Hold Rich Youth In Brother's Slaying

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Sheriff's homicide detectives today planned to seek a murder complaint against wealthy Timothy Nicholson for the death of his equally rich twin brother, Todd. "Timothy claimed this was an accidental shooting," said Lt. James Hamilton, "but we have physical evidence which we are presenting to the district attorney's office to substantiate a murder complaint."

Detectives sought a complaint Tuesday, but deputy Dist. Atty. John Hopkins said afterward that "we need some more information. In the meantime, we will continue the investigation."

Todd was shot in the heart Monday night in the $400,000 apartment building which the brothers bought recently with part of a $1 million inheritance they shared equally four years ago when each was 18 years old.

Attorney Joseph McGarry of Phoenix, Ariz., said the trust fund was established by the boys' father, Edward (Teddy) Nicholson, who was active in the Pullman railroad empire.

The twins also were distant cousins to members of the Cudahy meat packing family. It was reported that there had been no particular contact between the branches of the family for years and no close relationship existed between the Nicholson and Cudahys.

The handsome brothers were the grandsons of F. Edward Carey, who was president of the Pullman Co.

Authorities said Todd was shot as he packed to leave the apartment building in nearby Temple City for a return to Phoenix, where the brothers owned the Sun Investment and Development Co.

Todd lived in an apartment in Phoenix for about two years. Timothy went there six months ago, a family spokesman said. Apartment Manager Shuey Greenberg summoned authorities when he said Timothy rushed from his apartment next door shouting: "I just shot my brother!"

Greenberg told investigators there was no apparent argument between the twins last weekend, but some "kid stuff" horseplay.

County Dairymen At Annual Meeting

Adams county dairymen attended the Indiana state dairy association annual meeting Monday, at Purdue University, Lafayette, according to announcement by Ernest J. Lesiuk, county extension agent. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Beeher, L. Reuben Schwartz of Berne, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rice and Martin Habegger of Monroe, and Ernest J. Lesiuk.

Sam Gregory, extension dairyman, presented the certificate of merit herd awards to the dairymen on the Indiana D.H.I.A. testing program. Norbert J. Moeller, extension dairy specialist, presented the meritorious sire awards. The principal speaker was Dr. Jake L. Krieger, head of the animal science department at Purdue University. Dr. Krieger spoke on "Looking Ahead With Indiana Dairymen."
