Couple Married In Morning Ceremony

Gold vases filled with deep red and bronze mums, oak foliage and yellow and white mums decorated the altars of the St. Mary's Catholic church where Miss Janet Kay Baker and Michael S. Ellenberger were united in marriage by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Simeon Schmitt this morning at 10 o'clock. Miss Baker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius J. Baker, and Ellenberger is the eldest son of Mrs. Joyce Ellenberger and the late Mr. Ellenberger.

Organist was Mrs. John G. Baker. Mass was sung by the men's choir and mass was served by John Baker and Greg Ellenberger, brothers of the bride and groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white bouquet taffeta and imported alencon lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline outlined with alencon lace. The long tapered sleeves came to points over her hands. Alencon lace created a vertical pattern on the flat front panel of the full floor length skirt. A small bow accented the dropped gathered back waistline as the fullness swept into a chapel length train. Her full bouffant length veil of imported silk illusion was caught to a scalloped alencon lace crown touched with seed pearls. She carried a trailing cascade arrangement of all white flowers featuring a large white orchid, garcia pompon mums with camellia foliage and streamers.

Mrs. Tom Meyer, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant.

She wore a floor length gown of burnt orange crystal back satin bows with a tiny rose bud caught in the center and a bouffant veil. She carried a semicascade bouquet of tropicana roses and golden bronze pompons. Miss Janeen Augsburger and Miss Kay Ellenberger, bridesmaids, wore ensembles and carried flowers identical to the maid-of-honor.

Patrick Ellenberger served his brother as best man and Tom Imel and Tom Omor were ushers.

A wedding breakfast was given for the couple at the Fairway restaurant for approximately 20 guests. The reception will be held at the Elks lodge from 2-5 this afternoon for 300 guests. The flowers of the reception will carry through the same color scheme as the church decorations. The couple will have a four tiered wedding cake. Serving at the reception will be Mrs. Dave Hamilton, Mrs. Jerry Korte, Mrs. John Tyner, Miss Terrie Buckley, Miss Joyce Tricker, Mrs. Dale Burkhardt and Mrs. Bob Walters will register the gifts.

For the wedding trip to the Smokey Mountains, the new Mrs. Ellenberger will wear a three piece brown knit suit with beige trim. She will wear brown accessories and the white orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Decatur Catholic high school and is now employed by the Lincoln National Life Insurance Co., Fort Wayne. The groom is also a graduate of Decatur Catholic high school and is employed at Gage's Machine Shop, Decatur.

After the wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 235 1/2 N. Sixth street.

Northwest Cubs Hold First Meet

The Northwest school Cub pack 3063 held its first meeting of the school year Monday evening in the school gym. Cubmaster Ralph Smith, Jr., read a letter telling the group of a new way to help get boys interested in joining the Cub Scouts. It is called frontier round-up, and will continue until December 20. The plan consists of each Cub Scout inviting a classmate to his den meeting and getting the boys' parents interested in attending a pack meeting. If the boy joins, the Cub Scout will receive a patch signifying he helped recruit another boy into scouting.

Cubmaster Smith introduced Bill Spice, who had just returned from a fall commissioners' conference. Spice related some very interesting facts that Judge W. O. Hughes of Allen county circuit court gave at the conference. Some of these were, "parents are not concentrating enough on their children's activities, and not once had he served sentence in juvenile court on a boy who had been a Boy Scout. That as adults and parents we should be ashamed that we don't have more time for our children in our community."

Spice related some startling facts also on "responsibilities in our own community. The fact that three out of four boys want scouting, but that only one out of four receives it. Why? Because the parents want someone else to lead the boys. That leaves only a few to do the job. In our schools, den mothers are needed badly if our boys are going to receive the type of scouting necessary to help them. The Boy Scout council cannot do everything. The parents are going to have to help."

Spice urges all parents, with young boys to think this responsibility over and if parents have questions they could contact him or Ralph Smith, Jr. Spice would like for parents signing applications for their boys to enter into cub scouting to read it thoroughly. It states that parents are required to help any time they are called upon.

Sunday, November 8, from 1-5 p.m. at Bluffton, the Lumberlost leaders will hold a powwow. Entrance fees will be 50 cents for each person and each pack will display items of handicraft and work the pack has done.

In October there is a trip planned for the Cubs of Northwest school to attend Holiday on Ice in Fort Wayne if tickets can be purchased. Parents and other children of the cub's family may purchase tickets through the pack.

Mrs. Tom Schlotterback's den closed with two cheer leading yells for their den 2. The next pack meeting will be October 26 at 7 p.m. in the school gym.

Decatur Young Man Fined At Van Wert

Harold Godsey, 21, of Decatur, was fined $100 and costs recently in Van Wert court by Judge Cathryn Harrington.

Godsey was charged with providing transportation for a 17-year-old and allowing the youth to consume beer. Judge Harrington suspended all but $25 of the fine and placed the Decatur man on probation for a year.

Jerry Christener, 19, and Robert Truesdale, 22, both of route 1, Willshire, O., were fined $100 and costs on charges of acting in a way tending to cause the delinquency of the same boy.

Christener was charged with providing transportation for the boy and allowing him to consume beer, while Truesdale was charged with purchasing and providing beer for the juvenile.

The youth, Frederick Beittler, 17, was placed on probation until he is 21 years of age, and also received a $25 fine and costs, which were suspended.

To Celebrate 74th Anniversary Monday

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Baxter, of Union township, will celebrate their 74th wedding anniversary Monday, but it may not be a happy one.

Mr. Baxter, whose real name is Horace Enos, but who is known as "Ean" by his friends, is in poor condition at the Adams county memorial hospital. Mrs. Baxter, the former Emma Crozier, is hopeful that they will be able to observe their 74th anniversary together next Monday.

Both were in the hospital recently, but were returned to their home in Union township, on the Indiana-Ohio line road. Mr. Baxter, however, was taken to the hospital again about the middle of last week. He has been

Vernon Gallmeyer Wins Sixth Award

Vernon Gallmeyer, of rural route 1, Ossian, has received sixth award of $25 in the annual program sponsored by the James F. Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation of Cleveland, Ohio, to recognize outstanding achievements in the nation's school shops.

His award-winning project was a chair built under the guidance of his show instructor, Dale E. Hille, at Ossian high school. Award projects were selected from written reports describing the design and construction of a welded shop project completed during the 1963-64 school year.
