CATHOLIC WOMEN TO ATTEND DEANERY MEET

Local Catholic women will attend a meeting of the Huntington deanery council women at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, November 17 at Nix settlement.

The program will open with benediction at St. Catherine's church with the meeting following immediately in the parish hall. Featured on the program will be a talk by Mrs. Robert Marshall, of LaOtto, chairman of the committee cooperating with the confraternity of Christian doctrine of the Fort Wayne-South Bend diocesan council of Catholic women. Mrs. Marshall will explain all the phases and aspects of this committee on the parish level.

Conducting the meeting will be Mrs. Paul Kastner, of Huntington, deanery council president. Also attending will be the Rev. Lawrence A. Gollner, pastor of St. Peter & Paul church, Huntington, and moderator of the deanery council.

The Huntington deanery council of Catholic women draws membership from catholic parishes in Wabash, Lagro, North Manchester, Churchbush, Columbia City, Huntington, Roanoke, Nix settlement, Bluffton, Decatur and Geneva.

The arrangements for the meeting are being handled by Mrs. Clarence Hine, St. Catherine's parish chairman for the deanery council of Catholic women and the Rosary sodality of that parish.

AMERICAN LEGION AUX. HOLDS BUSINESS MEETING

The monthly business meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary unit 43 was held Friday evening at the Legion home. The meeting was called to order by the president, Waneta Walchle. The chairman of each department, child welfare, veterans crafts, mental health, publicity, and juniors, gave a report in addition to the secretary and treasurer's reports, which were read and approved. The rehabilitation chairman, Zelma Roop, reported on the gift shop to be held at the Veterans hospital December 3, 4, and 5. All members wishing to donate to this project are to contact Mrs. Roop. Waneta Walchle and Mabel Liniger than gave reports on the president and secretary's conference to be held at the war memorial in Indianapolis November 19 and 20. It was announced that the Christmas party will be held December 13 at 6:30 p.m. at the Legion home. It will be pot-luck and there will be a $1 gift exchange.

Mrs. Francis Bohnke offered prayer beginning the memorial service for two deceased auxiliary members, Miss Rose Steigmer and Mrs. Pauline Smith. The president, Waneta Walchle, delivered a short eulogy tribute to the departed members. "Under its authority, years of devoted service was given by these devoted members. They contributed much to its significance. Their service is not ended but as a result of their loyal efforts will go on for our American Legion Auxiliary and for God and country which the auxiliary serves." This concluded the memorial service.

The history of the hymn of the month, "My Prayer" by P. P. Bliss, was given by the music chairman, Mrs. Frank Crist. The hymn, "I Need Thee Every Hour," was sung by the members. The colors were retired and the meeting adjourned.

Rear-End Collision Damages Vehicles

A rear-end collision at 11:30 a.m. Sunday on highway 33, 5.5 miles east of Decatur, caused $875 damage to the two vehicles involved. A car driven by Iloa Hamrick, 58, route 3, Willshire, O., rammed the rear of a car turning left into the John King residence. Both cars were headed southeast, the turning car being driven by Terry L. King, 23. His car suffered approximately $75 damages to the rear fender and bumper.

The Hamrick vehicle veered to the right, and tore up a section of the King fence and fence posts. Damage to the car was estimated at $800, as the front bumper, grill, left front fender, rear bumper, radiator etc., were damaged. Deputy sheriff Warren Kneuss and state trooper Dan Kwasneski investigated.

John Custer Winner In County Contest

John Custer, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Burdette Custer, won the county elimination in the American Legion oratory contest Friday at Decatur high school. Custer was named winner over the only other contestant, Miss Nellie Campbell, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Campbell, route 3, Decatur.

Custer, a halfback on this year's Decatur Yellow Jackets football squad gave his talk, entitled "Our Constitution—A Document For The Ages." It was the same speech which he gave in winning the Decatur high school elimination to qualify for the county contest.

Next Monday he will give the talk at the district elimination contest at Auburn. He will also be required to give an extemporaneous talk on some constitution subject.

Fourth District Of Legion Tops Drive

The fourth district, American Legion, has again won first place in state membership drive, according to an announcement by James Zoll, of Bluffton, district commander. In the drive, this district, which includes Adams county, turned in 10,163 members for 1964, gaining 48,781 points.

Frank Deter, Decatur, is the district's membership chairman. In the district, 25 of 32 posts exceeded their membership quotas.

Locals

David B. Heller, advertising manager of the Decatur Daily Democrat, has returned to work for an hour in the morning and an hour in the afternoon on a two-week trial basis, following an August heart attack.

Lawrence Morgan, former railroad worker from Decatur, has been admitted to the Hillings nursing home, Centerville, where he would be very glad to hear from his Decatur friends, according to a letter he wrote this past week to his brother, Charles Morgan in Decatur.

This past weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hilyard entertained Philip Weeman from Maine, a student in aeronautical engineering at Tri-State College, and Dest Ostman, India, a student at the same college, majoring in chemical engineering. Both are friends of their son, Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Andrews have received the new address of their son. It is: A/c Larry K. Andrews, A. F. 16886637, H. S. S. 1608 A. B. G., Charleston A. F. B., S. C., Box 154-29404.

Miss Kathleen Soile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Soile, was released from the Parkview hospital Friday.

Veterans Services Held Here By Legion

Veterans day memorial services were conducted this morning at the American Legion home by Legion officers and members.

Post commander Ed Kirchner conducted the services and Rev. Otto C. Busse, a retired army chaplain, gave a short talk on the significance and meaning of Veterans day. Kirchner read the traditional Veterans day invocation, which cited the sacrifices and gallantry of America's servicemen and women.

The flag was flown at half-mast during the ceremonies. A color guard was in attendance and a firing squad, headed by Wendell Macklin, fired a salute in memory of American servicemen killed in action. Tom Baxter played "Taps."

Louis Smitley In Serious Condition

Louis Smitley, of route 3, Democratic precinct committeeman for St. Mary's township, is reported in serious condition with pneumonia following brain tumor surgery at Lutheran hospital, Fort Wayne last Thursday. He was conscious following the operation with no apparent paralysis. Smitley is employed by Stratoflex, Inc., at Baer Field, Fort Wayne, and his wife, Joanne, is deputy county recorder.
