride. All attendants wore identical street length frocks of ciel blue silk organza over matching taffeta, designed with a fitted bodice, short cap sleeves and oval necklines. The domed skirts were fashioned at the back with a tapered double panel set at the low waistline with a double petal rose of matching material. They wore matching rose petaled headdresses, short white gloves and matching satin pumps and carried bouquets of lilies. Little Miss Laura McKee and Miss Mary Smith, nieces of the bride, served as flower girls and wore white or-gandy bouffant dresses with blue satin sashes. They carried baskets of rose petals.

The best man was Paul Gast, with Joe Smith, Jan Gollier, John Kennedy and Sam Lloyd serving as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a dress of watermelon satin and lace with matching accessories. The mother of the groom chose a pink dress of linen and lace with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of white gardenias.

A wedding breakfast was held at Spindletop farm for the wedding party. Immediately following the ceremony a lawn reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

For a wedding trip the new Mrs. Beery chose a three piece suit of pink linen with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Versailles high school and Fugazzi Business School, Lexington. The groom graduated from Decatur high school and Ball State Teachers College. The couple will make their home in Albion, Mich., where he is a teacher at the Washington Gardner high school.

Man Is Fined For Fireworks Possession

Wilbur Wallace, 40, of Geneva, was fined $40.70 in Wells circuit court for illegal possession of fireworks. Wallace, who was fined by Judge Homer J. Byrd, was also originally charged with the sale of fireworks to an 18-year-old boy.

Wallace pleaded guilty to the fireworks possession charge. Judge Byrd levied the fine of $20 and costs and told the defendant that had he been found guilty of the illegal sale charge he would have received the maximum fine of $100 and costs, plus "at least" a 30-day jail sentence.

Prosecutor William Wile had dropped the sale charge against Wallace for lack of evidence. The charge of illegal possession and use of fireworks is still pending in city court against David Lee Gehrett, route 3, Bluffton, to whom Wallace allegedly sold fireworks.

Geneva Bank Buys Restaurant At Sale

The First Bank of Geneva has purchased the restaurant located at the north edge of Geneva on U.S. 27.

The bank purchased the restaurant at a price of $10,000 in a sheriff's sale. The deal was completed Wednesday.

Hackman Released At Hospital Thursday

Alvin Hackman, 22, who is serving in the U. S. Navy, was released from the Adams county memorial hospital Thursday.

Hackman had been hospitalized after a fire at the home of his mother, Mrs. Christina Hackman, 226 N. Ninth St., about 4 o'clock Wednesday morning. The fire had started in the bedroom in which he was sleeping.

He was rescued from the blaze by local firemen and rushed to the Adams county memorial hospital and placed under oxygen, suffering from smoke inhalation. He was not burned, however.

That everything will be as it should be . . .

The obligation to see to it that every detail of a funeral service is handled to perfection is one that we honor as a sacred trust.

Consideration for the family's wishes is the keynote of our service.

Firemen Called To Control Shed Fire

The Decatur firemen were called out at 12:45 p.m. Thursday to control the burning of a shed at the corner of 12th and Jackson streets.

Timothy Sprague, 1125 Jackson St., had been given permission previously to burn the old shed, but the fire got out of control and burned some Indiana & Michigan wires. I&M was called to repair the hot lines caused by the fire.

Mayor Of Marion To Run As Independent

MARION, Ind. (UPI) — Mayor Jack Edwards will seek his third term by running as an independent in the November election.

Edwards was defeated in his bid for renomination in the May Democratic primary by Councilman Ray Burns.

Holiday Is Marked By Ringing Of Bells

The bells rang throughout Decatur at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon, in observance of the Independence day holiday. Nearly all churches and structures with bells began ringing them for a four-minute period at 1 p.m. yesterday.

Judge Myles F. Parrish came to the Adams courthouse, which was closed for business for the day, and rang the courthouse bell in the observance. The bell ringing throughout the city was started and sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary and the response received was very good. Numerous American flags were on display throughout the city during the day, and nearly all homes in the homestead area were displaying flags.

Household Scrapbook

Buzz the Kids

Place a doorbell or buzzer in the children's room, with the push-button in the kitchen. Mom can then buzz the youngsters out of bed or in to dinner. Arrange a code signal for each child and for various messages. The transformer used for the house door bell or chimes will power both systems.

Recipe Holder

To keep a recipe card available for easy reference on your kitchen table or counter top, attach a spring-type clothespin to the low edge of the card and insert the clothespin in an empty 1/2-pint bottle or tumbler.

Super Shoe Gloss

Want to give your shoes a super gloss? Polish them as usual, then put a drop or two of plain water on the caps and finish-polish them with your buffing cloth.
