Love as experienced in the changed heart of man is but a reflection of the love of God. It was love that drew God's Son to die as a sacrifice for the sins of a lost world. Love is the thermometer of our spiritual health. Its presence as manifested toward our fellowmen identifies us and the lack of it marks us just as accurately. Love cannot co-exist with selfishness, rudeness, prejudice, bigotry and pride.

Today marks an important milestone in the life of our congregation insofar as it is the fortieth anniversary of the dedication of our present building. To celebrate this occasion we are having a big homecoming celebration tomorrow. If you have ever been a member of our church, if you have ever visited our church, if you are one of our long-standing friends, we invite you to come and share with us in this momentous occasion in the life of our congregation. We will worship at the regular time, 9:30 A.M., have church school at 10:30 and then share in a carry-in dinner in the church fellowship room downstairs. At 1:00 P. M. we will have a brief devotional service in the sanctuary and rededicate ourselves to the task of bringing Christ to the hearts and minds of our brothers through the work of this church.

Tomorrow is recognized as the beginning of CHRISTIAN LITERATURE WEEK and there will be a display of various publications in the rear of the sanctuary for sale to anyone who wants to buy them. This is being done as a project by the CWF group through the Christian Education Committee.
