

COME TO CHURCH SUNDAY

The Church Invites You

The personal services rendered by most churches are incalculable. Its ministry is available at all times, to all people, for all needs. It stands in the community ready to answer a plea for help, and there is no price tag on its services. The church goes into the hospital, sick room, nursery, place of mourning, the prison cell the homes of the aged and the needy. Many homes have been held together because the minister counseled and prayed with the husband and wife to be reconciled to each other and to God. It has been said that church-going families are happier. No institution on earth has felt so deeply the needs of mankind. It has established hospitals, orphanages, asylums, homes for the aged, schools, universities. The church is not here to pronounce the invocation or benediction on life, nor is it for emergency use only. Its ministry is vital at all times. WHY NOT ACCEPT THE INVITATION AND COME TO CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY?

Patriotism is a blind irrational impulse unless it is founded on a knowledge of the blessings we are called to secure and the privileges we propose to defend. — Robert Hall.
