THE LARGEST ILLEGAL liquor still to be raided in North Carolina in three years was destroyed near Nashville. ATU and ABC officers from two counties destroyed the still which had contained nearly 20,000 gallons of mash and was capable of making 1,950 gallons of spirits a day. Output of the distillery caused a tax loss daily to the government of $19,950.—(UPI Telephoto)

Nixon May Be
1968 Nominee
If Barry Loses

By EUGENE J. CADOU
United Press International
INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—Those who sniff the political winds say Richard M. Nixon may run for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination, if Sen. Barry M. Goldwater loses in November.

The former vice-president and 1960 GOP standard bearer will be in the Hoosier spotlight Thursday when he speaks in behalf of Sen. Goldwater in Fort Wayne, Elkhart and Marion.

Nixon is speaking in many other parts of the nation these days. He made a vigorous speaking appearance with Goldwater on a television a week ago. A number of observers opined that Nixon rivaled the presidential nominee in the television program.

Indiana Republican Gov. Harold W. Handley was a pioneer Nixon leader long before he won the GOP Whitehouse nomination and kept Indiana in line all the way. This state was the banner state for Nixon in the election with his largest per capita victory over John F. Kennedy—a lead of 222,762 votes.

The fact that Nixon's mother was born in Jennings County helped the bridges.

Nixon Bridges Gap

It has been pointed out that Nixon probably could bridge the huge gap between the conservative and the eastern liberal factions of the Republican party.

His formidable drive for Sen. Goldwater cannot help but endear him to the fervent backers of the Arizona senator, and he likewise has rather close ties with the liberals of the party.

In 1960, Nixon flew to New York to confer with New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller. The result was that Nixon agreed to accept a number of the liberal planks in the party's national platform.

Nixon's loser stigma, resulting from his abortive bid for governor of California, seems to be fading and his move to New York eventually may further his political career.

He is considered by observers to be less of a carpetbagger in New York than Robert F. Kennedy, Democrat, now striving to be elected U. S. senator with only a token residence in the Empire State. Nixon, at least, has practiced law and lived in New York several years, they say.

Rockefeller Fading

The marital status of Rockefeller appear to remain a frustration for his political future, especially since custody of his wife's children was awarded by a court decision to her first husband.

Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton seems never to have caught fire with the GOP leaders and Michigan Gov. George Romney will be mighty lucky if he wins reelection.

Former Massachusetts Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge remains a lieutenant of President Johnson's administration after service in Viet Nam and now as a roving ambassador to explain the situation there to our allies.

There are no others on the 1968 horizon for the GOP, if Barry loses.

Then, who but Nixon?

Trash Letters

To the voters of Indiana:

On Saturday, October 3, 1964, a letter was published in the Decatur Daily Democrat, describing the horrible sights that met my eyes at Hiroshima and Nagasaki. This letter was meant to awaken people, but apparently to no avail. I have received anonymous letters with material that only a member of the John Birch society could stomach. They were packed with trash that no right-thinking American citizen would be found dead with. I don't blame these persons for not signing their names, so I won't even quote from their trash because it would leave a bad taste in my mouth.

I did receive a couple of letters from people who have the courage to sign, (and boy it would take courage to identify themselves with this rubble.) I have been informed by one of these writers that Barry did not say that he would use nuclear weapons should be used in Viet Nam to defoliate the trees and bushes. She said that Barry did not say that he thought the time would come when such a weapon would have to be used. I wonder what Barry had in mind when in May, 1961, he said during a newspaper interview: (quote) — "Someday, I am convinced, there will either be a war or we will be subjugated without war—real nuclear war—I don't see how it can be avoided—perhaps five or ten years from now."

I have at hand Goldwater's book (The Conscience of a Conservative) in which he says, and again I quote "A shooting war may cause the death of many millions of people including our own. But we cannot, for that reason make avoidance of a shooting war our chief objective"—end quote.

These people who have been writing me have missed the message I tried to get to them apparently for they write about everything but the issue in question. One writer went back to Hiroshima and Nagasaki and bemoaned the fact that these people were not even warned. I believe if she would get her facts straight she would find that both cities were warned days before the bomb was dropped. Even though they did not heed this warning, it still does not make the suffering these innocent kids went through, and shall go through the rest of their lives, any easier.

This lady who has facts all mixed up, says that "Probably more than 95 per cent of the general public do not know the state and national candidates personally. We judge them by what they say and what others say, also what was done by them in the past." I agree with you wholeheartedly Mrs. B., so again I refer you and all others who do not have their facts straight to read Barry's book, "The Conscience of a Conservative." I do not have the time nor the inclination to quote his book, so my advice is get it and read it for yourselves, and keep it handy so you can check his answers on television with the views in the book then I believe in your heart you will wonder what he is right about.

In your letter you quoted from the Bible, which is good, but I believe your motive was not godly but politically inspired. I will certainly be the first to admit that neither political party has a monopoly on virtue, not even the Democratic party. Will you say the same about the Republican party?

If Barry is unable to do anything about the high crime rate in his home town of Phoenix Arizona, how does he propose to do it nationwide? Now about Billy Sol Estes, and Bobby Baker, I must admit that I don't have all the facts so like Will Rogers "all I know is what I read." I wonder what happened to the scandal that Bill Miller was mixed up in with that Felt company, and also the Wurlitzer Juke Box Co. Speaking

Insurance Offer To Victims Of Blast

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—An insurance company has made a conditional offer to make available the full amount of its $1,500,000 coverage for distribution to victims of the Indiana State Fairgrounds Coliseum explosion last Oct. 31 which killed 74 and injured hundreds.

Letters from lawyers for the Indiana State Fair Board and the Coliseum Corp. were sent to attorneys for some of more than 150 persons who have filed claims for damages as a result of the blast.

The offer was contingent on all claimants signing a document releasing Indiana Insurance Co. from any further liability.

The money would be turned over to a fund in Federal Judge S. Hugh Dillin's court here which already includes $1,020,000. Earlier, two insurance companies which held $1 million coverage for Discount Gas Corp. posted bond with Dillin representing the full coverage sum which would be available for paying off claims of the injured and kin of the dead.

In addition, another insurance firm representing DuRay Inc., which formerly sold bottled gas to Discount, deposited $20,000, the full amount of its liability coverage.

More than 100 damage suits on file in state courts are being held in abeyance pending the outcome of federal court action. Five Marion Superior Court judges and Marion Circuit Judge John Niblack decided months ago that all suits would be handled as a single test case for the purpose of determining financial liability.

of LBJ's friends, I read that Barry has a few, or I should say had, for two of them are no longer with us, having gone to the way of all good gangsters. I am speaking of Willie Buff and Gus Greenbaum. Both of the Phoenix Gazette and the Arizona Republic in describing (quote) "Among the mourners were Sen. Goldwater and his brother Bob, president of Goldwater's Department Store." I believe that soon you may also read in Life Magazine about some other, unsavory characters, that Barry and his brother are quite chummy with, in fact even in business with.

I was very happy, Mrs. B., to read in your letter that Barry was no saint. A man could hardly be classified as a saint, who plays footsy with people who condone the bombing of churches, and the murder of their fellow men whose only crime was that they were born another color. I remember the Negro kids who died in their Sunday school room in Alabama when some degenerate threw a bomb. These same people are the ones who are working the hardest to elect Barry Goldwater.

Now Mrs. B., I am going to stick my neck way out with this statement I am about to make and perhaps lose some friends, but here goes and let the chips fall where they may. I honestly cannot see how anyone who claims to be a follower of the Prince of Peace could with a clear conscience vote for a man who has the kind of a following that Barry Goldwater is cuddling up to.
