President Of France Enroute To Mexico

POINTE A PITRE, Guadeloupe (UPI)—French President Charles de Gaulle, surrounded by strong security, paused in the West Indies today en route to Mexico for the start of a drive to woo Latin America to his independent policies.

De Gaulle and his wife spent the night in a villa on this French island after a flight from Paris. They were continuing to Mexico City for a three-day state visit this morning, stopping briefly at Merida on the way.

Security precautions were unusually heavy because of two anonymous telephone threats in Paris against De Gaulle, who already has been the target of three unsuccessful assassination attempts. Citizens of Guadeloupe were kept at a distance from De Gaulle's plane and villa, and caught only a fleeting glance of the famous visitor in his limousine.

Spring Officially Arrives On Friday

By United Press International
Winter's final week in Indiana will feature temperatures averaging 4 to 8 degrees below normal, with maybe a little snow in the north portion.

Five-day forecasts issued today indicated that balmy readings of the past few days will give way to more seasonal conditions beginning Tuesday and generally extending into the weekend.

Spring officially arrives at 9:10 a.m. EST Friday.

The outlook was favorable with regard to precipitation. Only one-fourth of an inch was expected around the middle of the week, not enough to extend the floods now receding over most of the state.

Temperatures Saturday reached highs ranging from 56 at Fort Wayne to 71 at Evansville, and Sunday from 52 at Fort Wayne to 58 at Evansville. Overnight lows Saturday night were in the 20s and early today mostly in the 30s.

Highs today will range from 55 to 62, lows tonight from 25 to the 40s, and highs Tuesday from the mid 30s to around 50.

There was a chance of light showers or snow flurries over the state beginning Tuesday and occurring again late Wednesday.

Damages were estimated at $125 to Fuhrman's car and $30 to the Campbell vehicle.

Cars owned by Cyril Heimann, of 515 Nuttman Ave., and John Burkholder, 329 N. Ninth St., were damaged by hit and run vehicles over the weekend.
