WED IN CALVARY EUB CHURCH

Miss Sarah Younis of Green Center and John Richard Meshberger of Linn Grove were united in a double ring ceremony in the Linn Grove Calvary EUB church, with Rev. John Paul McAhren officiating. Palms and seven branch candelabra decorated the church. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Charles E. Younis and the late Mr. Younis of Green Center, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Meshberger of Linn Grove.

A musicale was presented by Mrs. Raymond Cox at the organ. Raymond Cox sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and the "Lord's Prayer" while the couple knelt at the altar.

The bride was attired in a street length beige brocade sheath dress with matching jacket. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a scalloped crown decorated with seed pearls. She carried a heart shaped bouquet of white mums and a lavender orchid. She wore pearl earrings, a gift of the groom. Her accessories were of white lightning.

The maid of honor was Miss Barbara Younis, sister of the bride. She chose a sheath dress of pink brocade, with pink and white accessories. She carried a hand bouquet of pink and white carnations.

James Meshberger attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Daley Bixler of Green Center, and John Thomas of Lexington, Ky.

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore a beige with pink embroidery satin dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue dress. They both wore white carnation corsages. The grandmothers, Mrs. Ella Daley of Tocsin, and Mrs. Rufus Meshberger of Linn Grove, each wore carnation corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church with 100 guests registering. The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth, skirted in pink taffeta and net centered with a four-tiered cake. Mrs. Lawrence Rash, aunt of the groom, served as hostess. Other servers included Miss Renee Habegger of Houston, Tex., and the Misses Nancy and Brenda Meshberger, Mary Ann and Jane Duff, Diana Younis and Mrs. Daley Bixler.

The bride is employed at General Telephone and the groom is a junior at Purdue. The couple plan to honeymoon at Niagara Falls. They will make their home at 1664 Hobson Road, Fort Wayne, after September 8.

Wed In Double Ring Rites

Miss Nila Lou Vining became the bride of Carl Lee Swander in a ceremony at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, August 23, in the Union Evangelical United Brethren church at Willshire, O. The Rev. Richard M. Ward performed the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Vining of Willshire, O., and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Swander of Rockford, O.

For the candle light service, beauty vases of white mums and gladioli and seven branched candelabras centered with white bows and ivy decorated the church. The aisle was carpeted in white and white satin bows marked the pews.

Musical selections were presented by Mrs. Rosella Vining, aunt of the bride, as organist. Rev. Lynn Mofford, vocalist, sang "Because," "I Believe," and "The Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of pure silk organza over crystal white taffeta and imported alencon lace. The molded basque bodice was fashioned with alencon lace appliques, sequins and seed pearls. Three quarter length sleeves of organza covered her arm below the elbow and sequins, seed pearls and alencon lace appliques traced a vertical flat front panel. The very full organza skirt was enhanced in the front by iridescent sequins, alencon lace and seed pearls on the sides. A tailored organza bow centered at the waist in the back detailed the skirt which fell into a chapel length train. Her veil was caught to a princess crystal crown and she carried a cascade arrangement of white mums, pink sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy. She wore a double strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Ronnie Bruce, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of aqua peau de soie with short sleeves and fashioned with bows in the back. Her headpiece was a tiny tiara of crystal and seed pearls in butterfly wings with a bouffant veil. She carried a white lace fan with pink carnations. Mrs. George Nolte, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Miss Colleen Schadt, niece of the bridegroom, as junior bridesmaid. The gowns and flowers of the bridesmaids were identical to those of the matron of honor. Miss Vicki Charleston and Miss Tonya Tumbleson were flower girls in aqua floor length dresses accented with bows in the back. They carried white baskets with mixed flowers and rose petals.

Paul Swander, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and the ushers were Tom Winters and Garl Wetters, friends of the groom. Darrel Swander, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride chose an imported beige matelasse street length sheath frock with an oval neckline and short sleeves with matching satin banding accenting the waistline. She wore cerise accessories and a corsage of cerise roses. The groom's mother wore a light blue handmade ribbon knit two piece ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

A reception was held in the church social room following the ceremony. For travel on a wedding trip to Colorado, the bride chose a lime green color sheath with beige accessories and the pink sweetheart rose corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride, a Willshire high school graduate, has been employed at Central Mutual Insurance company, Van Wert, O. The bridegroom is a graduate of Rockford high school and is a student at Huntington College.

The couple will be at home after September 9 at 815 Campus street, Huntington.

The joint circles of the Church of God will hold a prayer retreat at the home of Mrs. Paul Strickler at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. The speaker will be Mrs. Kitchen from the Hope Hill children's home.

Furniture Store At Willshire Reopened

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Myers, of route 4, Decatur, opened business today in their new furniture store in Willshire, O.

Myers purchased the former Stucky Furniture store in Willshire on August 13. The store was owned and operated for many years by the late Martin Stucky. The store interior has been completely redecorated by the new owner, and a complete line of furniture and floor coverings will be in stock.

Myers said Monday afternoon that he will continue in the business of installing carpet and hard surface floor coverings, which he has done for the past 17 years.

The new furniture store owner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Myers and a native of Decatur. He attended Willshire elementary schools before finishing his schooling here.

Mrs. Myers is employed in the Adams county clerk's office. The Myers and their two children, Kermit, 17, and Karen, 15, will continue to reside on Decatur, route 4.
