"EELS" ENTERTAIN WOMEN OF MOOSE

The Women of the Moose met at the Moose home Thursday evening with senior regent Mrs. Charles Haney in charge. Mrs. Charlotte Marbach was in charge of the chapter night program. A barbershop quartet who call themselves the "Eels," comprised of Ervin and Ed Ewell, Don Sprunger and Al Lehman entertained the group. Following enrollment, refreshments were served by Mrs. Marbach. The next meeting will be held October 24 at the Moose home at 8 p.m. There will be a Dutch Maid party following the meeting beginning at 8:30 p.m. that is open to the public.

The W.S.C.S. of the First Methodist church of Decatur will meet at the church chapel, Thursday beginning with a quiet hour at 10:30 a.m. This is a service of prayer and self-denial. The theme of the meeting is "The Church Speaks of Dies," with Mrs. Ray Walters in charge of worship and Mrs. Jesse Niblick as program leader. Circle 1 is the hostess.

The Union Chapel Charity circle will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Don Hirschy at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Warren Nidlinger is the leader.

The Calvary Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Bessie Johnson Monday at 7:30 p.m.

GOLDEN AGE GROUP MEETS RECENTLY

The Golden Age Group of the Methodist church met recently at the home of Mrs. Charles Beineke, with Mrs. Drucilla Myers as assistant hostess. Mrs. Helen Baumann, chairman, opened the meeting with prayer. The group then sang the hymns entitled "God Will Take Care of You," "I Love Him," and "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms." Mrs. Raymond Walters gave the devotion and Mrs. Lloyd Ahr gave a story entitled "The Little Outcast," and read poems entitled "Don't Judge Others Too Hard," "Friends" and "Faithful." A short business meeting was held with 23 members and three guests reported present. The next meeting will be held October 24.

The Catholic Ladies of Columbia enjoyed a delicious potluck dinner Monday at 6:30 p.m. Guests were seated at long tables in a diamond shape where fall atmosphere prevailed with bouquets of fall flowers, leaf napkins and nut cups. A short business meeting followed, after which games were enjoyed by the group. The chairman for the evening's entertainment was Mrs. Joseph Kitson, assisted by Mrs. George Stults and Miss Helen Wellman.

Engaged To Wed Larry A. Andrews

Miss Barbara J. Bowman, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy L. Bowman, Decatur, and the late Ward Bowman, is engaged to marry Larry A. Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. True Andrews, route 1, Decatur. Miss Bowman graduated from Decatur high school, International Business College and is employed as secretary to Robert S. Anderson, local lawyer. Andrews graduated from Monmouth high school, Indiana Central College and received his master's degree from Ball State Teachers College, and presently teaches in the Berne school. No wedding date has been set.

MRS. PATSY LEADERS GUEST SPEAKER

Mrs. John Genth welcomed the members of the Happy Homemakers Home Demonstration club into her home for their regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Sheldon Wagley, president, presided at the meeting, and opened with the club creed. Mrs. George Thomas gave the devotion followed by roll call answered by "What I want most for my children." Mrs. Earl Harmon gave the history of the song of the month, "Let There Be Peace On Earth," and led the group in singing it. The citizenship lesson, entitled "Citizenship for Tomorrow's Children" was given by Mrs. Clifford Roe. Membership dues were then collected and an election of officers was held with the results as follows: president, Mrs. John Genth; vice president, Mrs. John Baltzell; secretary, Mrs. Lee Hoopinger; treasurer, Mrs. Dwight Schnepf; leaders, Mrs. Eral Gilbert and Mrs. Harry Bowers; alternate leaders, Mrs. Floyd Mitchell, Mrs. Clifford Roe and Mrs. Sheldon Wagley, publicity chairman, Mrs. Paul Erp, Mrs. Wagley then introduced the Adams county Home Demonstration agent, Mrs. Patsy Leader, who presented an interesting lesson on picture matting. She gave several illustrations on how to use inexpensive materials which one might already have on hand for picture making as well as techniques for bringing out certain colors in the picture to provide a new effect. Mrs. Earl Harmon, Mrs. Clifford Roe and Mrs. John Genth receive capsule gifts and the hostess gift. Mrs. Genth, assisted by her daughter, Linda, served refreshments to Mrs. Leaders and the 12 members present. The club will hold their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Parrish.
