SUNBEAM GARDEN CLUB MEETS IN PETERSON

The July meeting of the Sunbeam Garden club met recently at the home of Mrs. Eugene Sommer, with 17 members and three guests present. The president, Mrs. Walter Egley, opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Walter Peck gave the lesson on organic gardening and Mrs. John Barger reported on the chapter entitled "Color Sets the Mood" from the book on flower arrangements that the club is studying. The roll call was answered by "my favorite rose."

The flower arrangements that were brought by Mrs. Ralph Ross, Sr., and Mrs. Milton Hoffman were then studied by the group. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held August 20 at the home of Mrs. Glen Barger, with each member bringing an arrangement of their snapdragons. Mrs. Fred Ault, of Bluffton, will give the lesson on floral arranging.

RUTH CIRCLE MEETS AT SHEETS HOME

The Ruth Circle of the Decatur E. U. B. church met recently at the home of Mrs. Carl Sheets. Opening devotions were presented by Mrs. Fuhrman Miller, followed by the business meeting.

The lesson entitled, "One in Christ," an outline of the responsibilities of the local church, was given by Miss Luella Werst. The lesson was closed with offering and a dedication prayer. The August meeting will be a carry-in picnic at the home of Mrs. Lester Sautbine. Delicious refreshments were then served by the hostess Mrs. Sheets, to the seven members and three guests present.

The Live and Learn Home Demonstration club will meet at the Country Charm restaurant, Wednesday at 12:30 p.m.

The Monroe W.C.T.U. will meet Thursday at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Otto Longenberger.

A pleasant surprise was given Owen Scott, Sunday, reminding him of another birthday. Those attending included A. H. Hoover, Convey, O.; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Scott and children Delwyn, Duane, Delora, and Diane, Rev. and Mrs. Bennett, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Kauffman, and children, Leon, Kerry, and Jirine, the Mesdames Eva, Elizabeth, and Carroll Scott, the hostess, Mrs. Owen Scott, and Dwight and Linda. The afternoon was spent visiting and enjoying the cake and ice cream.

The Willshire E. U. B. church is sponsoring their annual ice cream social Saturday beginning at 5 p.m. on the parsonage lawn.

The Queen of Peace Study club will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Schirack at 8 o'clock.

The Women of the Moose will meet at the Hoose home, Thursday at 8 p.m.

The Nu-U club will meet at 1322 West Monroe Street, Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Decatur Student On Distinguished List

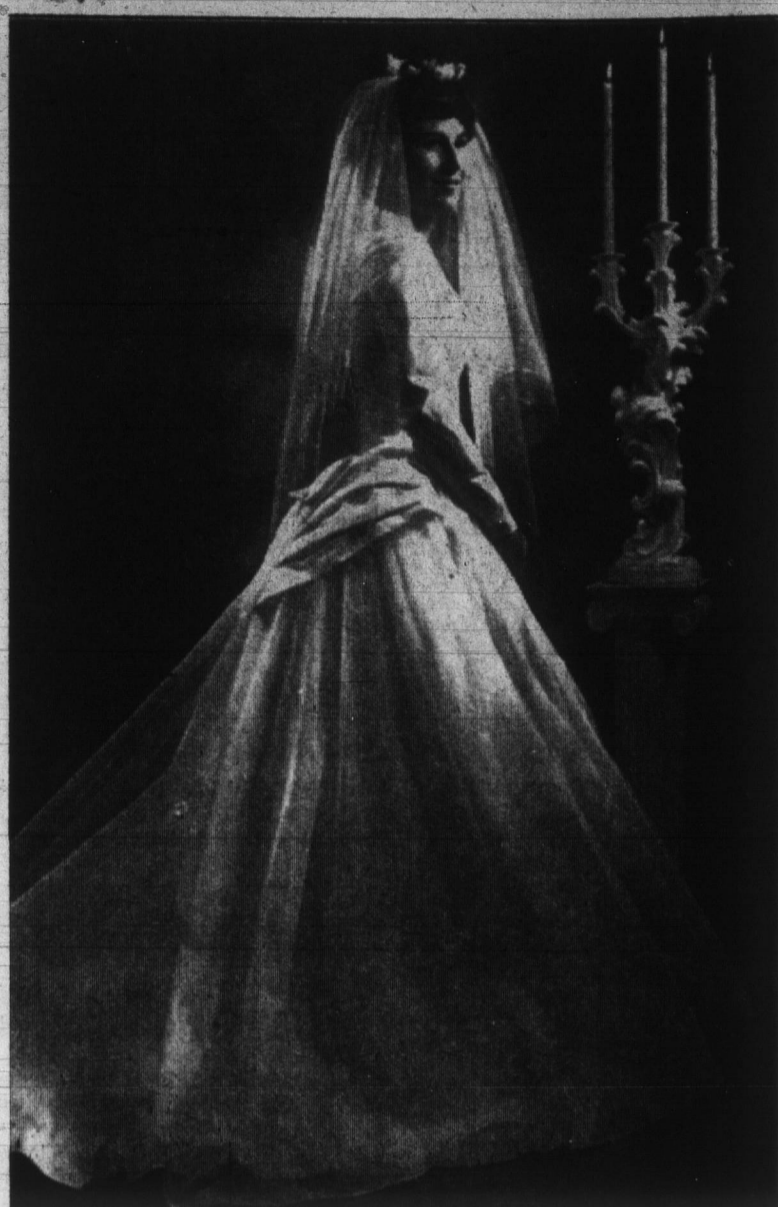

LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Fifty-five students from three of Purdue's extension centers attained the distinguished rating in their work for the second semester of the 1962-63 academic year, according to the university registrar's office.

The Indianapolis, Calumet and Fort Wayne centers are the three university extensions having students who had an index of 5.5 out of a possible 6 points. To be eligible for the distinguished rating a student must also carry at least 14 hours during the semester.

The distinguished students include Roger R. Harris, 316 North Third St., Decatur, and Marvin Lee Jacobs, Monroeville.

Non-Sweat Pipes

Do the pipes in your basement sweat, especially during the hot, humid months? Take a regular 20-lb. shopping bag and put it over your water meter. Twist the bottom of it, and it will act as insulation for your pipes, which will not exude any more moisture.

Moser - Bowen Vows Pledged

White gladioluses, palms and apricot carnations banked the altar of the St. Paul's United Church of Christ for a double ring candlelight wedding ceremony Saturday evening. The Rev. Jerry Flueckiger read the sacred vows to join in holy wedlock Miss Jill Lee Moser and Richard Alan Bowen. The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jason Moser, Wren, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Bowen, Ohio City, O.

The wedding music was provided by soloist, Miss Ann Bowen, who sang "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee," "You'll Never Walk Alone," "Wedding Prayer," and "The Lord's Prayer," and organist, Miss Sharon Kuhl, playing selections including "Indian Love

Locals

Master Duane Scott of Portland spent the past week visiting with his grandmother and other relatives.

Delwyn Scott of Portland is spending this week with his aunt, Mrs. G. D. Kauffman and family. Richard Andrews, of 321 Master Drive, is a patient in the Lutheran hospital in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller had as their guests Friday Miss Etta Rowell, Mrs. Elsie Allwine and Mrs. Edith Huddston, all of Washington, D. C.

Shirley Decker, route 4, Bluffton, was admitted Friday to Wells county hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garard and daughter, Mrs. Burton Louth and children, Debby Jo and Ricky, motored to Cleveland and Warren, O., Saturday. They visited with Charlie Mumma, who was taken to the Crile veterans hospital at Cleveland a week ago, when his condition became critical. Mr. Mumma, who is one of the few living Spanish American war vets from this county, fractured both his hips a few years ago, and he has been in failing health since then. Mrs. Louth and children will visit relatives in Warren for a week or two before returning to their home in Fort Wayne.

Back of the Stove

A long-handled radiator brush is convenient for removing dust from between the stove and wall where other tools are too bulky.
