No Verdict To Date On Lehman Death

Coroner Elmer Winteregg, Jr., said at noon today that no verdict as to the cause of death of David D. Lehman has been reached as yet. Lehman, father of Berne mayor Richard L. Lehman, was found dead in the Hawthorn-Melody plant in Berne Wednesday morning, on the floor beside an 18-20 foot ladder. He had been on top of the ladder performing some electrical work.

Winteregg said at noon today that he has not yet made a ruling as to the cause of death. The ruling is being withheld pending a report from Indiana & Michigan. Modern Etiquette By Roberta Lee

Q. How does one properly introduce his stepfather?

A. Introduce him as "my stepfather," and of course be sure to mention his name (which is different from yours), as, "Mr. Jackson."

Q. I know the bride's family controls all wedding decisions. But are they supposed to share these decisions with the groom's family?

A. It's a thoughtful thing to do. No one says they MUST do this—it's just a considerate gesture guaranteed to make both families feel pleasantly related.
