SOUTHEAST SCHOOL PTA MEETS LAST EVENING

The PTA of the Southeast elementary school held their regular meeting Thursday evening. The meeting was opened by the president, Lauren Arnold, with the pledge to the flag. Devotions were given by Les Sautbaine, who then showed his slides on church camping. The secretary report was given by Mrs. Doyle Collier, followed by the treasurer's report by Mrs. Ed Hagan.

The rag drive will be held in April and bags will be sent home with the children Monday, April 13. Instructions will be sent home with them on what should be sent. The rags will be picked up April 17.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Kenneth Shannon; vice president, Clarence Stapleton; secretary, Mrs. Ray Seitz; treasurer, Mrs. Richard Evans.

The pre-school roundup will be held at the Southeast school Tuesday April 14 for children who will be 5 years old on or before September 30. It is for children who live south of Monroe street and in Stratton addition. The hours will be from 8 to 9 a. m.

A musical program was then presented by the 5th and 6th grade band play a few numbers and explained that they have been playing for about ten months and that he is well satisfied with their progress. Mr. Reed gave a recorder demonstration with the members of his 5th grade class. The recorder is a flute instrument which gives the children the basic knowledge of musical instruments. Miss Haubold presented singing in harmony with the 6th grade children. Her students are taught the different melodies of songs and are then shown how to put them together. Each group of children then showed how they could sing the different parts of the songs, each taking different parts.

An art exhibit was then held in the gymnasium with all the grades participating in the exhibit. Pictures were exhibited which they had all made, and other pictures were displayed in the classrooms. Miss Kauffman was in charge of the exhibit and presented the different stages of art that the grades do from the first to the sixth grades and was very interesting.

The kindergarten under the direction of Mrs. Robison will have the next PTA meeting, which will be held Thursday, May 7.

DECATUR BELLMONT CLUB MEETS TUESDAY

Mrs. Ronald Colclasure was hostess for the Decatur Bellmont Home Demonstration club, Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ronald Pierce. The club creed opened the meeting, followed by roll call which was answered with their pet housecleaning peev.

The local constitution was read by Mrs. Robert Gelmer, and voting was taken for the 1965 program. Mrs. Ronald Colclasure and Mrs. Thomas Howell presented the lesson on international understanding, emphasizing basic characteristics of culture on technology, religion or belief systems, customs or ceremonial forms, and social organization. Mrs. Thomas Harrell revealed many interesting customs on West Pakistan.

The meeting for April will be held in the Lutheran church auditorium on the 28th. Herman Krueckeberg will be the guest speaker and his topic will be Europe.
