CHARLES KENT IS GUEST SPEAKER

The Psi Iota Xi sorority held its meeting at the I & M social room with 28 members and one guest, Mrs. Robert McKenzie, present. Reports were given on the northern province meeting held recently at the Club Olympia in Fort Wayne. Mental health tags were distributed for the Christmas gifts that are sent to the Fort Wayne State School. Members are asked to bring the gifts wrapped and ready to send to the November meeting.

Miss Kathryn Rash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Rash, was selected as Psi Ote representative to Girls State next spring. Miss Barbara Rydell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Rydell, was named alternate.

A $300 donation was made to the music department of Decatur Catholic high school for the purchase of new band uniforms. The social hour was presented by Charles Kent, who showed his beautiful collection of rocks and explained how they were made into jewelry.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, the Mesdames Harold Bohnke, Enos Osterman, Larry Elliott, Ted Hill, and the Misses Alice Roth and Diane Sauer.

DELTA THETA TAU HAS PLEDGE SERVICE

Omicron chapter of Delta Theta Tau sorority held a "ghost convention" in Elting's Acres for its six pledges. Mesquered members and pledges were registered by giving each a name tag bearing the name of a TV personality to be guessed by the wearers.

A clever skit entitled, "ghost convention," was given by the pledges: Florence Anderson, Janet Clark, Beth Garner, Jean Koons, Donna Shraluka, Verla Swere, and the president, Sue McConaha. Convention headquarters, at the home of Alice Bultmeier, was appropriately decorated in Halloween style. Assisting hostesses were Jane Lybarger and Jo Ann Shannon. Various other Halloween activities entertained all present. Impressive pledge services were conducted by Rosemary Spangler, assisted by Mary Catherine Spangler, Irene Krueckeberg and Harriet Mallonee.

The Delta opening ceremony, brief business meeting, said the Delta closing ceremony was conducted by the president. All members are reminded to be at the Callithumpian parade to sell popcorn.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses at the end of the evening. The initiation services will be at six-thirty November 12 at the Elks. At seven-thirty, a buffet will be served at the Four Seasons restaurant. Initiation practice will be at six-thirty November 11 at the Elks. All members-at-large are encouraged to attend the initiation services and the buffet. Reservations will be accepted by Mrs. John McConaha, phone 3-3480, until November 11.

The Decatur Belmont Home Demonstration club will meet at the home of Mrs. Mary Case for a masquerade party, Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The Live and Learn Home Demonstration club will meet Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Earl Chase. There is a contest for the best dressed hobo.

Miss Gayle Custer Wed Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. Raymond P. Lanternier, the former Gayle Custer, selected for her wedding at the Trinity E. U. B. church Sunday afternoon, a gown of imported chantilly lace and bouffant taffeta. The fitted taffeta bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline trimmed with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. Long lace sleeves tapered to points over her hands. A front panel of lace outlined with lace flowerettes and a scalloped hemline detailed the taffeta skirt. Soft folds of taffeta with a flat bow accented the back which swept into a lace and taffeta paneled chapel-length train. Her bridal bouquet consisted of a white stork under a lace-pink-and-white umbrella.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Custer, 825 Winchester street, Decatur, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lanternier, formerly of Marion.

MRS. MERVIN PARRISH HONORED AT SHOWER

A stork shower was recently given in honor of Mrs. Mervin Parrish at the home of Mrs. Don Moser. The gift table was beautifully decorated with a pink stork under a lace-pink-and-white umbrella.

Upon arrival the honored guest was presented with a corsage of baby needs. Games were played and the prizes won were presented to the guest of honor. After the many useful gifts were opened, refreshments of salad, cookies, mints and nuts, served in pink umbrellas, were enjoyed.

Those attending were the Mesdames Bob Beerbower, Ralph Daily, Ray French, Harold French, Deaf French, Herman Willie, Leo Parrish, Harold Arnold, Robert Beiler, Harry Beiler, Wayne Hirschy, Bess Parrish, Wayne Meyers, Frances Jemison, Dale Troutner, Theodore Baker, Jerry Bovine, Thomas Garwood, Joe McBride, Jim Klenk, Larry Moses, Donald Gase and the Mesdames Becky Collins and Alice Steiner.

Co-hostesses for the event were Mrs. Dick Gload and Mrs. Pat Klenk.

CELEBRATE 40th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Melchi celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary with a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Melchi of Fort Wayne, following the Decatur-Concordia football game Wednesday evening. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Melchi, Jr., and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Schnepf and family, Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Melchi and family, Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson and sons, Goshen.

Earl Lanternier stood as his brother's best man, with Thane Custer, Pat Nelson, and Thomas Snell serving as groomsmen.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Custer was wearing a beige satin sheath with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception for 230 guests was held at the Bethany E. U. B. church. Serving the guests were Miss Kathryn Smith, Lima, O.; Mrs. David Liby, Decatur; Mrs. E. Lanternier, Marion; Miss Donita Stetler, Fort Wayne; Miss Elaine Meister, Lima, O.; Miss Linda Stetler, Ohio City, O.; and Miss Vonda Custer, LaGrange.

For a wedding trip to Texas the new Mrs. Lanternier was wearing a blue knit jersey with patent accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Decatur high school and Mennonite hospital school of nursing and is now employed as a surgical nurse at the Clinic hospital in Bluffton. The groom is a graduate of Cen-

JUNIOR HEART ASSOCIATION MEETS AT BUNKER HILL

Ten Junior Heart members of Adams county left Decatur at 6:30 a.m. Friday for Fort Wayne, where they boarded a chartered bus for Bunker Hill Air Force base. Approximately 200 juniors and seniors, members of the Northeastern Indiana Heart Association, attended the day of fun and learning. The purpose of the meeting was to learn the duties as members of the Junior Heart board. The ninth annual fall meeting was held at the officer's club at the air base.

The program included greetings from Colonel Frank O'Brien, commander of the 305th bomber wing; talks by David E. Livengood, junior coordinator on "Operation Junior Heart"; Wayne Frakes, area director of the Indiana Heart Association; Howard Morris, Indiana University school of medicine; and a filmstrip entitled "Youth in Action" narrated by John O'Connor. After lunch in the officers' club, an election for junior heart queen was held. Miss D'Lee Long was chosen queen with Susan Harper and Karen Brown as princesses. Following the election a tour of the base was conducted.

RUTH AND NAOMI CIRCLE MEETS IN CHURCH PARLOR

The Ruth and Naomi Circle of the Zion United Church of Christ met in the church parlor for their monthly meeting. The meeting was opened by a piano prelude by Mrs. Harry Frauhiger. The group then sang, "Give Me Thy Heart," followed by scripture taken from Luke 1 and 3 and read by Mrs. Robert Kiess, leader. She then gave the lesson on the history and present condition of Taiwan.

The business meeting was conducted by the chairman, Mrs. Viola Kirchofer. Mrs. William Feller was appointed to purchase articles for the world community day project, Nov. 1. It was reported that 37 social and 18 sick calls were made during the month by the members. Seventeen members and one guest, Mrs. Alma Reppert, were present. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

The Our Lady of Victory Discussion group will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Braun Wednesday after church.
