HOBBY AND ANTIQUE SHOW TO BE HELD

The 39'ers met at the Decatur Youth and Community center for their regular carry-in dinner and party Tuesday evening. Thirty-one members and one guest were present.

The hobby and antique show sponsored by the 39'ers will be held at the center Sunday, September 13, from 2 to 4:30 p.m. Anyone having antiques or a hobby they would like to display are asked to bring it to the center Saturday evening at 7:30 or Sunday before 12 noon. There is no charge for display or for admission to the show. Light refreshments will be served to all. Some displays will be for sale by the owner. The public is invited to see the work of local artists. Those wishing further information concerning the how may contact Mrs. Bert Haley, chairman of the project.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Sauer furnished prizes for the games that were played at the meeting. Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Baker were reported improving and Mrs. Ruth Teeple was reported ill.

McKEAN-WEBER VOWS READ RECENTLY

Miss Evelyn Marie McKean, formerly of route 4, and Gerald Wayne Weber were united in marriage recently at the First Christian Union church, Fort Wayne, with the Rev. Howard Dunlap officiating the double ring ceremony. Miss McKean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin McKean of Oak Grove trailer court, Box 42, 2651 Ridge Road, Highland, and Weber is the eldest son of Wayne Weber, route 5, Box 128, Wauseon, O. Two bouquets of pompons and gladioli decorated the church where the 7 p.m. ceremony took place, August 2.

Organist, Ira Gerig, professor of music at Fort Wayne Bible College, and vocalist Jackie Weber, sister of the groom, presented selections including the "Lord's Prayer," "Love Divine All Loves Excelling," "Seal Us Oh Holy Spirit" and "A Mighty Fortress."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of nylon with a lace top and long sleeves. The bodice featured tiny pearls and sequins on the front. The skirt was accented with side and back pleats. She carried a bouquet of white roses and wore a white finger tipped veil with a crown of pearls and aurora stones.

Her maid of honor, Miss Kathleen Tehan, wore a frosty blue nylon organza dress with a pleated skirt and fitted bodice. The sleeves and neckline were fitted. Frosty blue organza and veiling was worn as her headpiece and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Joan Sue Weber, sister of the bride, wore a blue and white organza dress with a pleated skirt and fitted bodice. The sleeves and neckline were fitted. WOMEN'S GUILD HOLDS SEPTEMBER MEETING

The Women's Guild of the Salem United Church of Christ met Tuesday evening for their September meeting. Mrs. Gerhard Witte opened the meeting with a piano prelude entitled "For God So Loved the World," followed by the group singing "Praise Him! Praise Him!" Responsive reading was taken from the book of John led by Mrs. Robert Hildebrand. Prayer was given by Mrs. Harry Beavers. The special number was a duet presented by Lois Beavers on her clarinet and Beverly Kruezman on her saxophone, accompanied by Mrs. Arno Girod. The topic for the evening was introduced by Mrs. Harry Beavers, entitled, "Establishing our identity."

With the group using their Bibles, a quiz was led by Mrs. Dale Fruechte, who divided the group into five parts to see who could answer the most questions from the Bible. Mrs. Walter Egley introduced some of the topics for the coming year and installation of officers was led by the Rev. Settlage. Prayer was then given by the newly elected president, Mrs. Robert Hildebrand, who then presided over the business meeting. The meeting closed with a poem entitled "Best Seller."

Youth Interviewed On Radio Program

A half-hour radio program, over station WOWO's program "PM" from 8:30 until 9 p.m. Wednesday, included an interview of a Berne youth who had been sentenced by the Adams county juvenile court earlier for sniffing glue and gas, and who has reformed.

The youth reported that he has been attending religious meetings and programs after his contact with them in Fort Wayne, and that they have helped him "kick" the sniffing habit.

He had been brought to the attention of the local court some time ago, and had been hospitalized. Sniffing actually damages the brain, and destroys tissues that cannot be replaced, and in many respects is more dangerous than other more common addictions.

Two Men Arrested By Decatur Police

A Decatur man and a Tennessee resident were arrested by the city police during the past 24 hours. Donald D. Linder, 20, of this city, was charged with disorderly conduct at 9:45 p.m. Wednesday, at the intersection of Fourth and Jefferson street. Linder appeared in city court this morning and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge, and Judge John B. Stults set Monday, Sept. 14, as the date for trial. Bond has been set at $200.

Samuel Newton McBrown, 43-year-old resident of Cookeville, Tenn., was jailed by city police officers at 9 o'clock this morning. Newton was charged with public intoxication and is in custody and at the county jail awaiting city court trial.

Grass Fires Result In Call To Firemen

Decatur firemen extinguished two grass fires within less than two hours Wednesday afternoon, with no damage other than the grass resulting.

The department was summoned at 1:22 p.m. to the south side of Belmont Park, along the Piqua Road, when grass on the property of Donald Roeder was burning. Firemen were at the scene for nearly an hour in preventing the blaze from spreading.

At 2:55 p.m. the firemen were called again, this time to a grass fire along U. S. 224, about two miles east of the city. This fire was under control in 15 to 20 minutes.
