Mrs. Robert Edwin Maddox

Maddox - Beer Wed In South Carolina

The Oakland Baptist church, Rock Hill, S. C., was the scene of the marriage of Miss Janice Mae Beer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Elroy Beer, route 1, Richburg, S. C. to Robert Edwin Maddox, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Arthur Maddox, Savannah, Ga., May 30. A background of gladioli, magnolia leaves and candelabra adorned the altar for the afternoon double ring ceremony officiated by the Rev. Coit R. Troutman, Jr.

Organist, Mrs. Robert Maret, and soloist, Martin L. Leslie, provided the wedding music including, "Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi," "A Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a full length candlelight gown of silk featuring a slightly scooped neckline and elbow length bell-shaped sleeves. The detachable cathedral train was a camelot design of chantilly lace bordered with peau de soie. A lace and pearl crown held the ballerina length veil. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom. She carried an arrangement of pink briarcliff roses and gypsophelia centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Samuel Wilson, classmate of the bride from Gadsden, Ala., was matron of honor. She wore a tea length sheath of dresden pink brocade with matching jacket and a round veil attached to a matching bow. She carried an arrangement of pink briarcliff roses with stephanotis. The bridesmaid, Miss Beverly Maddox, sister of the groom, wore a tea length dress of pink chiffon and a round veil attached to a crown. She also carried an arrangement of pink

MISS BETTY WALTERS

HOSTESS FOR WSWs

The WSWs Charity circle of the Union Chapel EUB church met Thursday evening at the home of Miss Betty Walters. The leader for the evening was Mrs. Tom Gaunt using the topic, "Let's Face the Challenge of Change." Ruth Walters presented the group with a piano prelude followed by the reading of the scripture lesson taken from the 19th Psalm. The hymn "Sing Them Over Again to Me" was sung by the group, after which Mrs. Gaunt led in prayer. The lesson was in the form of a skit with different ladies taking part. A discussion on the lesson was held following the skit in which everyone participated. A litany was used in closing the lesson period.

Mrs. Don Hirsch, circle chairman, was in charge of the business meeting.

Refreshments were served to the 10 members and three visitors present.

C. L. OF C. HOLDS

POTLUCK SUPPER

A delicious potluck supper was held by the C. L. of C. Tuesday evening. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Simeon Schmitt was guest of the evening. Also the door prize was awarded to Msgr. Schmitt.

A business meeting followed the dinner and was conducted by the president, Mrs. Andrew Miller.

Games were played following the meeting and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Margaret Braun, Miss Edith Ervin, and Mrs. Clara Rumschlag. Co-chairmen for the evening were Miss Josephine Wolpert and Mrs. Herman Miller.

briarcliff roses with stephanotis. For her eldest daughter's wedding, the bride's mother wore a French blue embroidered pure silk organza sheath with chiffon side cascade, white accessories and a white orchid. Mrs. Maddox chose a yellow floral cream puff sheath which she designed. It featured a panel from the left shoulder, and she wore yellow accessories and cymbidium orchids.

John Arthur Maddox, father of the groom, stood as best man while George E. Keller and Thomas J. Durrett, III, both from Atlanta, Ga., and Troy W. Petty of Spartanburg, S. C., were ushers.

Previously a rehearsal supper was given by the groom's parents in Rock Hill, S. C. The rehearsal party was given by aunts and uncles of the bride, including Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Stepler, former residents of Decatur, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bieherich of Decatur.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall for 80 guests. Serving at the reception were Miss Barbara Buck, Mrs. Billy Beard, Miss Barbara Clark, Miss Jane Thomas, Mrs. Alex Bolton and Mrs. Johnnie Owens.

For the wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina and Tennessee, the bride wore a mint green whipped cream sleeveless afternoon dress with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The new Mrs. Maddox received her BS degree from Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C., is a graduate of dietetic internship from Baylor Medical center, Dallas, Tex., and is a dietitian in Atlanta, Ga.

Maddox is a graduate of Furman University, Greenville, S. C., a graduate of Southeastern Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, N. C., and presently in a pastor care internship at Georgia Baptist hospital, Atlanta, Ga.

Following the honeymoon the couple will reside at 1150 St. Charles Place, N. E., Atlanta, Ga.

The new Mrs. Maddox is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Beer, Decatur, and the late Ernest Worthman and Mrs. Hattie Worthman, who now makes her home in Richburg, S. C.

If you own an Omega, or are planning to buy one, you can be proud of this fact:

Ω
OMEGA

won first place in accuracy contests at both Geneva
and Neuchatel Observatories

In 44 day tests, competing against hundreds of the world's finest Swiss watches, Omega set an all-time record for wristwatch accuracy. Such performance by Omega is not unusual. And for good reason. From blueprint to first assembly every Omega undergoes 1497 quality checks. Components are machined to micro-millimeter tolerances. Even the oil used to lubricate an Omega is the world's costliest, $2000 a gallon... assuring longer life because of reduced friction. See our wide selection of Omega watches today, from $65 to over $1000.
