

Miss Kathleen Kohne

Kathleen Kohne To Be Married In June

Dr. Gerald J. Kohne announces the engagement of his daughter, Kathleen, to David C. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Smith of Owensboro, Ky.

Miss Kohne is a graduate of Decatur Catholic high school and of Northwestern University, where she received her bachelor of arts degree in English. She is a member of the national Chi Omega sorority and of the state Tri Kappa sorority. Miss Kohne is presently teaching English in Berwyn, Ill.

Her fiancé received his bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Dayton, his master of science degree from Northwestern University, and will receive his Ph. D. in mechanical engineering and astronautical sciences from Northwestern this June.

The wedding will take place June 27 at St. Mary's Catholic church in Decatur.

CLOSING MEETING OF HISTORICAL CLUB

The Historical club held its closing meeting recently at the Zion United Church of Christ. A delicious dinner served by the ladies of the church at 12:30 o'clock was enjoyed by 21 members and 14 guests.

The tables were placed in the shape of a large cross with Easter decorations consisting of a large white bunny and eggs in a nest as a centerpiece. This was flanked on each side the length of the tables by small pink bunnies. Each guest's place was marked with a plant as a favor. Grace was given by Mrs. Wesley Lehman. Following the dinner, each member then introduced her guest or guests who accompanied her to the meeting. The president of the club conducted a short business meeting and a program followed the business meeting. S. E. Leonardson showed movies of his trip abroad recently, at which time he purchased antiques for his place of business.

Miss Iva Zurcher Is Wed March 15

Miss Iva I. Zurcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris F. Zurcher of route 1, Monroe, and Ralph W. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay F. Williams, were united in marriage March 15 at 1:30 p. m. in the Nazarene church, with the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. David Holstein, Berne.

Music before and during the ceremony was played by Jesse Crawford at the pipe organ and the musical selections included: "The Bridal Chorus," "Because," "Oh, Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride selected a lace gown for her wedding. The fitted basque waist was outlined by a scalloped neckline and long lace sleeves tapered to points over her wrists. The colonial skirt was of nylon tulle and lace tiers over nylon taffeta. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a red corsage, and her veil was finger tip.

Mrs. David Holstein was the maid of honor and wore a street length dress. Her corsage was red rose buds.

At 2:30 o'clock a reception was held in the church annex and servers were Gloria Davidson, Cheryl Davidson, Wanda Hirschy, and Beth Zurcher, nieces of the bride.

For their wedding trip to Pennsylvania and Washington, D. C., the bride wore a three piece black knit suit with black accessories. The bride is a clerk at Kroger store and the groom is an electrician at the Central Foundry in Bedford.

They are at home at 1902 15th street in Bedford.

CHARITY CIRCLE OF UNION CHAPEL MEETS

The Charity circle of Union Chapel church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Warren Nidlinger, with 13 members and 3 guests present, Mrs. Cleo Landis, Mrs. Dale Caffee and Mrs. Nile Williamson.

Leading the program for the evening was Miss Betty Walters, whose subject was "What is the Church?" The hymn, "The Church's One Foundation" was sung by the group. The leader used a flip chart showing our church and the people in it and what makes up our church. Discussions were held on the different types of communion and baptism as expressions of faith. For scripture, the 12th Chapter of Romans was read by Mrs. Ferris Fox. The offering was received followed by prayer by Miss Walters.

Mrs. Don Hirschy, circle chair, meeting, Miss Frieda Williamson man, presided at the business read the minutes of the previous meeting, and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Arnold Roughia. The various committees for the mother and daughter banquet, which will be held at the church May 7, gave their reports.

Miss Veda Williamson, secretary of spiritual life, brought before the group six steps to Christian worship namely, "prepare yourself, come expectantly, bring an offering, come to the source of power, look for the best, and go out to serve."

Special prayer was offered for the missionaries. It was decided to have a free will offering for layettes for the Oje mission in New Mexico. An announcement was made that the Charity circle would join with the united church women of Decatur for the May fellowship to be held May 1.

The next meeting will be held May 14 at the home of the Misses Veda and Frieda Williamson, with Mrs. Don Smith as leader.

Delicious refreshments were served to the group by the hostess, Mrs. Nidlinger.

KATHLEEN HARTMAN WEDS WM. SCHRECK

This morning at 10 o'clock, Miss Kathleen Hartman became the bride of William Schreck in St. Jude's Catholic church in Fort Wayne. Last evening his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Schreck, were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at the Fort Wayne Country club.

Guests from out of the city attending the dinner and wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burdall of Short Hills, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brodbeck, and son Kent, Akron, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klepper, Tiffin, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. William Klepper, Jr., Lima, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Klepper, Huntington, Mrs. Carl Klepper of Decatur, and Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Gillig, Decatur.

On the couple's wedding trip to the south they will take a piece of their wedding cake to his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Klepper, in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

A reception will be held this afternoon at the Olympic club in Fort Wayne.

MONROE W. S. C. S. MEETS THURSDAY

The Monroe Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday evening in the church fellowship room. The prelude was played by Mrs. Homer Winteregg and the group sang, "Our God, Our Help." Devotions were given by Mrs. Eli Schwartz, who read from Hebrews 10:22-25 and closed with a poem from "Together." A duet was sung by Mrs. James Nussbaum and Mrs. Herbert Fruchte. Mrs. Arlen Mitchell gave a report on the woman's federation.

The lesson theme, "The Church in the World," was presented by Mrs. Glen Stucky. She called on Mrs. Homer Winteregg and Mrs. Russell Mitchell to give their first impressions or remembrances of church. The group was reminded that this year is also the 24th anniversary of the WSCS. A candle lighting service was observed whereby the president held a large candle and those who were charter members lighted their candles from the large one and then those who have belonged 10 years and longer and then the remaining ones. Mrs. Elmo Stuckey, secretary of promotion, welcomed the nine new members. The song, "Jesus Calls Us," was sung by the group. Mrs. Harry Crownover, president, told about the call to the Women's Society. Mrs. Harvey Haggard read a paper, "We are called to pray." Mrs. Elmo Stuckey read, "We are called to serve," and Mrs. Glen Stucky read, "We are called to give."

Then the new president opened the business meeting with prayer. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and approved and the conscience dues were collected. The conference WSCS meeting will be April 15 at Kokomo. Mrs. Dove Snyder dismissed the meeting with prayer. Delicious refreshments were served by the Mesdames, Martin Steiner, Russell Mitchell, Chris Inniger, Rene Brandt, Homer Winteregg, Grace Burns, and Daisy Bahner.

The next meeting will be the mother-daughter banquet May 7.

The Order for Rainbow for Girls will attend Sunday church services in a body with their worthy advisor, Miss Janet Winteregg. All members are asked to meet outside the United Brethren church at 8:15 a.m.

Mrs. Ermal Gilbert will be hostess to the Happy Homemakers Home demonstration club Tuesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock.
