Package Delivered After 22 Cards Sent

"Ever wonder what happens if you forget to put the entire address on a package?"
Well, a package addressed to J. E. Buscoe, Jr., Wall Circle, Monroe, . . . with no legible state, arrived recently at Monroe, Ind. The postmaster there turned it over to the Decatur post office.
Bill Brown, of the Decatur post office, sent post cards to all 22 Monroe post offices in the United States. It was finally determined Tuesday that the correct address was Monroe, Ga., and the package, apparently sent by friends while overseas, was forwarded to the right address . . . with the ZIP number, 30655, on it, too!
