World Service Day
At E. U. B. Church

The Decatur Evangelical United Brethren church will observe world service day Sunday in morning and evening services. Guest speakers for the occasion will be Dr. John F. Schaefer and Dr. Mary McLanahan.

The purpose of world service day is to present the whole task of the church to the congregation and to give the members an opportunity to respond financially through sharing in the offering objectives. The local Women's Society of World Service is sponsoring the day. Mrs. Doyle Gehres, president of the society, states that the theme for the day will be "Go Forth . . . Renewed."

Dr. John F. Schaefer will speak at Bethany Sunday at 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. services. His subject will be "A New Bridge on the River Kwaai."

Dr. Schaefer is the executive secretary of the division of world mission of the Evangelical United Brethren church, with offices in Dayton, Ohio. The son of a minister of the Evangelical United Brethren church, Dr. Schaefer was educated at North Central College, received the B. A. degree from the Evangelical Theological Seminary, Naperville, Ill., and continued his graduate study at Union Theological Seminary, New York, where he was granted the S.T.M. degree. He studied at the University of Tuebingen, Germany, for one year on a fellowship following his residence in New York.

For 15 years he was the pastor of the First Evangelical United Brethren church, Elgin, Ill., one of the largest churches of the denomination in the midwest. He was invited to join the staff of the Evangelical Theological Seminary in 1955 and served as professor of practical theology until the spring of 1959. Since May, 1959, he has served with the division of world mission.

Dr. Schaefer spent one year in Europe as a student, and traveled widely through Europe, Northern Africa and Palestine. In 1949 he accompanied Bishop G. E. Epp to Europe for a ten week tour of the work in Switzerland, Germany and France. In 1959-60 he was privileged to accompany Dr. Carl Heinmiller on a world tour, visiting mission stations in Japan, Hong Kong, Philippines, Indonesia and Africa. In 1961, Dr. Schaefer visited the four Latin American mission fields.

Speaks On Missions
Dr. Mary McLanahan will speak at Trinity Sunday at 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services. Her subject will be "Missions—A Way Street."

Miss Mary McLanahan is editor of the World Evangel, which is the official periodical of the Women's Society of World Service of the Evangelical United Brethren church. She came to the women's office of the W. S. W. S. in 1930, serving first as field worker and later as secretary of missionary education.

Miss McLanahan, as a member of the staff of the division of women's service of the board of missions of the Evangelical United Brethren church, was authorized to make an official trip to Europe and Africa from September, 1960, to January, 1961. The purpose of the visit was to help strengthen the ties between the W. S. W. S. and the new Frauen-dienst of Switzerland and the young African branch in Sierra Leone, West Africa. Miss McLanahan attended the 60th anniversary of Harford school for girls, Moyamba, Sierra Leone.

As a member of the board for Christian work in Santo Domingo, she visited the work in Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic in 1953, 1962 and 1964.

The Sunday evening service will be held at Trinity at 7 p.m. It will feature the presentation of pictures of the mission work of various fields of the Evangelical United Brethren church. Dr. Schaefer and Dr. McLanahan will both be present to make the presentations.

The public is invited to attend these services and to share in a very meaningful day reports Revs. F. P. Miller and J. O. Pendred, pastors.

Kekionga

The Kekionga 4-H club of St. Mary's township met Monday evening at the Pleasant Mills school. Judy Butler was in charge of the meeting.

Debbie McCullough and Cynthia Carroll led the pledges. Group singing was led by Rita Bailey. It was decided that the club will have a mother's tea May 7 at 7:30 p.m. at the Pleasant Mills school. Roll call was answered by "your favorite program." Rita King read the minutes and they were apprised as read. Cheryl Cook and her sister gave a demonstration. Diana Stettler gave a health and safety report. After the meeting the group did the exercises which Miss Stettler described in the health and safety report.

The next meeting will be at the Pleasant Mills school, May 7, at 7:30 p.m.
