Van Wert Stockyards
Ceases Operations

The P. B. Stewart & Co. stockyards at Van Wert, O., ended 21 years of operations today, when the market was closed because of "dwindling receipts." Charles W. Miltenberger, manager, is retiring after 27 years in the business.

Dan Stewart, of Fort Wayne, announced the closing. The firm also operates stockyards at Decatur and Fort Wayne in Indiana counties in Ohio. Miltenberger, and in Putnam and Defiance on retiring, said, "farmers have just quit raising hogs in Van Wert county."

Picture Legislators At Health Meeting

All of Adams county's representatives in and candidates for the state legislature were pictured in a health meeting at the Fort Wayne state hospital in August.

The bulletin was the second in a series to outline some of the non-financial goals of the Indiana association for mental health in the coming 1965 general assembly.

Three Minor Wrecks Here Over Holiday

Decatur and Adams county did not contribute to any Labor Day holiday weekend traffic statistics, with two minor property damage accidents occurring in the city and one accident happening in the county.

The two city accidents resulted in only minor damage. The first occurred at 4:20 p.m. Saturday, at 633 Schirmeyer St., when an auto owned by Margarito Canales, of 633 Schirmeyer, received $40 damage.

Laura Kahn, of Craigville, had parked her automobile across the street from the Canales' car, with the motor running. One of the children in her auto put it into reverse gear, and the vehicle backed across the street into the Canales' car. None of the children in the car was injured, and damage to the Kahn auto was estimated at $5.

At 4:20 a.m. Sunday, an auto operated by Jerry Lynn Davis, 20, of 722 N. 11th St., struck the rear of a vehicle driven by Forest L. Strickler, 20-year-old resident of 818 Winchester St.

Both were eastbound on Nuttman Ave., and Strickler was making a right turn onto Oakridge Place when struck in the rear by the Davis car. Damages were estimated at $125 to Davis' car and $2 to Strickler's machine.

Robert Tumbleson, of route 3, Decatur, suffered minor injuries in a one-vehicle mishap around noon Sunday.

Tumbleson was operating a milk truck on state road 101, about one-half mile south of U.S. 224, when the truck overturned, spilling some of the milk onto the roadway.

Tumbleson was taken to the local hospital for treatment of the minor injuries, and later released. Sheriff Roger Singleton and state trooper Dan Kwasneski investigated.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garard have returned from a three weeks vacation which they enjoyed very much.

Evan Wayne Yoder Claims Bride

The Rev. Veryl Roth officiated the double ring ceremony that united in marriage Miss Janet Sue Brown and Evan Wayne Yoder at the Evangelical Mennonite church in Berne at 7 p.m. September 5. Miss Brown is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brown, and Yoder is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Denver Yoder. Palms and candelabra decorated with greenery on either side of an arrangement of yellow gladioli, bronze mums, wheat and bitter-sweet decorated the altar.

Organist for the occasion was Miss Madeline Hedington and vocalist was Mrs. Joseph Brown, sister-in-law of the bride. Vocal selections included "Sweetest Story Ever Told," "Walk Hand in Hand" and "Wedding Prayer."

The father of the bride escorted her down the aisle in a gown of white pure silk organza over taffeta and imported alencon lace. The molded organza bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline outlined with alencon motifs shaped like tiny flowers with clusters of pearls in the centers. Three quarter length sleeves of organza covered her arms as a tiny alencon lace flower with pearls accented the sleeve. The slim shaped organza skirt was floor length.

Appliques of alencon lace with pearl trim highlighted the skirt. A tailored organza bow was centered at the waist in the back. A cluster of alencon lace appliques with pearls accented the train as it swept to a chapel length. Her full bouffant veil of imported silk illusion was secured to an open pearl pillow of alencon lace with yellow roses, stephanotis and ivy. Miss Betty Jean Jones, maid of honor, wore a nector orange floor length gown of nylon organza over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a scoop neckline, a fitted midriff and elbow length sleeves. The slim bell shaped skirt had two streamers of organza falling from the waist. She wore a matching organza pillow of nector orange with a circular veil. She carried a lighted candle within a hurricane lamp centered with bronze mums, bittersweet and streamers of brown velvet ribbons. The three bridesmaids, the Misses Judy Brown, sister of the bride, and Joyce and Joan Yoder, sisters of the groom, were dressed identical to the maid of honor and carried identical flowers.

The best man was Dick Parr and ushers were Steve Yoder, Bryce Winteregg, Dewayne Sprunger, Deryll Brown and Tony Heeter.

The bride's mother wore a brown and beige three piece knit suit with brown and beige accessories to her daughter's wedding and the groom's mother chose a two piece blue wool suit with bone accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of bronze mums.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement. Those serving at the reception were Mrs. Gary Rice, Mrs. Leonard Augsburger, Miss Cheryl Bauman and Miss Joanna Wheeler. Mrs. Deryll Hendricks registered the guests.

For a wedding trip to northern Michigan and Wisconsin, the new Mrs. Yoder wore a two piece yellow and white knit suit with brown and white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses from her bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Geneva high school and is a receptionist at Berne Furniture. The groom graduated from Adams Central high school and Purdue University. He is an electronic engineer for Delco Radio at Kokomo.
