

DHS Musical Play Scheduled May 1-2

Jane Jacobs and Tom Engle have been chosen to portray the leads in Oldman and Hale's musical play, "The Dreamer," to be presented by the musical department of Decatur high school. Two performances will be given, May 1 and 2 at 8 p.m. at the high school auditorium.

Dina Rolla, as played by Jane Jacobs, is a teen-age girl with a very vivid imagination. As the play progresses through the numerous dream sequences, Dina unfolds as a girl who dares to be a nonconformist. However, she soon discovers that being an individual can be quite a task.

Paul, as portrayed by Tom Engle, along with many friends likes Dina, but he finds himself making light of Dina's individualism.

Both Jane and Tom are juniors at DHS and are kept very busy in both academic and extracurricular activities.

Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jacobs, 116 N. Tenth street, has been a member of the choir since her freshman year. She sings soprano in the girl's double trio.

"The Dreamer" is Jane's first attempt at acting so she is very excited about it. When asked how she liked the play, Jane re-
