Hartke's Daughter Slightly Improved

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Aides to Democratic Senator Vance Hartke reported Tuesday the senator's daughter, Mrs. Larry Schott, 20, has shown slight improvement at George Washington University Hospital.

Earl Tuesday, Mrs. Schott had been listed in poor condition. On Monday, the baby was taken to Hartke's Falls Church home, where her husband, a law student at George Washington University, is staying.

Insects On Windshield
Those spattering of insects on the windshield and other parts of your car can be removed easily if you'll mix two tablespoons of baking soda with one quart of water, applying this with a cloth or sponge. Then wipe clean.

Two Thefts Investigated

A pair of thefts in Berne and Geneva have been reported to the Adams county sheriff's department. During today's early hours, someone stole two candy vending machines from the Round-Up Laundromat in Berne. The machines were taken from inside the building, and contained a large amount of money. The Geneva theft was a money taken from a soft drink vending machine at the Buchanan Gulf station. The machine, outside the building, was heavily damaged by thieves who broke into it and stole the coin box. Only a small amount of money was in the machine.

The sheriff's department, Berne city police and Geneva town marshal Preston Pyle are continuing investigations of the thefts.

Prayer Meeting To Be Held Tonight

FUTURE FASHION—This experimental fabric, from which blankets are being made, might also be used for future wearing apparel. The costume, designed for the year 2000, is a halter-top jumpsuit worn under a long-line jacket. The fabric is called Fiberwoven and is made by the Chatham Manufacturing Co.

New Record

Judgement Withheld On Traffic Charge

City court Judge John B. Stults with held judgment this morning on two charges against Richard A. Huffine, 22-year-old resident of 521 S. 13th street. Huffine pleaded guilty to both charges, reckless driving and disorderly conduct, and Judge Stults took the case under advisement to rule within 30 days, he explained. After the matter was taken under advisement, Huffine was released from custody. The incident occurred Tuesday evening when Huffine was stopped by city police officer William Baumann. Baumann charged him with reckless driving, and after Huffine's ticket was written, he allegedly became belligerent with the officer. He was then charged with disorderly conduct, and placed in custody in the county jail until his court appearance today. Huffine also has a case pending in Justice of the Peace court, where he was cited after charged with reckless driving last Thursday evening.
