Rangers Open NHL Season With 6-2 Win

By United Press International
The Montreal Canadiens, regular season champions of the National Hockey League in seven of the last nine years, join the also-rans tonight in the circuit's 48th season.

The Canadiens move into Madison Square Garden for a game with the suddenly potent New York Rangers—a team once again dreaming of making the Stanley Cup playoffs after buying their playoff game tickets in five of the last six seasons.

The Rangers officially opened the season at Boston Monday night with a 6-2 victory over a Bruin squad which has rested in the cellar for four straight years and now sees little hope of escape.

Ranger Coach George (Red) Sullivan, unaccustomed to the winner's role, remained closeted with his players for nearly 20 minutes after the victory.

"We capitalized on their penalties (scoring three third period powerplay goals) and we played at our best potential," the mildly surprised Sullivan said.

Rangers Don Marshall, Vic Hadfield, Bob Nevin, Dick Duff, Camille Henry and Lou Angotti scored the goals to break into early leads in the NHL scoring race. Ted Green and Ron Schock scored for Boston.

black, burned body of a truck driver who forgot to check his tires, and had a blowout, killing himself and seven innocent people on a holiday; the burned bodies of two truck drivers, and a relief driver, one of whom had traveled too fast for highway conditions in an early morning fog; wreck after wreck with the screaming, mutilated, bloody victims scattered over the roadway, with the ways to avoid such accidents left up to the safety-minded public.

The film called for an alert public response to pressure drivers, traffic courts, police, and all others involved to safe, sane driving, placing the responsibility where it belongs — on the driver himself.

The mangled body of a young child whose mother forgot to fasten the child's safety belt on a trip downtown was shown; screaming people in a car whose driver had been drinking; the

METHODISTS officially break ground for their new sanctuary at the corner of Sixth and Monroe streets, Sunday morning. Radio, Baton Stolen From Store Warehouse

A transistor radio and a baton were stolen during the past 48 hours from the Firestone store warehouse on First street, it was reported to the city police.

Entry to the building was gained by entering through a broken window on the south side of the building. The theft occurred sometime Sunday or early Monday morning.

The film called for an alert public response to pressure drivers, traffic courts, police, and all others involved to safe, sane driving, placing the responsibility where it belongs — on the driver himself.

Sgt. Bauer was questioned briefly on bicycle safety following the presentation, and commented favorably on the program soon to be started by police chief Odle.

Responsibility for bicycle safety lies squarely on the shoulders of the parents, the sergeant charged. If every dad who buys his son or daughter a $39.95 bicycle would just take ten minutes to review the 11 safety rules that accompany each new purchase, and see that his children know safety rules, and practice them, and have lights, brakes, horns, and other safety equipment on their bikes, accidents could be cut to almost none.

Hearing For Youths Threatening LBJ

CASPER, Wyo. (UPI) — Two Casper teen-agers remained in jail here today in lieu of $25,000 bond, charged with threatening the life of President Lyndon Johnson.

A preliminary hearing was scheduled for next Tuesday for Larry Rush, 17, and Roy Edward Smith, 16, who were arrested by local police late Sunday at Natrona County Hospital. The arrests came after a nurse allegedly heard them make the threat while they talked with a friend who was in the hospital.
