Special Services To Close Sunday Night

Rev. Bill Weston

The closing day of a week of special revival meetings at the Decatur Missionary church, 10th and Dayton streets, will be held Sunday with the Rev. Bill Weston speaking at the 10 a.m. worship hour and again at 7 p.m. it was announced by the Rev. Leroy E. Rusher, pastor of the church.

Rev. Rusher stated that "the services have been well attended during the week by the people of the community and an overflow crowd is expected for the Sunday services."

Rev. Weston has been director of St. Louis Youth for Christ for many years and is well-known as a youth speaker, having spoken to young people in hundreds of high schools across the nation. In addition to his unique preaching, he directs the "revival choir" each evening.

A service will be held Friday, 7:30 p.m., but no service Saturday evening. The public is invited to attend the closing services Sunday.

Lutheran Principal Attends Conference

Smith Snively, principal of Zion Lutheran school, is in St. Louis today attending a Lutheran church—Missouri synod curriculum conference. Delegates represent all districts of the synod. Snively represents the Indiana district of the church.

A completely revised, basic curriculum has been adopted for the 1,600 Lutheran schools of the synod. Delegates are discussing ways of implementing the curriculum, and are planning conference topics regarding the new curriculum.
