FRIENDSHIP CLUB MEETS RECENTLY

The Friendship club of the Decatur Church of God met recently at the fellowship hall. The meeting was opened with Bernice Yager giving devotions and Norma Landis leading the group in prayer. "Getting the Most From the Sunday Sermon" was the title of the lesson given by Betty Steiner. Roll call was answered by telling of a most embarrassing moment. The business part of the meeting was then discussed. Kay Martin and Annis Singleton led the group in exercises. Phyllis Singleton and Bernice Yager served refreshments to the 15 members and one guest present.

HONORARY PSI NOTES MEET MONDAY

The honorary group of Psi Iota Xi sorority met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. James M. Burk with twenty seven members present. The president conducted a short business meeting following a lovely buffet dinner. Beautiful colored slides of various European countries were narrated and shown by Bill Zwick. Assisting the hostess were the Mesdames Carl Pumphrey, James Cowan, R. O. Gentis, Al Anderson, and George Thomas.

The board of managers of the United Church Women will meet at the home of Mrs. A. C. Underwood, 521 Lumberlost Trail, Thursday at 7:45 p.m.

A carry-in dinner will be held Saturday at 6:30 p.m. at the Masonic hall for the presiding and past matrons and patrons of the 14th district of the Order of Eastern Star. The meat, rolls, and coffee will be furnished but members are asked to bring a covered dish and table service. All presiding and past members are urged to attend. There will be a program following the dinner.

PIANO PRELUDE OPENS MEETING

The October meeting of the Magley Woman's Guild was held Tuesday evening in the church basement. Mrs. Ella Scherry opened the meeting with a piano prelude. The call to worship, given by Mrs. Richard Gerber, was followed by the group singing "O Zion Haste." Scripture and prayer were given by Mrs. Glen Girod. Mrs. Eugene Sommer gave a brief talk concerning missions, followed by Mrs. Leroy Koltner and Mrs. Walter Egley singing a duet entitled "How Great Thou Art." A reading entitled "A Mission of Loyalty Service" was given by Mrs. Irvin Worthman.

Two interesting and inspiring films entitled "Seek Ye First" and "Unlocking the Bible in South Asia" were then shown. This portion of the meeting closed with the group singing "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations" and a prayer offered by Mrs. Carl Hildebrand. Mrs. Milton Kuetzman, president, had charge of the business meeting. Hostesses for the evening were the Mesdames Ralph Ross, Jr., Darrel Arnold, Matilda Peters, Walter Conrad, Jesse Blume, Louisa Fruchte, George Gerber, Charles Sheets, and Miss Kathryn Young.

The Adams county Home Demonstration club chorus will meet Monday at the Farm Bureau building in Monroe at 7:30 p.m.

The Boy Scouts of Monroe are sponsoring a paper drive in Monroe Saturday.

The home of Margaret Pierce will be the scene of a meeting of the Historical club, Wednesday at 2 p.m.

The Zion Lutheran Missionary society will meet at the parish hall, Wednesday at 1:30 p.m.

Wednesday at 8 p.m. the Beta Sigma Phi sorority will meet at the Elks home.

The Dramatic Department of the Decatur Woman's club will meet Monday at 6 p.m. for a dinner meeting at the home of Mrs. O. S. Martindill.

The St. Catherine Study club will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Jack Burton.

The St. Dominic Study club will meet following church at the home of Mrs. William Berling, Tuesday.

BOOK REVIEW TO BE FEATURED

An interesting book review will be featured at the opening meeting of the Decatur chapter of the Valparaiso Guild at St. John's, Flat Rock, Tuesday beginning at 8 p.m. Appropriate to reformation month, Mrs. Walter Wente of Fort Wayne, will review the book, "Kitty, My Rib," by E. Jane Mall. The story offers a fascinating glimpse into the life of Kate Luther, wife of the great reformer, Martin Luther.

39ers MEET TUESDAY

Twenty-seven members of the 39ers club met Tuesday evening at the Community Center for a carry-in dinner. During the business meeting two members were welcomed back following illness. James Kitchen reported that during their stay in Leo a senior citizens club was organized with approximately 70 members. The next meeting will be held October 15 at the Community Center.

MIRIAM CIRCLE MEETS TUESDAY

The Miriam Circle of Decatur Evangelical United Brethren church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Martha Rawley, with Miss Vera Van Buskirk as leader. The lesson, "Our Church in Europe—One With Us in Christ," was presented. It dealt primarily with the church in Germany. Scripture was read by Mrs. Helen Morgan, after which Mrs. Marge Haggerty led the group in prayer.

Mrs. Haggerty, circle chairman, conducted the business meeting. Roll call was taken and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. Marie DeBolt read letters from Hong Kong, which is the foreign branch project for this year. She also reminded of World community day, November 1. The next meeting will be held November 5, with Miss Vera Van Buskirk as leader. The meeting place will be announced at a later date. The hostess served delicious refreshments to seven members and three visitors present.

Cub Pack 3036 and their families are having a skating party Friday evening from 7 until 10 p.m. at the Happy Hours Roller Rink. Every pack member and his family is urged to attend as well as all new recruits and their families. The purpose of this party is to enlist new members and explain the purpose of the organization to parents. All boys ages 8, 9, or 10 are eligible to join.

MONMOUTH P. T. A. HOLDS OPENING TEA

A table decorated with a fall centerpiece and trays of tea cookies added atmosphere to the Monmouth cafeteria where approximately 70 mothers met with the teachers of grades one through six Friday afternoon at the P.T.A. tea. The teachers presented were Miss Gump, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Fifer, Mr. Banks and Mr. Dawald. Mr. McConaha, principal, welcomed the mothers. Mrs. Ralph Reef and Mrs. Earl Geyer poured, while Mrs. Paul Strickler directed the registration of guests and introduced each mother to her child's teacher. A half hour of informal discussion followed. This was the first event of the Monmouth P.T.A. for this school year.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 573
Girl Scout Troop 573 held their first meeting September 24 of the fall season at the Girl Scout cabin. We cooked hot dogs and taffy apples over an open fire for supper. We again met Tuesday at the Community Center October 1. Officers elected are as follows: health and safety, Susan McConnell, treasurer, Dianna Dolch; scribe, Sandy Duff. Order blanks for peanuts were then handed out by our leader, Mrs. Williamson, and our co-leader, Mrs. Gaunt. Scribe, Sandy Duff.

Fall-Proof Meringue
Falling meringue can be avoided if you brown the meringue slowly with a low flame. When it's almost ready to be removed from the oven, open the oven door so the pie can cool gradually for about 10 minutes. Then take the pie out and the meringue, if properly prepared, shouldn't collapse.
