

County Harrier Meet To Be Held Monday

Geneva will be out to repeat its 1963 triumph when Adams county's six schools battle in the annual county cross-country meet at the Limberlost golf course near Geneva Monday afternoon.

Geneva is the host school, and the Cards will try to add a second straight title to the one they won last season, when they nipped Adams Central by four points.

Starting time Monday is 4 o'clock, and Harry Anderson, South Adams athletic director, will serve as the meet's official starter. Competing will be the county schools, Geneva, Berne, Adams Central, Monmouth, Decatur Catholic and Decatur high.

Loss Back
Back to defend his top individual laurels will be Johnny Lose of the Commodores. Lose won the 1963 county meet in a fine 9:48 clocking, though only a sophomore.

He may be hard-pressed to repeat this season, however, as he hasn't matched that time this year and has been under 10 minutes only once.

Monmouth has a pair of top runners Ted Buuck and Danny Conrad, while Decatur's Dave Adams will also be a treat. Adams Central has a well-balanced squad with four or five top individuals.

Geneva will be paced by Stahly, Habegger and Bixler in their bid to return. They finished 3rd, 5th and 6th respectively in last year's meet.

The order in which the six teams finished last year, with their point totals, was as follows: Geneva, 38; Adams Central 42; Decatur high, 94; Berne, 96; Decatur Catholic, 111; Monmouth, 140.

Limberlost Meet
Geneva will also host the big Limberlost Invitational meet next week which is expected to draw teams from eight schools, in addition to the host team.

Trophies will be awarded to the teams finishing first and second, and to the top individual runner. The meet is scheduled for Thursday afternoon of next week, and will begin at approximately 3:30 p.m. at the Rainbow layout.

Seven runners will compete from each of the nine schools, which are as follows: Decatur, Decatur Catholic, Portland, Dunkirk, Winchester, Berne, Geneva, Monmouth and Bryant. Anderson will again act as timer.

McElreath Listed As Fair After Crackup

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—Veteran driver Jim McElreath, 34, Arlington, Tex., remained in fair condition today with burns suffered Thursday when his rear-engine racer slammed into the wall at the Indianapolis Speedway and burst into flames.

McElreath, rookie of the year in the 1962 Indianapolis "500," suffered severe burns on his left hand and arm and less serious burns on his side, right hand and the tops of his legs. Flash burns also burned off his eyebrows and lashes.

Bontrager U.S. Senator

A man who believes in a Federal government that serves rather than rules; that encourages rather than restricts free enterprise; that operates on a balanced budget, that does not destroy incentive by excessive taxation, that seeks peace with honor rather than wasteful worldwide spending. If you believe in these principles, too, vote Republican—Russell Bontrager for U. S. Senator.

She can't remember a draft or cold spot in her home. Ten years ago her family changed to flameless electric heating. She lives in the freedom and comfort of warm, even heat—able to play or sit or study anywhere without cold or discomfort. She can even dial her own climate. Would you like this freedom and comfort? Just see your Reddy Kilowatt Recommended Dealer (he's listed in the Yellow Pages) and get an estimate of the cost of flameless electric heating for your home.
