

SOCIETY

MRS. ROSIER IS NEW PRESIDENT

The executive board of the United Council of Church Women and the representatives of the member churches met at the First Baptist church Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. John Rosier, the new president, presided over the meeting and Mrs. Elbert Smith gave the devotions. Plans for world community day, which will be held the first week in November were discussed. Mrs. Elbert Smith is general chairman for the meeting, which will be held in the First Presbyterian church. The churches planning for the program are Presbyterian, Union Chapel, Evangelical United Brethren and Decatur Evangelical United Brethren. The topic under consideration for this meeting is "Peace? Man and Nations in a changing world community." This year's project is school supplies for children in Brazil and Africa, where the world council of churches is sponsoring a literacy campaign.

Mrs. Paul Strickler is again heading the "Trick or treat" for the UNICEF this year. Plans for this will be announced in the near future.

The date for district 7 orientation for new leaders and neighborhood service team personnel is September 30 at 9:30 a.m. until 2 p.m., at the Berne public library. All who attend are asked to bring sack lunches. Coffee will be provided. Current leaders with no previous training are also welcome to come. Registration cards for the course can be picked up from the files in the Girl Scout room at the Youth and Community Center. Call Hilda Eichenauer — 3-4705 — if transportation is needed.

VFW AUXILIARY HOLDS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

A meeting was held recently at the VFW post home. Christmas is still a few months away but a lot of plans are being made early for a nice party this year. Also, one main topic of the evening was "Indiana Day at Eaton Rapids." It will be on September 20 for all who can attend.

The 1965 "membership drive" is on and all are asked get their dues in early so the club can have a perfect membership and get another beautiful plaque to hang on the meeting room wall with the other one. There will be a poster for the names of those who get their dues paid. The membership chairman is Mrs. Robert Butler. The next meeting is September 21.

Hospital

Admitted
Mrs. Clyde Conrad, Mrs. Raymaldo Arriaga, Decatur; Mrs. Harriet Wright, Willshire, O.
Dismissed
Mrs. Roger Moser and baby boy, Mrs. Harry Ineichen, Berne; William North, Hoagland.

Locals

Miss Donna Pettibone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pettibone, 504 North 2nd St., celebrated her 16th birthday Wednesday. She is a junior at Decatur high school.

Miss Donna Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolfe, 944 High St., celebrated her 16th birthday Monday. She is a junior at Decatur high school.

Word has been received here that Mrs. Flossie Lenhart has returned from the Clinic hospital at Bluffton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tricker attended the Beer District, Inc., meeting at French Lick the first part of the week.

List Class Leaders At Adams Central

Adams Central class officers were released today to the Decatur Daily Democrat by Adams Central principal Carl Honaker, as follows:

Junior class: president, Steve Kaehr; vice president, Barry Isch; secretary, Maris Moesberger; treasurer, Ron Stusky; student council, Tony Ehrsam and Melvin Burkhardt.

Junior class: president, John Geimer; vice president, Phil Isch; secretary, Cary Gerber; treasurer, Kathie Ehrsam; student council, Steve Stucky and Lou Ann Tonner.

Sophomore class: president, Rita King; vice president, Alan Ringer; secretary, Carol Macy; treasurer, Dianne Moser; student council, Gretchen Yost and Diane Stetler.

Freshman class: president, Patricia Isch; vice president, Philip Bentz; secretary, Mary Kaehr; treasurer, Jo Ellen Wulliman; student council, Tim Schmitt and Donna Roudebush.

Eighth grade: president, Lois Beavers; vice president, James Franz; secretary-treasurer, Garry Hirsch; student council, Jackie Nussbaum.

Seventh grade: president, Steven Zurcher; vice president, Dean Rienhart; secretary-treasurer, Ricky Minich; student council, Larry Zurcher.

Escapes Injury In One-Car Accident

Dale L. Uhrick, 17-year-old route 2, Berne resident, escaped injury in a one-car accident on state road 118, two-tenths of a mile east of Berne, at 12:15 a.m. today.

Uhrick was eastbound and said when his windshield fogged, he lost control of his auto. The vehicle went off the right side of the road, damaged some fence and steel posts on the Roland Liechty property, and struck an Indiana & Michigan utility pole.

Uhrick's 1955 model car was considered a total loss. Deputy sheriff Warren Kneuss and Berne policeman Jerry Flueckiger are continuing investigation of the mishap.

Mrs. Larry DeWayne Bittner

— Photo by Anspaugh

Conrad - Bittner Vows Spoken Friday

Miss Nancy Jean Conrad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Conrad, route 2, and Larry DeWayne Bittner, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman M. Bittner, route 2, were united in marriage at the St. Paul's Lutheran church, Preble, at 6:30 p.m. Friday. The Rev. Norman Kuck officiated the double ring ceremony at the altar decorated with bouquets of mums and poms poms. The pews were marked with candles and green foliage.

The organist for the occasion was Raymond Bachmann, vocalist was Roger Spencer. They chose selections of "O Perfect Love," "Take Thou Their Hands and Lead Them," and "Lord's Prayer."

The maid of honor, Miss Susan Bittner, sister of the groom,

Hearing Sept. 23 On Pension Fund

A state board of tax commissioners hearing on the city's additional appropriation for its firemen's pension fund has been set for Sept. 23. The hearing will be held at 9 a.m. that day in city hall.

Figured the yield would be about 100 bushels per acre. One-half of the acre was planted at the rate of 30,000 stalks, and the other half at 16,000 stalks.

This project was part of the 12-month FFA program undertaken through the vocational agricultural program at Adams Central, advisor Martin Watson explained.

After making several checks on the one-acre plot, the group

CHECKING CORN PLOT on the Adams Central school plot are Duane Landis, Kermit Myers, Kenny Pyle, Max Beer, and Roger Ellinger.

ADAMS CENTRAL FFA members are shown above checking their corn plot Friday, where they discovered that the higher the corn population, the more seriously the lack of water affected the field. They are, from left to right, Kent Whitsacre, Glen Marckel, Terry Steffen, Rex Funk, Jerry Young, and Norm Riley.

Club Schedule

Telephone 3-2121

Eva Miller

Society Editor

Calendar items for each day's publication must be phoned in by 11 a.m. (Saturday 9:30)

SATURDAY

Psi Iota Trading Post, 1-4, Alice Roth and Judy Brodeck.

SUNDAY

Sing Bee, Greenbrier United Brethren in Christ church, 2 p.m.

MONDAY

St. Mary's Rosary society, K. C. hall, 8 p.m. special music, program, refreshments.

Rosary Society, K. of C. Hall,

8 p.m.

Adams county home demonstration chorus, Farm Bureau Bldg. 7:30 p.m.

VFW, Post home, social meeting, 8 p.m.

Academy of Friendship, 7:30 p.m.

TUESDAY

Loyal Daughters class of Bethany EUB church, Mrs. Clarence R. Smith, 7:30 p.m.

Olive Rebekah Lodge, Red Mens hall, 7:30 p.m. Three Link club follows, hostesses, Mrs. Georgia Kreigh and Mrs. Aleatha Sowards.

Delta Theta Tau sorority, Mrs. James Newton, 8 p.m., social meeting.

Tri Kappa Sorority, active, 7:45 p.m., Mrs. John Brecht.

Xi Alpha Xi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, business meeting 8 p.m., Ann Blaney, hostess; assistant, Anola Crist; program, Marie Hill.

Psi Iota Xi Sorority, I & M Bldg., 7:30 p.m.

St. Paul Missionary Ladies Aid, Mrs. William Thornton, 7 p.m.

WEDNESDAY

K. of C. Auxiliary, K. of C. hall, 8 p.m.

THURSDAY

Decatur chapter 127 Order of Eastern Star, sidelines night, 7:30 p.m.

Gals and Pals square dance club, Youth and Community center.

Builders class, Trinity EUB, social room, 7:30 p.m.

FRIDAY

Decatur Missionary church Friendship circle, Mrs. Robert Reynolds, 7:30 p.m.

American Legion Auxiliary, Legion Home, social meeting, 8 p.m.

SATURDAY

Organist for the occasion was Mrs. John Girard, who accompanied the St. Mary's men's choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of white imported organza over taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a shell neckline.

The princess style skirt was enhanced with crystal beads which traced the floral and leaf patterns over the fitted front panel. The dropped waistline was accented on each side with tiny bows. Small rosebuds fell from the back, which swept to a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a crown of lace and small seed pearls. She carried a white orchid.

Organist for the occasion was

Mrs. John Girard, who accompanied the St. Mary's men's choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of white imported organza over taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a shell neckline.

The princess style skirt was enhanced with crystal beads which traced the floral and leaf patterns over the fitted front panel. The dropped waistline was accented on each side with tiny bows. Small rosebuds fell from the back, which swept to a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a crown of lace and small seed pearls. She carried a white orchid.

Organist for the occasion was

Mrs. John Girard, who accompanied the St. Mary's men's choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of white imported organza over taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a shell neckline.

The princess style skirt was enhanced with crystal beads which traced the floral and leaf patterns over the fitted front panel. The dropped waistline was accented on each side with tiny bows. Small rosebuds fell from the back, which swept to a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a crown of lace and small seed pearls. She carried a white orchid.

Organist for the occasion was

Mrs. John Girard, who accompanied the St. Mary's men's choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of white imported organza over taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a shell neckline.

The princess style skirt was enhanced with crystal beads which traced the floral and leaf patterns over the fitted front panel. The dropped waistline was accented on each side with tiny bows. Small rosebuds fell from the back, which swept to a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a crown of lace and small seed pearls. She carried a white orchid.

Organist for the occasion was

Mrs. John Girard, who accompanied the St. Mary's men's choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of white imported organza over taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a shell neckline.

The princess style skirt was enhanced with crystal beads which traced the floral and leaf patterns over the fitted front panel. The dropped waistline was accented on each side with tiny bows. Small rosebuds fell from the back, which swept to a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a crown of lace and small seed pearls. She carried a white orchid.

Organist for the occasion was

Mrs. John Girard, who accompanied the St. Mary's men's choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of white imported organza over taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a shell neckline.

The princess style skirt was enhanced with crystal beads which traced the floral and leaf patterns over the fitted front panel. The dropped waistline was accented on each side with tiny bows. Small rosebuds fell from the back, which swept to a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a crown of lace and small seed pearls. She carried a white orchid.

Organist for the occasion was

Mrs. John Girard, who accompanied the St. Mary's men's choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of white imported organza over taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a shell neckline.

The princess style skirt was enhanced with crystal beads which traced the floral and leaf patterns over the fitted front panel. The dropped waistline was accented on each side with tiny bows. Small rosebuds fell from the back, which swept to a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a crown of lace and small seed pearls. She carried a white orchid.

Organist for the occasion was

Mrs. John Girard, who accompanied the St. Mary's men's choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of white imported organza over taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a shell neckline.

The princess style skirt was enhanced with crystal beads which traced the floral and leaf patterns over the fitted front panel. The dropped waistline was accented on each side with tiny bows. Small rosebuds fell from the back, which swept to a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a crown of lace and small seed pearls. She carried a white orchid.

Organist for the occasion was

Mrs. John Girard, who accompanied the St. Mary's men's choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of white imported organza over taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a shell neckline.

The princess style skirt was enhanced with crystal beads which traced the floral and leaf patterns over the fitted front panel. The dropped waistline was accented on each side with tiny bows. Small rosebuds fell from the back, which swept to a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a crown of lace and small seed pearls. She carried a white orchid.

Organist for the occasion was

Mrs. John Girard, who accompanied the St. Mary's men's choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of white imported organza over taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a shell neckline.

The princess style skirt was enhanced with crystal beads which traced the floral and leaf patterns over the fitted front panel. The dropped waistline was accented on each side with tiny bows. Small rosebuds fell from the back, which swept to a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a crown of lace and small seed pearls. She carried a white orchid.

Organist for the occasion was

Mrs. John Girard, who accompanied the St. Mary's men's choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of white imported organza over taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a shell neckline.</