FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, our product called GALAXON. You must take fat in 4-5 days on your money back. No strenuous exercise, laxatives, massage or taking of so-called reducing candles, crackers, gels, or sawdust. GALAXON is a tablet and easily swallowed. When you take GALAXON, you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like, but you simply won't eat the ones for extra portions because GALAXON depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food. Your weight must come down because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. GALAXON costs $3.00 and is sold over the counter. If not satisfied for any reason just return the package to your druggist and get your full money back. No questions asked. GALAXON is sold with this guarantee.

Auto Is Demolished In One-Car Wreck

Deputy sheriff Warren Kneiss investigated a one-car accident Wednesday at 8:15 p. m., at the intersection of two county roads eight miles west of Decatur. Stephen Dee Hakes, 16, route 3, Decatur, was eastbound on county road 2, a T road, and failed to see the dead end at the intersection of 38 1/2. His vehicle continued straight ahead and into a field, breaking off a corner post and some fence.

Hakes said a car traveling in front of him had lifted a lot of dust and he was unable to see clearly due to the dust. Damages were listed at a total loss in the 1955 model car and $15 to the property owned by Albert Erxleben, route 1, Decatur.

Three From County In Portland Court

Three Adams county residents, including one from Decatur, appeared in Portland city court Monday. Ivan E. Hough, 57, of Geneva, through his attorney, Keith Fraser, filed an affidavit for a change of judge on charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol, and driving left of center. The motion was granted, and the judge will now set up a panel of three from which a new judge will be chosen.

Elbert Strickler, 18, of Decatur, was fined $22.75 by waiver on speeding charges. Forest Ivan Brubaker, 42, of Geneva, paid $22.75 on a charge of improper passing.
