

Mrs. E. Ross Adair

Woman's Club Opens Season Next Monday

The Decatur Woman's club will open its 1964-65 season with a dinner meeting Monday, October 19, at the Decatur Youth and Community Center.

Speaker for the evening will be Mrs. E. Ross Adair, Fort Wayne, wife of the representative to congress from the four Indiana districts. Congressman and Mrs. Adair first went to Washington in 1951. Because of his membership on the foreign affairs committee, the Adairs are invited to many embassy functions. Through these contacts Mrs. Adair has organized six international clubs for embassy wives and Americans. She also founded the popular Welcome to Washington club with 475 members, half international and half Americans. She

GE CODE CLUB MET RECENTLY

The Carriage Inn, in Fort Wayne, was the recent meeting place for the October party for members of the GeCode club. Dinner was served at 8 p. m. in the upstairs dining room to 28 members and one guest. Mrs. Paul Wilkinson, president, gave a short talk on the recent mid-western women's convention held in Cincinnati, O. Door prizes were then given away to the following members: Miss Rosemary Miller, Mrs. Mina Stevens, Miss Doris Garboden, Mrs. James Staley, Mrs. Merle Foor, Mrs. Phyllis Minch, Mrs. Lenore Lytle, Mrs. Roger Pollock, Mrs. Claude Foreman, Mrs. Roy White, Mrs. Charlotte Gephart and Mrs. Mamie Bashara.

The ladies then went to the Fallstaff brewery for an interesting trip through it. Refreshments were later served in the hospitality house of the brewery. Chairman for the party was Mrs. James Moran. She was assisted by Mrs. Mamie Bashara, Mrs. Helen Royer, Mrs. Charlotte Gephart, Mrs. Lenore Lytle, Miss Mary Miller, Dorothy Shaffer, Mrs. Verena Meyer, and Esther Wasson.

is listed in the Who's Who of American Women.

Mrs. Adair's program, entitled "Culture and Crafts of the Far East," is the outgrowth of a trip to the Orient taken several years ago. With the assistance of Mrs. Paul Fulkerson of Fort Wayne and several members of the Decatur Woman's club, she will show dresses worn by women in various Far Eastern countries. Local models who will appear include Mrs. R. C. Hersh, president of the Adams County Federation of Clubs, and the Misses Jane Jacobs and Suvalim Triswan, members of the Junior Arts department.

Reservations for the dinner must be in the hands of Mrs. Ferris Kohne, program chairman, by Wednesday evening, October 14.

POT LUCK DINNER

HELD BY C. L. OF C.

The Catholic Ladies of Columbia enjoyed a delicious pot luck dinner with turkey and dressing being furnished by the committee, last Tuesday evening. Tables were beautifully arranged with fall flowers and gourds. Guests for the evening were the Rev. Eugene Fekete and Mrs. G. Medford Smith. The centerpiece on the table was won by Mrs. Robert Gage, Sr.

A business meeting followed the dinner, conducted by the president, Mrs. Andrew Miller. New members taken in the Mesdames G. Medford Smith, Herman Gillis, Jeanette Ehinger and Mrs. Herber. Plans were made for the initiation to be held November 1 at Columbus Grove.

The committee in charge for the evening were as follows: the Mesdames, Henry Braun, Joe Kitson, Jack Keller, Robert Gage, Sr., Ed Berling, Ed Keller, and the Misses Rosemary Soaniger, Rose and Agnes Nesswald, Pat Kintz and Ruth Ann Braun.

VALPARAISO UNIVERSITY GUILD ATTENDS MEETING

The Decatur chapter of the Valparaiso University Guild opened its 1964-65 season recently with 51 members and six guests from the Decatur chapter attending a joint meeting with the Van Wert county chapter.

The meeting was held at the Convoy Redeemer church. Rev. Gerken, of Deedemer, conducted the devotions and welcomed the Decatur chapter to the joint meeting.

Mrs. Aaron Buchner, president of the Van Wert chapter, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Nelson Doty, president of the Decatur chapter, announced the forthcoming rummage sale to be sponsored by the Decatur chapter October 23 and 24 as the first project for the season. The Decatur chapter will also sponsor a talent show November 15 at St. John's Bingen.

Mrs. Leonard Etzler, of the Van Wert chapter, presented an interesting report on the annual convention at Valpo. Mrs. Louis Jacobs also commented on the convention and the progress of several projects at Valpo.

Rev. Braun of St. Thomas introduced the speaker - Judge Kathryn Harrington, juvenile judge of Van Wert county. Judge Harrington discussed juvenile problems and stated that delinquency is a "behavior problem" that should have been taught in the home. The judge also stated that they try to "doctor" or "treat" the symptoms when the juvenile delinquent is brought to them.

Lunch was served by the ladies of the Van Wert chapter.

FORMER DECATUR GIRL WEDS IN CALIFORNIA

St. Matthew's Episcopal church of Pacific Palisades, Calif., was the scene of an autumn wedding which united in marriage Miss Luanne Kae Lehman and Herbert L. Frankhuizen officiated in the double ring ceremony, which took place October 10 at 2 p. m. Miss Lehman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Lehman, route 5, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pearce, Lemon Grove, Calif. Two bouquets of white gladioli, yellow pompons and bronze mums adorned the altar and six pews on each side of the aisle were decorated with yellow bows and foliage.

The bride was lovely in a white satin sheath street length dress, which was enhanced by a bodice overlaid with lace, long sleeves ending in points over her hands, and a scalloped batteau neckline. She carried a circular bouquet of white spider mums. Her head-dress was a shoulder length veil caught to a crown of shimmestone and pearl. She was given in marriage by William P. Zilker, Lemon Grove, Calif., as her parents were unable to attend the wedding.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Mary L. Roberts, friend of the bride, who was attired in an avocado green crepe street length dress with long sleeves, a batteau neckline in the front and a scooped neck with soft drape in the back. She wore a matching bow with a short veil and carried a circular bouquet of yellow spider mums.

W. David Phillips of Fresno, Calif., friend of the groom, attended as best man. Ushers were William Caldwell, Palos Verdes Estates, Calif., and Robert Hays, Fresno, Calif., friend of the groom.

Mrs. William P. Zilker wore a two piece omelet knit suit with matching accessories, a turquoise velvet hat and mink stole. Her corsage was of white pompons. The bridegroom's mother chose a teal blue wool suit with matching accessories and a magenta flowered hat. Her grey mink stole was accented by a white pompon corsage. Approximately 125 guests attended the reception at Founder's hall, on the church grounds, immediately following the ceremony. The table was decorated with a three tiered cake surrounded by yellow and bronze pompons and foliage. Miss Marge A. Norman presided at the guest book.

The new Mrs. Pearce chose a prussian blue, double-breasted wool suit, green hat, black accessories and a butterfly orchid corsage for their Mazatlan Mexico City honeymoon.

The bride is a graduate of Decatur high school and is presently employed by Douglas Aircraft Co., Inc., Santa Monica, Calif. The groom is a graduate of Grossmont, Union high school Grossmont, Calif., California State Polytechnic college, San Luis Obispo, Calif., and did post-graduate work at the University of California at Los Angeles. He is a member of the Blue Key national honor fraternity and was national president of the alumni association, 1956-60. He is manager of Manned Spacecraft Marketing at Douglas Aircraft Company in Santa Monica. He is also a member of the Santa Monica Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearce will be residing at 15757 Sunset Blvd., Pacific Palisades, Calif., after October 18.

TWO CIRCLES TO MEET THIS WEEK

Two circles of the First Presbyterian church will meet this week. The Naomi circle, with Mrs. John McConaha as chairman, will meet Wednesday at the church at 9 a. m. A nursery is provided for the children. Mrs. David Langston will lead the Bible study. The hostesses will be Mrs. James Burck and Mrs. Russell Freed.

The Ruth circle, with Mrs. Charles Morgan as chairman, will meet at the home of Mrs. Howard Evans Wednesday at 8 p. m. Assisting the hostess with refreshments will be Mrs. Raymond Johnson. The Bible study will be led by Mrs. Veronica Linn. Mrs. Elbert A. Smith, Jr., will present the program for both circle meetings.

Cub Scouts

Den 2 met at the home of Den Mother, Mrs. Tom Schlatterback. The meeting started with Tom Maloney earning his Bob Cat Badge. Next we showed each other magic tricks. Then we started working on our picture project with bark and moss. We had a treat and closed the meeting by singing Good Night Cub Scouts.

INCREDIBLY STRONG... Tough, durable... no fiber can outwear nylon. And no ordinary nylon carpet fiber can beat the strength of Cumuloft nylon. Cumuloft nylon is a continuous filament textured yarn that retains nylon's full strength.

RICHLY LUXURIOUS... You have to feel the lush depth underfoot! You have to see the rich surface... the fabulous new depth and clarity of color! Carpet of Cumuloft nylon pile is like no carpet you've ever owned. It has warmth and softness that is unbelievable.

RESISTS FUZZING AND PILLING... Cumuloft nylon is a continuous filament nylon, with no short loose fibers to pill up or fuzz. That's why carpet of Cumuloft nylon doesn't shed.

RESILIENT... Step on it. Jump on it. Carpet of Cumuloft nylon keeps coming back for more! The resilient nylon yarn springs back, resists matting and retains its luxurious texture.

EASY TO CLEAN... Because the smooth, non-absorbent Cumuloft nylon yarn resists dirt and dust, soiling stays right on the surface where you can whiz it off with the vacuum cleaner. Spills are no catastrophe either. Just spot clean with a detergent and water.
