DISTRICT FHA MEETING OCT. 19

The northeast district of the Indiana association of the Future Homemakers of America will hold their annual fall meeting at Columbus City high school Saturday, October 19.

All clubs are urged to have all officers present. In addition, three other members will be quite welcome along with two adults, including the chapter advisors.

The opening session will begin at 10 a.m. with district president Paulette LeCount presiding.

The theme will be "Your Home—A Key to the Future." The three goals will be: 1. To train officers for leadership. 2. To interest the 1963-64 program of work. 3. To stimulate interest in officers for promoting the program of work in their local chapters.

The program of work will be presented at the business meeting. Following will be lunch, served in the school cafeteria.

After lunch, there will be a special meeting for the officers of the local chapters. The district officers will meet with the local officers holding the same respective offices.

The duties of the individual offices will be discussed and explained during these meetings. The meeting is scheduled to adjourn at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Shakespeare club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George Buckley. The meeting will begin at 2 p.m.

Locals

Mrs. Martha G. Heller underwent major surgery for removal of her gall bladder Wednesday at Presbyterian St. Luke hospital in Chicago.

Mrs. Louis Staub was dismissed Wednesday from the Lutheran hospital in Fort Wayne following treatment for a broken ankle suffered in a fall in her home Saturday evening.
