Ellis Burton Ties Record As Cubs Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Off-traded Ellis Burton of the Cubs, a tough man to keep tabs on because he never stays in one place too long, landed in the record book for keeps today—alongside Mickey Mantle.

That's a pretty tall order for a guy with an undistinguished 224 lifetime batting average, but Burton managed it Thursday night when he became the eighth player in major league history to hit home runs from both sides of the plate in one game.

The shopworn, switch-hitting Burton, whose only other claim to fame is that he plays a hot trumpet off the field, accomplished Thursday night's feat while helping the Cubs beat the Braves, 10-2.

Batting right-handed, the 27-year-old Chicago outfielder set off a six-run rally with his fifth homer of the year off loser Denny Lemaster in the first inning, then connected for his sixth homer while batting left-handed against reliever Ron Piche in the seventh.

Joined Select Group
Burton thus joined a select group of seven other major leaguers who switch hit home runs in the same game. Most notable of the group is Mantle, who has done it on nine different occasions. Most recent before Burton was Maury Wills of the Dodgers, who did it last year.

In addition to his two homers Thursday night, Steve Boros and Jim Schaffer also homered for the Cubs as Larry Jackson sent down the Braves on seven hits for his 12th victory against nine losses. Lemaster's loss was his sixth compared with seven victories.

By winning, the Cubs solidified their hold on fourth place and moved to within 6½ games of the idle first-place Dodgers.

The St. Louis Cardinals climbed into a tie for second place with San Francisco by defeating the Cincinnati Reds, 3-2, in the only other National League game scheduled.

Game Rained Out
The only game scheduled in the American League was Boston at Baltimore and it was rained out. George Altman's fifth inning homer off Joey Jay broke up a 1-1 tie and paced the Cardinals to their victory over the Reds. Benchmarked recently for weak hitting, Altman collected three of the Cardinals' seven hits.

St. Louis increased its lead to 3-1 in the eighth on a walk, a single by Charlie James and Tim McCarver's sacrifice fly and that turned out to be the winning run when the Reds scored once in the ninth.

Southpaw Curt Simmons won his 10th although he needed help from Ron Taylor and Bobby Shantz in the ninth. The hard luck Jay gave up six hits in seven innings and was charged with his 15th loss against four victories.

Mantles Winners Of Kitty Title

The Mantles whipped the Foxes by a 10-6 score to win the McMillen Kitty league tournament this morning.

Tom Patch led the Mantles with four hits in four trips to the plate, and Gray pitched the distance to record the victory. Line score: Mantles 21-403-10 9 Foxes 10-050-6 8

Pony Loop Tourney Continues Tonight

The second round of the Adams county Pony League's annual post-season tournament will be played this evening in Decatur.

In this evening's first game, at 6 o'clock, two Decatur teams, the Cubs and Braves, will meet. The Cubs won the regular season championship with a 9-3 record and drew a first round bye. The Braves finished in a tie for the fourth spot, and defeated Berne Tuesday in the first round.

In tonight's second game, the Decatur Cardinals will battle Adams Central, starting about 8 p.m. The Cardinals finished in the runner-up spot in the regular season, besting Geneva in a playoff for an 8-5 mark, and then defeated Mowmouth in the first round.

Adams Central placed sixth in the regular season, winning four of all contests, but upset third-place Geneva in the tourney Monday.

Tonight's winners will battle at 6:30 o'clock Monday evening for the tournament championship.

In the event of rain postponing action this evening, the games will be played Saturday evening at the same times.

Jim Ferree Leads In St. Paul Open

ST. PAUL (UPI) — Some of the golfers playing in the $35,000 St. Paul Open claim the greens "are as hard as a rock." But the granite-texture wasn't enough to stop 71 of the 137 entries from shooting par or better.

Jim Ferree, Corona, Calif., led a band of 57 under-par shooters Thursday with an eight-under 64 to take the first round edge and come within six strokes of the course record, Don Fairfield, Perdue, Fla., was one shot back at 65 and Jerry Barber, 1961 PGA champion, was third with a 66.

Ferree's best showing was at the Western Open in Chicago a week ago when he tied for 13th place and picked up $1,000.

Jack Rule Jr., Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Jerry Pittman, Tulsa, Okla., were tied for fourth place with 67.

Bunched together at 68 were Randy Glover, Florence, N.C.; Raymond Floyd, Fayetteville, N.C.; Tommy Jackson, Bermuda Dunes, Calif.; John Cook, Minnetonka, Minn.; Bruce Crumpton, Sidney, Australia; and Jacky Cupit, Corona, Calif.

Dow Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla., and Ken Venturi, Crystal River, Fla., were tied with seven others at 69. Defending champion Doug Sanders, Ojai, Calif., fired a 70.

Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, and Gary Player were among the main golfers absent from the tourney. The field will be cut to 65 and ties after today's 18-hole round and play will continue on through Sunday.

NEW YORK (UPI) — The New York football Giants were boarding a jetliner when a stewardess firmly blocked Y. A. Tittle's path.

"Sorry, sir," she said, "but this section is reserved for football players only."

Her action was easy to understand.

Yelberton Abraham Tittle among his towering, youthful confederates hardly appears to be the public image of a great quarterback. His head is almost completely devoid of hair. His face is lined. He stands six feet tall but seems shorter. And, at 36, he could be in his mid-40's.

But the records, and his unchallenged leadership of the menacing Giants, are proof of how looks can be deceiving. There may be only a thin fringe of gray hair around his jug-handle ears but there isn't anything wrong with his rubbery right arm.

"Yat," as he is known to his mates, has pitched the Giants to a pair of consecutive NFL divisional titles. He was the league's most valuable player in 1961. Last season he set a league mark of 33 touchdown passes in one year and tied another mark with seven in one game.

High Among Greats
These heroics have moved him high among the all-time passing greats. Currently he is second to Bobby Layne in completions, second to Layne in attempts, third to Layne and Norm Van Brocklin in yards gained and fourth in total touchdown passes. He could grab the yards gained and completions records before the season is over.

Which is all the more remarkable when you consider that, while this is his 16th year of pro football, he lost credit for the first two years. That's because he spent the first two years after graduation from LSU with Baltimore in the defunct All American Conference.

After that came one year with the Colts in the NFL, 10 years with the San Francisco 49ers and the past two with the Giants.

The Giants shudder to think what they would do if anything happened to Tittle which, at the lengthening stage of his career, is unusual for him. Because throughout his career he always has had to fight desperately for a first string berth.

Moves In

As a Colt rookie he had to beat off Bud Schwenk and Charlie O'Rourke. When the Colts migrated to the NFL, Tittle held off prize rookie Adrian Burke of Baylor.

Moving on to San Francisco, he soon took over from Frankie Albert and, as the years went by, defended his top spot against such challengers as Maury Dunne, Jim Powers, Earl Morrall and John Brodie.

Injuries and an improved Brodie finally cost him his first string role in 1959 but he took a new lease on life when he moved to the Giants in 1961. Since then, Tittle, a native of Marshall, Tex., who will be 37 in late October, has fired the Giants to 22 victories in 28 games.

Tittle is sensitive about his baldness, which has caused him mates also to dub him "colonel slick" and the "bald eagle." Mention of it can cause storm clouds to gather in his deepest blue-grey eyes.

But there's no kidding about his being a football player. Even if he doesn't look like one.

Two Young Sisters Killed In Accident

By United Press International
The lives of two tiny sisters were snuffed out Thursday in an accident near Warsaw, raising the Indiana 1963 traffic toll to at least 694 compared with 655 this time last year.

Four-year-old Lesa Shepherd and her 2-year-old sister, Tammy, were killed while riding in a car driven by their mother, Rosa, 21, of near Warsaw.

Mrs. Shepherd was injured and reported in a state of shock in the Murphy Medical Center at

Packers Heavy Favorites In All-Star Game

CHICAGO (UPI) — Gridiron know-how made Vince Lombardi's Green Bay Packers a two-to-three touchdown favorite today for the 30th annual game matching the National Football League champions against the College All-Stars.

The All-Stars, coached by Otto Graham for the sixth consecutive year, have their share of 260 and 270 pound behemoths and more backfield speed than usual, but even Graham concedes that the experience of the Packers' NFL titleholders for the last two seasons, will make them hard to beat.

The pro club has won 19 of the 30 games, the All-Stars eight and two games have been tied, while the Packers will be seeking to rack up the fifth straight triumph in the series and their 20th consecutive exhibition victory. Last year Green Bay whipped the Stars, 42-20, with a 21-point splurge in the fourth period.

Tonight's game was expected to draw about 65,000 fans to Soldier Field on Chicago's lake front despite network television over 200 stations and an uncomfortable weather forecast.

The weather outlook was for a warm night with a high temperature during the day between 85 and 90 and thundershowers likely.

Both teams took their final workouts under the lights at Soldier Field to become acclimated to the turf with the Packers winding up their drills Thursday night.

The Packers definitely will be without the services of one key player, linebacker Ray Nitschke, a star last year, while fullback Jim Taylor was a doubtful starter due to a leg injury. However, Lombardi was expected to get maximum service from Earl Gros, an All-Star standout last year, as a replacement.

One other new name will be in the packer backfield, halfback Tom Moore, replacing Paul Hornung, under suspension by the NFL.

Driver Fined Here Following Accident

Albert J. Davison, 53-year-old Pleasant Mills resident, was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $27, in city court this morning.

Davison was arrested following an accident early this morning, and charged with public intoxication. The accident occurred when Davison's auto hit a parked car owned by Andrew F. Miller, 316 W. Jefferson St., as the Miller car was parked on the east side of the street at 402 Mercer Ave.

Davison "was southbound on Mercer" when his car struck the left rear of the Miller car. He drove to the 600 block of Mercer Ave., before stopping, with damage to his car and a flat right front tire.

There were no witnesses to the 3:30 a.m. mishap, and thus Davison was charged with public intoxication. Damages were estimated at $300 to his car and $150 to the Miller vehicle.

Carl Henry Conrad, 32, of 903 N. 11th St., reported to the city police at 4:40 p.m. Thursday that a boy on a bicycle had ridden into the side of his automobile, but the boy left the scene immediately.

Conrad was westbound on Adams street when the boy rode off Third street and into the right side of the car. The youngster got back on his bicycle, however, and rode off. No damage was incurred by the Conrad car.

Warsaw. The accident happened 1½ miles north of Warsaw on Indiana 15.

Police said Mrs. Shepherd's car was struck from the rear by a car driven by George Wilkins, 39, Warsaw, while she was waiting to make a left turn. The impact of the crash threw the auto into the path of a truck driven by David Hudson, 34, Flint, Mich.

The others were not hurt.

Wildcat All-Star Games Played Here

The Ladds Tigers, the McMillen Kittys and the American Kats were winners in the triple-header of Wildcat League all-star games at Worthman Field Thursday.

The Ladds scored four times in the third inning, enough to whip the Reiffs by a 4-1 score in the Tiger league all-star contest. Gary Pettibone received credit for the pitching victory.

McMillen's Kitty all-stars also scored at their runs in one inning, the fourth, the defeat the Kitty stars from Northwest by a 5-3 count.

The Northwest stars were limited to only two hits, one of which was by Rudy Mauller.

In the Kat all-star contest, the Nationals tallied five times in the first inning but the Americans came up with a seven-run second inning and went on to a 9-7 win over the Nationals.

In the Tiger league's International all-star contest at Northwest diamond, Mike Reef and Kuhnle had three hits apiece to lead the Berras to a 9-8 win over the Fords.

Greg Bixler homered in a losing cause for the Fords, and Don Krieger had a pair of doubles. Line scores:
