MICHAEL KLINE WEDS IN NEW HAVEN

Michael Kline of Fort Wayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kline, Sarasota, Fla., claimed Miss Cheryl Sue Longardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Longardner of Churubusco, as his bride at the New Haven Methodist church Saturday evening.

A floor-length gown of white satin was chosen by the bride. Appliques of alencon lace enhanced the sabbina neckline and were repeated on the long sleeves. The skirt fell over a loop bustle and extended to a chapel-length train. Her illusion veil was caught to a forward headpiece of lace with pearls and crystals and she carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis with garlands of ivy, centered with a white orchid.

Barry Gilland served as best man and ushers were Joe and Gerald Longardner, brothers of the bride, John Woenker of Columbia City, and Thomas Royer of Fort Wayne.

The couple will honeymoon in Washington, D. C., and New York City following the reception in Cutter's Chalet, Fort Wayne.

The Kline family formerly lived in Decatur, where the groom's father operated a grocery store on North Second street, and later was employed in the advertising department of the Daily Democrat.

RACHEL CIRCLE HOLDS MEETING

Mrs. Stan Kling was the program leader of the Rachel circle of the Decatur EUB church, Thursday evening when the group met at the home of Mrs. Mel Tinkham. The topic of the lesson was "Witnessing — Now Do."

Mrs. Kling also read an article from the World Evangel, "What is in Your Hand," and the scripture taken from Romans 12. Chairman of the circle, Mrs. Norman Koons, conducted the business meeting, and the articles were collected for this quarter's project. The Lord's Prayer was repeated at the conclusion of the business meeting. A social hour followed and Mrs. Tinkham served refreshments to the nine members present.

The next meeting will be October 8, with Mrs. Glen Mauller, hostess. Mrs. Norman Koons will be program leader.

PYTHIAN SISTERS TEMPLE MEETS

The Pythian Sisters Temple met at the Moose home with Mrs. Francis Howard presiding. The Needle club followed the Temple meeting. Mrs. Byron Smith presided over the meeting. Twenty-two members answered the roll call. A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Lloyd Ahr and Mrs. Howard Meyers at tables decorated with fall flowers. Mrs. Fred Ashbaucher received the club gift and Mrs. Helen Walters received the cover gift. The next meeting will be September 28. Hostesses will be Mrs. Martin Weiland and Mrs. Raymond Walters.

Births

At the Adams county memorial hospital:

Carl and Sharlene Murphy Bauman, 504 Patterson street, are the parents of a 7 lb., 3 oz., baby boy born at 6:58 p.m., Sunday, and not a girl, as erroneously reported Monday.

Ronald and Jane Moran Aspy, 346 Mercer avenue, are the parents of an 8 lb., 2 oz., baby girl born at 3:21 a.m., today.

Vernon C. and Mary Krauff Werling, route 2, New Haven, are the parents of a 7 lb., 14 oz., baby boy born at 4:07 p.m., Saturday.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Sarasota, Fla., visited with Mrs. H. A. Maddox and family over the weekend.

Mrs. Sam Merwin, Jr., of Beverly Hills, Calif., is visiting in Decatur with her mother, Mrs. O. L. Vance, and her aunt, Mrs. Bertha Heuer.

Lawrence E. Anspaugh, local photographer, leaves Decatur this evening for Harrisburg, Pa., where he will speak Wednesday afternoon to the Penn Central section of the professional photographers of Pennsylvania at their fall meeting. Anspaugh will return around noon Thursday.

ASSOCIATED CHURCHES HOLDS MEETING

Earl Chase briefly addressed an assembly of the Associated Churches of Decatur, Sunday afternoon. He promoted two things: first, the annual Sunday school convention which will be held in Adams county November 7 and 8. The banquet will be held at the Youth and Community Center Saturday night and the following two Sunday meetings will be at the Monroe Methodist and Berne Menonite churches. Secondly, he promoted the Ford Philpot crusade. For this, he represented the men's prayer fellowship, which is the sponsoring organization for the one appearance of Ford Philpot and his team here in Decatur. This meeting will be held September 22 at the Center and Chase presented the opportunity to invite friends.

Among the items of business which received attention at this meeting were the prayer telephone and tentative plans for the proposed family service work shop. There was also an election held for a nominating committee, who will prepare a ballot to be voted on at the next meeting, November 15. This committee is composed of David Wynn, chairman, Clyde Harden and Mrs. Alton Corson.

Two ministers, new in the city, who assumed pastorates since the last associated meeting, were introduced to the group. They were the Rev. Richard Van Hoesen of the Christian church and the Rev. Robert Chidister of the Baptist church.

The Rev. Kenneth Angle was selected to fill the office of first vice president, left vacant by the Rev. Robert McQuaid, who has left the city. Don Sliger, president of the men's prayer fellowship, was in attendance and he gave an informative report on the activities of this group.

REUNION HELD SEPTEMBER 12

A pleasant evening was enjoyed by the neighbors and friends who reside in the Eiting Acres and on Forrest Drive at the ninth reunion held at the Hanna-Nuttman park Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sliger and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kneuss were co-chairmen for the event. Prayer was offered by Donald Sliger before the carry-in dinner was served. After the business meeting, games were played by the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo McBride and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eiting were chosen as co-chairmen for the 1965 reunion, which will be held Saturday, September 11, 1965. Families who have joined the neighborhood in the last year are Andrew Miller, Dale Bricker, Robert Bulte-meier and Robert Scheidler.

Families who are building are those of Paul Sowards, Ron Gerber and Joseph Tricker. Families who were represented at the reunion were those of Mrs. Ben Eiting, Homer Arnold, Wilmer Bulte-meier, Lyle Grimm, Warren Kneuss, Daniel Kwasneski, John E. Meyer, Robert Nyffeler, and Donald Sliger.

Grass Fire Results In Call To Firemen

Local firemen spent more than half an hour Monday afternoon in extinguishing a grass fire northwest of Decatur.

Grass at the Edgar Gerber residence, on the Winchester road, caught fire from a nearby burning pile of trash. Firemen were summoned at 2:55 p.m., and fought the blaze until 3:30 p.m. There was nothing damaged other than the grass.
