HOLD ANNUAL INSPECTION MONDAY

The Pythian Sisters Needle club held its annual inspection Monday at the Moose home. Mrs. Frances Howard, most excellent chief, presided and gave an address of welcome to the guests. Mrs. Don Carey escorted and introduced the following officers: district deputy, Mrs. Arthur Gibson, Ossian; past district deputy, Mrs. Roscoe Woodard, Ossian; past district deputy from Decatur, Mrs. Martin Welland; Mrs. Otto Beehler, Decatur, and Mrs. Olive Solomon, Tocsin; supreme mystic, one of Sunshine Girls, Mrs. William Barber, who is also temple mother; and royal advisor of Sunshine Girls, Mrs. Wilfred Plasterer.

Pianist for the evening was Mrs. James Barich, Ossian. The Decatur degree staff, dressed in white formals, conducted the impressive initiation services for new members. Appointed to the auditing committee were Mrs. Don Carey, Mrs. William Barber, and Mrs. Ray Walters. The annual Christmas dinner will be held December 14 at 6:30 p. m. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Otto Beehler or Mrs. Cecil Gause by December 10. There will be a fifty-cent gift exchange.

The club gift was given to Mrs. Amander Roller, Tocsin. The fifty guests and members were served a luncheon in the dining room from tables using the Thanksgiving theme. Hostesses were Mrs. Wilfred Plasterer, Mrs. Carl Barnett, Mrs. Franklin Liechty, and Mrs. Ray Walters.

Mrs. George Thomas will be hostess to the Happy Homemakers home demonstration club Tuesday evening, December 1 at 7:30 p. m., for its annual Christmas party and gift exchange. There will be installation of officers at this time and all those not having secret pals are reminded to bring a fifty-cent gift for the secret pal exchange.

WHIMSICAL TALE AT LIBRARY STORY HOUR

Children attending the story hour Saturday at the Decatur public library will enjoy the whimsical tale in rhyme of "Horton Hears a Who," written by Dr. Seuss. The new book, "Patrick Visits the Library," tells how Patrick gets acquainted with his library.

There will also be a fairy tale told in "pop-up" form, and a film, songs, and more stories to round out an hour of enjoyment for children from four years of age through seven. The story hour will begin at 1:30 p. m. in the children from four years of age through seven.

HOLD REGULAR NOVEMBER MEETING

The Ladies Aid of the St. Paul Lutheran church met in the church basement for its November meeting. Chairman Mrs. Walter Hoffman called the meeting to order. Reports were given on recent projects and the group voted to again send packages to members in service. The December meeting will begin at 10 a. m. with a potluck dinner at noon and a social afternoon.

Mrs. Wilbur Selking and Mrs. William Selking received secret pal gifts. The social part of the afternoon was spent in playing written contests. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Ed Reinking, Miss Lora Ewel, Mrs. Fred C. Bieberich, Mrs. Otto Wefel, Mrs. Walter Hoffman, Mrs. Herman Bittner, Mrs. Paul Becker and Mrs. Albert Bieberich were hostesses.

RESEARCH CLUB HOLDS MEETING

"Romantic Charleston" was the topic discussed by Mrs. L. A. Cowens at the Research club meeting held in the home of Mrs. W. L. Linn. The early history of the city was sketched and its importance as the scene of the opening shots of the Civil War was pointed out. Mrs. Cowens also mentioned a number of "firsts" for which Charleston is known, including the first to have a Chamber of Commerce in the United States, the first to have golf links, the first to have fireproof buildings, and the first to have a Masonic lodge in the country.

Following the current events, the hostess served candies to the twelve members and one guest present.

The Catholic Ladies of Columbia will hold their Christmas meeting Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. with a potluck dinner and a fifty cent gift exchange at the C. L. of C. hall. The officers will be in charge.
