Indians Equal Major League Homer Record

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Cleveland right-hander Pedro Ramos struck out 15 Los Angeles batters Wednesday and socked two home runs in a 9-5 nightcap victory. The Indians won the opener from the Angels, 1-0.

Ramos hit his first homer in the third inning off loser Eli Grba and connected again in the sixth when the Indians tied the major league record by belting four consecutive homers of shell-shocked Paul Foytack.

Woodie Held launched the barrage and Ramos, Tito Francona and Larry Brown followed with back-to-back blows that tied the mark set by Milwaukee's Ed Matthews, Hank Aaron, Joe Adcock and Frank Thomas on June 10, 1961.

Ramos went 8 1/3 innings Wednesday night before Gary Bell came on to preserve his fifth victory.

Whitfield Grand Slammed

Pedro was nipped for 11 hits, including homers by Lee Thomas and Leon Wagner, but the Indians hit six. Fred Whitfield connected for a grand slam in the third inning and his sixth inning homer in the opener broke open a scoreless duel between Barry Latman and Fred Newman.

The Yankees stayed eight games in front with a 3-2 win over the Athletics while the second place White Sox tripped the Senators, 5-2. The Orioles defeated the Tigers, 2-1, and the Twins downed the Red Sox, 9-5.

Tom Tresh's 18th homer with two out in the ninth inning settled matters between the Yankees and Athletics. Tresh's blow came off southpaw Ted Bowsfield and earned Ralph Terry his 12th victory with a five-hitter.

Herbert Won 10th

Jim Landis and Camilo Carreon collected three hits apiece for the White Sox as Ray Herbert gained his 10th victory by holding the Senators to seven hits in eight innings. Hoyt Wilhelm finished up. Don Zimmer homered for Washington.

Southpaw Steve Barber out-dueled Frank Lary in Baltimore's victory over Detroit. Al Smith singled home the winning run in the first inning to hand Lary his fifth setback in six decisions. Barber, whose record now is 14-8, allowed six hits and the only run off him was unearned.

The Twins bombed the Red Sox' prize relievers, Jack Lamabe and Dick Radatz, for five runs in the seventh inning to break a 4-all tie. Jimmie Hall's 14th homer with two on was the big blow during the rally after Bob Allison had hammered his 24th homer earlier in the contest. Dick Stuart hit his 23rd for the Red Sox and teammates Roman Mejias and Ed Bressoud also connected. Bill Pleis was the winning pitcher and Lamabe the loser.

Results Listed In Wildcat Tournaments

The Mantles and the Musials were McMillen Kitty tournament winners, and the Lions and Bobcats were McMillen Kat tournament winners, in games played Wednesday.

The Musials edged the Aarons, 2-1, behind the two-hit pitching of Bracey. Stevens tossed a three-hitter in defeat. The Mantles edged the Kalines by a 1-0 score, as Gray of the Mantles tossed a three-hit shutout. Feasel allowed the Mantles only four hits, and their winning run in the last innings.

A home run by winning hurler Rickord paced the Lions to a 13-9 verdict over the Cubs in Kat play. The Bobcats rallied for three tallies in the top of the sixth to edge the Leopards 9-8. Dave Meyer homered for the Leopards.

Dodgers Beat Mets, Add To League Margin

By JOE SARGIS
UPI Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers were back in the "cat bird seat" today because the bubble burst for the San Francisco Giants and poor Roger Craig can't win for losing.

The Dodgers made the most of six hits Wednesday night to beat Craig and the New York Mets, 5-3, while the Philadelphia Phillies snapped the Giants' nine-game winning streak with a 14-inning 7-3 victory.

It was Craig's 17th straight defeat — one short of the National League record set by Clifton Curtis of the old Boston Braves in 1910.

A walk, a single by Ron Fairly, a triple by John Roseboro and a sacrifice fly by Willie Davis in the second inning accounted for three Los Angeles runs and two more singles, an error by New York second baseman Ron Hunt plus a wild pitch by Craig scored two more in the fourth inning. That proved more than enough as Pete Richert, Ken Rowe and Ron Perranoski held the Mets off to nail down the victory.

Combined with the Giants' loss to the Phils, it restored the Dodgers' first-place lead to 4 1/2 games.

Marichal Knocked Out

Juan Marichal was cruising along with a 3-0 lead when the Phils scored a run in the eighth and then chased him with two more in the ninth.

In the 14th the roof fell in for the Giants. Bob Oldis led off with a single off reliever Bob Bolin and Don Hoak reached first when Ed Bailey was charged with obstruction on a sacrifice bunt. Earl Averill grounded to Bolin who threw wildly past third, permitting two runs to score, and then Johnny Callison unloaded a two-run homer to wrap it up.

The third-place Cardinals also lost ground, slipping to five games off the pace, when they dropped a 9-2 decision to the Cincinnati Reds. In the other NL games, the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Houston Colts, 6-3, and the Chicago Cubs nipped the Milwaukee Braves, 3-2.

In the American League, the New York Yankees beat the Kansas City A's, 3-2, the Minnesota Twins downed the Boston Red Sox, 9-5, the Chicago White Sox subdued the Washington Senators, 5-2, the Baltimore Orioles nipped the Detroit Tigers, 2-1, and the Cleveland Indians swept the Los Angeles Angels, 1-0 and 9-5.

O'Toole Won 14th

Jim O'Toole spaced seven hits in gaining his 14th victory against nine defeats. The Reds made it easy for him to snap a personal six-game losing streak by toppling on Bob Gibson for six runs in the first three innings. Pete Rose, Frank Robinson and Marty Keough each had two RBIs for Cincinnati.

Pinch hitter Manny Mota's two-run single capped a four-run seventh inning rally that enabled the Pirates to come from behind and beat the Colts. Bob Friend, with help from Elroy Face, gained his 12th victory against nine losses for Pittsburgh. Reliever Hal Woodeshick (8-6) took the loss.

Ron Santo drove in three runs with a third-inning home run and a ninth-inning sacrifice fly to account for all the Cubs' runs. Santo's hitting enabled reliever Lindy McDaniel to pick up his seventh victory and saddled Bob Shaw, the last of five Milwaukee pitchers, with his eighth loss.

Steiners, Rashes In Tourney Final

The Steiners and the Rashes will battle at 9 o'clock Friday morning in the championship game of the Northwest Kitty league tourney, following victories scored this morning.

The Steiners eliminated the Affolters, 14-11, and the Rashes shut out the Steurys, 2-0.

Wildcat Tourney Champions Named

The Dodgers won the American Association tournament title, and the Athletics copped the International League tourney championship, in Northwest Tiger play Wednesday afternoon.

The Dodgers ousted the Reds, regular season champs in the American Association, by a 4-3 count, in what was described as the finest game of the year in the Tiger league.

The Dodgers won the contest in the last of the seventh when Rick Sommer laid down a perfect squeeze bunt to score Bill Bolinger with the winning run. The Reds had rallied to tie the score in their half of the seventh. Dave Pierce had two hits and scored twice to lead the Dodger attack.

The Orioles, regular season international league champs, lost a 9-5 decision to the Athletics in that league's title game. The A's used a big five-run fourth inning for their win, and were led by Mike Patch and Don Lengerich, each of whom had three hits in three trips.

In Northwest Kitty league play, the Steurys scored four times in the first inning and went on to down the Soldners, 5-3, in tourney play. In the second game, the Rashes scored in every inning and whipped the Porters by a 13-5 count. Line scores:

College Stars Meet Packers Friday Night

CHICAGO (UPI) — The College All-Stars will get their last light drill today in preparation for Friday's attempt to end the Green Bay Packers' winning streak in the 30th annual football All-Star game.

The Packers, champions of the National Football League, have won their last 19 exhibition games, including a 42-20 victory over the All-Stars last year. The pro team has won the last four All-Star games.

Green Bay, with almost all veterans from last year's team still on hand, was a solid favorite to win by two to three touchdowns. The Packers will hold their last workout tonight under the lights of Soldier Field, where the game will be played.

A crowd of about 65,000 was expected for the contest, usually the opener of the grid season. The game will be displayed on television with 209 stations on the network.

Neither coach Vince Lombardi of the Packers nor Otto Graham, in his fifth game as All-Star coach, has named a starting lineup.

Two Brothers And Casting Teams Win

The Brothers racked up win number 14 in 15 decisions in the City softball league Wednesday evening, downing McMillen by a 7-3 score, after Decatur Casting Co. had whipped Adams Trailer Sales, 11-3.

M. Black hit for the cycle, single, double, triple and home run, in four trips, scoring four times and knocking in four runs, to lead the Casting Co. to its sixth win against eight losses.

A. Marbaugh and Lautzenhiser also homered for the winners, and Lautzenhiser picked up the pitching victory with a six-hitter. Hirschy had two of the hits for the Trailer Sales, a single and a triple.

A double and a home run by Jones paced league-leading Two Brothers in the nightcap, as Les Linn tossed a six-hit job at McMillen. Jones batted in two runs for the winners, as did Markle. Dick Marbaugh also homered for Two Brothers. Ralph Canales poked a single and a triple for McMillen. Line scores:

Andrews Net Coach New Berne Mentor

Sanford Brueckheimer, head basketball coach at Andrews high school in Huntington county for the past seven years, has been announced as the new head coach at Berne high school by the South Adams community school board.

Brueckheimer will succeed Bruce Smith, who recently resigned after three very successful seasons as the Berne basketball mentor.

In addition to his basketball duties, Brueckheimer will coach baseball, assist in football and assume the duties of playground director next summer.

A graduate of Horace Mann high school in Gary, the new Berne coach has been the head basketball coach at Andrews the past seven years and in nine years of coaching has compiled a record of 106 wins and 45 losses.

He starred in basketball, football and track in high school and also played military athletics, while serving in both World War II and the Korean War.

Brueckheimer, his wife and daughter, are currently residing at Bloomington and are planning to move to Berne after he completes work in his master's degree.
