Eight Persons Die In Fire In Chicago

CHICAGO (UPI)—Eight persons, including seven young brothers and sisters, perished today when fire started by a neglected cigarette swept their small bungalow.

The youngsters' father, James Alford, a Chicago Police Department detective, suffered burns and broken bones. An explosion blew him out of a second floor window while he was trying to save his children.

One youngster, Keith, 14, survived by leaping from an upstairs bedroom window.

The dead were identified as James Alford, 11; his brothers, Calvin, 8, Stephen, 5, and Tyrone, 3; and his sisters, Denise, 10, Patsy, 7, and Christine, 1.

The adult was L. T. Robinson, 51, a cousin of the father.

Officer Wesley Broderson, who headed the investigation of the blaze, said the fire started when Robinson fell asleep while smoking a cigarette in his bedroom at the back of the house on Chicago's West Side.

Alford was taken to Mount Sinai hospital in serious condition. His wife Gloria, was also admitted, in shock.

Attempt On Turkish Leader's Life Fails

ANKARA, Turkey (UPI)—Turkish Premier Ismet Inonu today escaped an assassination attempt by a man who said he opposed the 1960 revolution that brought the present regime to power.

A man identified as Mesut Sunay, 32, fired three shots at the 79-year old premier as he entered his car to drive to the National Assembly.

The shots struck the car but missed Inonu. A soldier fired at Sunay and also missed. There were unconfirmed reports a second man had been arrested.

The attack did not appear connected with Turkey's greatest current crisis, the Cyprus dispute with Greece.

Inonu, a veteran political leader since the time of the Ataturk revolution that transformed Turkey, appeared calm and even jocular after the incident.

He continued to the national assembly and appeared to be joking with his aides during the proceedings.

The accused gunman told police he was opposed to the May, 1960, revolution that deposed former Premier Adnan Menderes and put Gen. Cemal Gursel into power. Inonu, Menderes' long-time political opponent, was elected premier when Gursel ended military rule and became president.

Menderes was hanged in September, 1961, and several hundred other leaders of his Democratic party were given prison sentences. But supporters of Menderes have made gains in recent elections.
