COMEDY PRESENTED TO ADAMS CENTRAL PTA

The Adams Central PTA members spent an enjoyable evening recently when the dramatics department presented a three act comedy, "The Sky's the Limit," for the final PTA meeting. Entertainment between acts consisted of solos sung by Judy Beer and Ann Springer.

Robert Brown, PTA president, welcomed the members, and the invocation was given by the Rev. Joseph Gibson of Salem Methodist church.

Mrs. Fred Soldier gave the secretary and treasurer's reports, and revealed that money earned from the chili supper was being used to buy materials for the remedial reading program that is to be carried out at Adams Central in the coming years.

Philip Souder, school superintendent thanked the PTA for their interest and cooperation this past year, and he also announced that two kindergarten classes would be started next fall at Adams Central, and one class at Pleasant Mills.

Officers elected for 1964-65 were: Lewis Smith, president; Mrs. Fred Soldier, vice president; Mrs. Robert Yost, secretary; and Mrs. Willi Sommer, treasurer.
