Two Accidents Are Reported In City

A car and a mailbox were damaged in an accident at 3:49 a.m. today, at the intersection of Monroe and 11th streets.

David Charles Reed, 22, of 610 Cleveland St., was northbound on 11th, and as he turned onto Monroe, his auto struck the mailbox on the southwest corner of the intersection. Reed's car went out of control on the pavement which had become slick following an early morning rain. Damages were estimated at $400 to the Reed car and $75 to the mail box.

At 2:55 p.m. Tuesday, cars driven by Lamar E. Taylor, 21, of 246 N. Sixth St., and David Anspaugh, 18, of Homestead 9, collided at the intersection of Rugg and First streets.

Taylor was westbound on Rugg and Anspaugh was traveling north on First when the two collided, with the Taylor car striking the right rear of the Anspaugh car. Neither driver was able to see the other auto until impact, as the vision of each was obscured by hedges and shrubs on the southeast corner. Damages were estimated at $400 to the Taylor car and $900 to the Anspaugh car, plus $50 to a city lamp post that was struck by one of the autos.

Lady's Deportation Prevented By Board

Action taken by the Adams county commissioners at their meeting Monday has saved the 69-year-old immigrant mother of a local woman from being deported to Russia by U. S. public health officials.

Mrs. Sara Wiebe, mother of Mrs. Katie Lehr, former refugee brought to this area with her husband and son by the Immanuel Lutheran church, arrived in this country from the Soviet Union last spring and was reunited in early April with her daughter, whom she had not seen since 1941.

Word was received last November that Mrs. Wiebe would be granted an exit visa to come to this country and join her daughter. Before leaving Russia, Mrs. Wiebe was examined by a doctor at the American embassy in Russia and given a clean bill of health, a necessary condition for entering the United States.

Since entering this country she has developed tuberculosis and her daughter, whose husband was killed in 1954, was unable to meet the necessary hospital expenses. Since Mrs. Wiebe is not a citizen, U. S. public health officials ruled that she would have to be deported unless she could be admitted to a hospital with facilities for the treatment of TB.

Ordinarily, the county pays the expense for its needy residents

Sale Of Decatur Home Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Frauhiger have sold their home at 611 N. Second St., according to an announcement today by Mrs. Pauline Haug, local broker, who handled the sale.

The Frauhiger home was sold to Mr. and Mrs. John Pokorny, of Sidney, O., who are planning to move to this city in the near future. The Frauhigers are moving into another home on N. Second St.

who are admitted to the Irene Byron hospital for TB treatment. So Mrs. Lehr and Mrs. W. Guy Brown, secretary of the local TB association and contact officer for Irene Byron hospital, appeared before the commissioners and requested their aid.

The commissioners were sympathetic to the problem, but requested county attorney Dave Macklin to make a check of state laws concerning such situations. Macklin made a thorough check and found that the state laws did not specify citizenship as a requirement for aid from the county. The law requires only that the afflicted person be a resident of the county, which Mrs. Wiebe has been since April.

The commissioners, satisfied by this research, were able to approve the necessary expenditures for Mrs. Wiebe's treatment at Irene Byron, thus preventing her deportation.

First Aid Classes Open Next Tuesday

Mrs. Wanda Oelberg, executive secretary of the local chapter of the American Red Cross, reminded local residents today of the first aid class for men which opens Tuesday night, Sept. 29.

A special invitation has been extended by the local chapter to members of the sheriff's department, city police, citizen's band radio club and any other men who might be interested.

The class will be held on Tuesday and Thursday nights for two weeks, and on Tuesday night of the following week, for two hours a night each of the five nights, for a total of 10 hours.

The classes, to begin at 7 o'clock each night, will be held in the basement of the Reppert building. Instructor for the course is Darrel Brown, and cost of the entire course is only 75 cents, which pays for the textbook to be used.

Over 20 persons will begin a first aid class at the Emmanuel Lutheran school on the same evening.

The school is being put on by the parent-teachers league of the Emmanuel Lutheran church in Union township. Walter Stoppert is the instructor, and those enrolled in the class are asked to be at the school no later than 7 o'clock next Tuesday night.

Dr. Harold H. Wilkie

Crippled Children Dedication Sunday

Dr. Harold H. Wilkie, consultant and trustee of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., director of the council for church and ministry, United Church of Christ, New York City, will bring together "Rehabilitation is our Dedication" as he speaks at the dedication of the new home office building of the Indiana Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. at 3616 North Sherman Drive, Indianapolis, Sunday at 3 p.m.

Dr. Wilkie, author of two books "Greet the Man," Christian Educational Press and "Strengthened with Might," Westminster Press was for several years a member of the Menninger foundation of Topeka, consequently his work makes a double impact with his audiences in the rehabilitation field as it is recognized as a very personal service to his main work.

He has made great efforts in emphasizing the psychological and spiritual aspects of rehabilitation and community acceptance of the crippled in all parts of the world. Despite the fact that he has no arms, Dr. Wilkie said "It's important, of course, but not in the same sense which most people put it," has traveled widely throughout the world, preaching and lecturing in Tokyo and Bombay, Hong Kong, Honolulu, Athens, Jerusalem, Vienna and Bonn, Germany.

This dedication service, a highlight of the 25th anniversary celebration of the Indiana Society for Crippled Children and Adults, is opened to the public. In addition to the dedicatory address by Dr. Wilkie, the program will include music by the Arlington high school brass ensemble and a "Call to Service" by Robert B. Acker, M.D. (first president of the Indiana Society for Crippled Children). Awards and recognition will be presented by president-elect Mary Alice Eisman and plaque installation by Calvin Hiatt, Jr., retiring president of the Indiana Easter Seal society. The honorary dedication mer Indiana Governor Henry F. commission is composed of for-Schriker, Anton "Tony" Hulman and Dr. Herman B. Wells. John B. Funk, state chairman of the 25th anniversary celebration, is presiding over the dedication service.

Bank Holdup Suspect Held In California

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—Jack D. Osborne, 32, Indianapolis, has been arrested and charged at Sacramento, Calif., in connection with a $4,500 Aug. 25 holdup of the Indiana National Bank here.

The FBI Tuesday said Osborne appeared before the U. S. Commissioner and will be returned to Indiana. Pictures taken at the time of the robbery aided in the investigation.

Annoying Excise Taxes May Be Out

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson's pledge to cut excise taxes next year is most likely to be aimed at ending levies on cosmetics, luggage, furs, handbags and jewelry.

Tax experts believe that these are the levies most annoying to the public because they are among the few excises actually listed in the purchase price of the article.

Excise taxes on liquor, tobacco and gasoline are considered "untouchables" and probably will remain a permanent part of the tax system.

The President told the United Steelworkers' convention in Atlantic City, N.J., Tuesday that "we will cut excise taxes next year." Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon had said previously that the excise levies would be the next target of a tax cut.

The excise taxes are left over from World War II and the Korean conflict. They are expected to bring about $14.6 billion into the Treasury this year.
