Man Says Quartet
Stole $7,300 Loot

HUNTINGTON, Ind. (UPI)—
It wasn't a perfect crime, but it could have succeeded except for three men and a woman with larceny in their souls.

Dan Fredell, 29, Detroit, Mich., allegedly took $7,300 from the Elias Brothers Restaurant in Hazel Park, Mich., where he worked as an assistant manager.

His getaway plans were shaky and he resorted to hitchhiking.
He made it to Fort Wayne without a hitch and spent Tuesday night there. Three men and a woman offered him a ride to Evansville.

After staggering into Roanoke across the Huntington - Allen County line he told his tale to police while being treated for cuts and bruises inflicted by his "good Samaritans."

Fredell was in the Huntington County Jail today awaiting extradition to Michigan for a crime which netted him nothing.

The men and the woman stole his ill gotten gains, he said.

Five Tons Of Frozen
Shrimp Are Seized

DETROIT (UPI) — Government inspectors seized nearly five tons of frozen shrimp Wednesday on the ground that it was improperly packed.

Federal authorities, acting on orders from Washington, seized 661 cases of 24 packages each — a total shipment of 9,915 pounds sent about a month ago from Kansas City.

There was no botulism poisoning involved, authorities said.
But they charged the shrimp was packed under unsanitary conditions and was "contaminated with filth."

Adams county has 93 students enrolled at Ball State Teachers College this quarter, of 8,814 enrolled for college level courses.

Eighteen Indiana counties have more than 100 students enrolled.
In addition to the regular en-courses.

There are 56 students with De-three from Monroe, 20 from Berne, two from Linn Grove and Ball State has students from 81
