Adams county W. C. T. U. was held Friday at the First Mennonite church in Berne. The county president, Mrs. D. C. Shady, presided over the meeting and gave the welcome address. Mrs. Ferd Mertz led the singing, with Miss Kathy Lehman at the piano. There were special numbers in music and song by the Berne girls, the Misses Susie Liechty, Donna Jean Bluhm, and Anita Schwartz. Devotions were given by the Rev. Gordon J. Neuenschwander, taken from Isaiah, 62.

Reports from all county officers were given. The secretary, Mrs. Frank Bohnke, gave the minutes of the previous meeting. Mrs. John Gage, treasurer, gave the treasurer's report. The following reports were also given: Armed services, Mrs. Robert Gage; child welfare, Mrs. Jack McBride; flower mission and relief, Mrs. Clovis Oberli; institutes, Mrs. Jesse Niblick; literature and publications, Mrs. Lloyd Stoneburner; visual education, Mrs. Lawrence Michel; loyal temperance legion, Mrs. James Nussbaum; publicity, Mrs. John Gage; and speech contest, Mrs. Shady.

An election of officers was held and the following were elected: president, Mrs. D. C. Shady; vice president, Mrs. Loretta Blackwood; secretary, Mrs. Frank Bohnke; and treasurer, Mrs. John Gage. Other officers will be appointed by the president.

The noon prayer was given by Mrs. Leona Long and then each ate the sack lunches, pie and coffee.

The afternoon session began at 1 p.m. with an opening hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers." Devotions were given by Mrs. Armin C. Steiner of the West Missionary church of Berne, using the 12th chapter of Acts.

Two special numbers were presented by the Berne ladies, Mrs. Fred Sauffer, Mrs. Glen Grandliard, Mrs. Earl Lehman, Mrs. Roger Sprunger, Mrs. Chester Beiler, and Mrs. Charles Wullman. Mrs. Howard Baumgartner accompanied them on the piano. Guest speaker was the Rev. Jack Fitzgerald, a Methodist minister from Fort Wayne and a state parole officer for five years. He reminded all the members that the W.C.T.U. was founded 90 years ago.

Memorial services were conducted by Mrs. Shady for the departed members during the previous year. The meeting was closed by joining hands and singing "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," and a prayer by the Rev. Fitzgerald.

Eileen Marian Clark Becomes Bride

Bows and ferns marked the pews along the carpeted aisle and two beauty vases of yellow gladioli and pompons decorated the altar of the First Missionary church in Fort Wayne where the Rev. Cornelius Vlot, assisted by Dr. Ray Hein, joined in marriage Miss Eileen Marian Clark and Duane Ray Steiner. The double ring ceremony was held September 5 at 2:30 p.m. Miss Clark is the eldest daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. D. B. Clark, Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, and Steiner is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Steiner, Phoenix, Ariz.

Organist was Ira Gerig, soloist was Miss Kathie Line. Selections included "O Happy Home," "My Jesus As Thou Wilt," "Abide, O Dearest Jesus," Purcell: "Trumpet Voluntary," "Holy Spirit, Hear Them" and "A Mighty Fortress."

The Rev. David Clark, father of the bride, escorted her down the aisle in a gown of silk organza over angel taffeta with along line bodice of chantilly lace appliqued. It was fashioned with a sabrina neckline studded with pearls. The skirt flowed into a long chapel train of matching appliqued lace. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a pearlized orange blossom wreath. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Her maid of honor, Miss Grace Clark of Kingston, Jamaica, W. I., wore a light blue iridescent di lune peau fashioned into a floor length dress with a bell skirt.

round neckline and elbow length sleeves. It featured a cummerbund of a dark shade of blue. She wore a light blue veil attached to a bandeau of leaves fashioned from the dress. She carried a cascade of white mums and yellow pompons. Miss Barbara Clark, Kingston, Jamaica, W. I., Mrs. Sharon Hastings, Philadelphia, Pa., and Miss Aileen Wade, Kauai, Hawaii, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses of the same style as the maid of honor's and they were darker blue with lighter blue accents. Their veils were identical to the honor attendant and they carried cascades of yellow mums with ivory backgrounds.

Gary Sonnenberg, of Warren, Mich., was best man, and ushers were Roy Meyer, Lima, O., Edward Hastings, Jr., Philadelphia, Pa., and David Dyck, Berne.

The bride's mother wore a sapphire blue acetate sheath with matching hat and purse. The groom's mother wore a turquoise sheath with a lace-trimmed bodice and matching accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony. Those serving were Miss Coleen Steiner, Miss Joan Weber, Miss Kathy Prochaska, Mrs. Herald Welly and Mrs. David N. Clark. The caterer was Miss Anna Sprunger.

The new Mrs. Steiner wore a gold tweed suit with a slim skirt, sleeveless vest and a blouse with French cuffs, with black accessories on her wedding trip of unannounced destination.

Miss Clark is a 1964 graduate of Fort Wayne Bible College with a bachelor of science in Christian education and missions. The groom is also a 1964 graduate of the Fort Wayne Bible College, with a Bachelor of arts in pastoral training.

The couple will live in Mooresville after September 14. The groom will be served as assistant pastor at the Grace Missionary church and is attending Indiana University.
