GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 222

On September 29 each patrol packed food and utensils for a cookout and headed for the fire site at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Girod. The fires were built and the meal was prepared. The new cadettes learned many new skills and the older girls reviewed many of them.

On the dates of July 28-30, 12 of the girls took a lifesaving course at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Girod. The course was given by Cameron Parks, from Garrett. The girls camped out and cooked their own meals. During the three hours in the morning and afternoon they drilled one hour on land and two in the water. Each girl learned forms of approaching a drowning person, carrying him to shore and artificial respiration. After three days of hard work they were rewarded by a small, but very important junior life saving badge.

David Ross Claims Bride September 26

Miss Judith Elaine Clark, daughter of Mrs. Kenneth Clark, 1201 Powers street, New Haven, and the late Kenneth Clark, and David Allen Ross, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Rolan Ross, 1403 Master Drive, were united in marriage at the New Haven Methodist church in a double ring ceremony. Dr. Newman S. Jeffrey officiated the ceremony that took place September 26 at 6:30 p.m. Decorations were vases filled with white gladioli and blue mums. A candelabra graced the altar.

Organist for the occasion was Paul Hagen, Fort Wayne, and Jan Swank, New Haven, was soloist. Selections included "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

Given in marriage by her brother, Ronald Clark, the bride wore a princess style gown of satin peau. The bodice and front of the skirt featured alencon lace. The back of the skirt flowed into a chapel length train. Tiny seed pearls and crystals adorned the lace of the bodice and full length sleeves. She carried a cascade of white roses with a pink rose center. Her waist length veil was caught to a crown of pearls and crystals.

Her maid of honor, Janet Clark, sister of the bride, chose a ballerina length gown of blue taffeta with a royal blue pleated cummerbund and a full length overskirt. She wore a matching pill box hat with a short veil. She carried a single white mum with blue streamers. Her bridesmaids were Miss Candy Ternet, friend of the bride, Miss Joan Clark, sister of the bride, and Miss Deborah Hackman, cousin of the bride. They wore dresses and headresses identical to the honor attendant and carried identical flowers.

The bride's mother wore a green sheath sea mist crepe dress with a hat and gloves to match and her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother wore a royal blue wool dress with a feather hat to match and white gloves. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

A rehearsal dinner was held Friday night at the Betsy Ross Coffee Shop, Fort Wayne, for 24 guests. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. A white lace cloth with blue tapers covered the table. The four tier cake with miniature bride and groom was the centerpiece. Serving at the reception were Kay Neurge, Sue Certman, Lana Ternet, Linda Doctor and Bee Shapen.

For her wedding trip to northern Michigan and Canada, the bride wore a gray and white checked suit with a white blouse and a pink corsage.

The bride is a graduate of the New Haven high school and is employed by Preble Plastics, New Haven. The groom is a graduate of Decatur high school and is employed by Strato-Flex, Baer Field.

The couple is at home at the Country Court, highway 27, Fort Wayne.

Her flower girl, Diana Stewart, cousin of the bride, wore a dress identical to the bridesmaids and carried a basket of white and blue pompons.

Jack Meyer served his friend as best man. Jerry Lister and Jerry Liby, cousins of the groom, and Don Poling, friend of the groom seated the guests. Randy Ross, brother of the groom, was ring-bearer. He carried the two rings on a heart shaped pillow with white streamers.
