20 Years Ago Today

Feb. 1 1944 - American Army and Navy forces have launched an invasion of the Japanese-held Marshall Islands.

Less than one-third of the Adams county's quota in the fourth war loan drive has been met, with less than two weeks of the campaign remaining.

The Music department of the Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. C. E. Bell.

A few Adams county farmers have taken advantage of the unseasonably warm weather to do some plowing.

Fire threatened most of the Winchester downtown business district, causing damage of $75,000, and claiming the life of one man.
