HAPPY HOMEMAKERS CLUB MEETS LAST EVENING

Members of the Happy Homemakers home demonstration club met last evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Erp for their regular monthly meeting, with Mrs. Patsy Lee Leaders, county home agent, bringing the lesson to the group on "Looking your best — Fashion for all."

Mrs. John Genth, club president, opened with the group reciting the club creed. Devotions were given by Mrs. Floyd Mitchell, who read the poem, "If Nobody Smiled," by Arthur James Haden, and "Building Walls" as her second selection. Closing with Mrs. Earl Harmon reviewed the song of the month, "Steal Away," and led the group in singing it. Roll call was answered by the 14 members by, "What I learned from club lessons, that I use most," followed with Mrs. Lee Hoopinger reading the minutes of the previous meeting. The president announced the dates of two coming events, November 12, a lesson on Christmas gift wrapping, and December 2, officers training school. She then introduced Mrs. Leaders to the group who gave an interesting lesson.

Mrs. Leaders passed out sheets requesting each one to analyze the shape of her face, type of neck, and her figure category. Each individual was presented vital information on how to adapt correct silhouette lines, dress styles, fashions, sleeves, necklines, materials, patterns, colors, accessories that would minimize figure faults, bring out good features and accent personality types. She passed leaflets showing incorrect use of belts, ruffles, bright colors, small patterns, various necklines, sleeves, pleats, jacket lengths and different accessories. She closed with a short question and answer period.

An election of officers was held with the following results: president, Mrs. John Garth; vice president, Mrs. Clarence Mitchell; secretary, Mrs. George Thomas; treasurer, Mrs. Dwight Schnepf; alternate leaders, Mrs. Clifford Roe and Mrs. John Baltzell. At the close of the meeting, the hostess invited the ladies to the candlelit dining room, with Mrs. Sheldon Wagley presiding at the table. Delicious refreshments of coffee, dessert, fancy crackers were served from a beautiful lace covered table enhanced with colorful autumn cornucopia and flowered nut cups.
