

THE DECATUR DEMOCRAT.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1881.

Poster, the Republican candidate for governor or Ohio was elected. Majority not ascertained.

Agricultural fairs, beginning with the state and running down through the counties, have not been a unanimous success.

Dr. Thomas, of Chicago, whose trial recently occurred has been suspended from the M. E. Church. It is supposed he will appeal to the judicial conference.

The Kokomo Dispatch says there was 510 convictions before the justices in that county, of which number 304 were the direct result of the use of intoxicating liquor and 158 indirectly connected with the use of ardent spirits.

One of the famous 306 supporters of Gen. Grant at the Chicago convention has been heard from. He is from the South and has asked Arthur to reward him for his services with an office. Conkling is another; where is the rest of them?

The steamer Corwin sent in search of the Jeannette, lost in the Polar sea, landed on Wrangell Land, Aug. 12th, formally taking possession in the name of the United States, and giving the new possession the name of New Columbia. It would make a fine summer resort these hot seasons.

Clipped coin is taken at a heavy discount in a great many places, owing to the fact that the government will only receive it for old bullion, or at twenty per cent less than its face value, less the amount clipped from each piece. The question of throwing out clipped coin is talked of in many places. The result will be that in the end mutilated coin will have to go.

The Pennsylvania Democratic Committee which recently met, concluded their resolutions with the following: "That all good citizens, regardless of party affiliations, sincerely mourn the death of President Garfield, and that we as representatives of more than 400,000 Democratic voters, express their individual and collective grief at the calamity which has befallen the republic, their sorrow with the domestic affliction of the President's stricken household, and their execration of the assassin and of the murderer's foul crime."

The Fort Wayne Gazette says of the election of Bayard as President pro tem. of the senate, that senator Edwards fully characterized the election, as "a prize won in the lottery of assassination."

Had the Republicans been in a majority, and had they elected senator Edwards, would it have changed the character of the election? In other words, if that statement is true, the result would have been the same, no matter who would have been elected.

Again: who originated this lottery? How many prizes were there? Who drew the other prizes?

Or, is it the argument of a flippant demagogue?

If the Republican party is forced to use such argument to save itself, honorable burial is better than successful disgrace.

The people of Bluffton have come down from their lofty flight and jubilation over a great trunk line of railroad, the Chicago & Atlantic. They, after their disappointment, talked of another great trunk line that had no existence except in their imagination, which it seems they have given up and are now talking of a Shoo Fly road from Union City to Bluffton, taking a great deal of comfort over the benefits it will confer when completed. They have got down to something practical at last; something they can handle. They have the best wishes of THE DEMOCRAT that their new enterprise will be brought to a successful termination, and that it may benefit them equal to their hopes expressed.

The Stalwarts met their Waterloo in the New York State Republican Convention last week. The Half Breeds elected U. S. Senator Miller, Chairman, after the Stalwarts had requested their adversaries not to humiliate them by so doing, by a vote of 298 to 190, and afterwards carried every thing their own way with a high hand, placing Half Breeds on nearly every place on the ticket, going so far as to nominate James W. Husted for State Treasurer. The Stalwarts were humiliated and sullen. In short they had measured out to them just what Conkling had always given to those who opposed him—snares. The result will be the Stalwarts will look on and see the Half Breeds beaten with great complacency—satisfaction. If their object was revenge, rather than success, they acted wisely.

The Bluffton Chronicle seems to think THE DEMOCRAT is worrying over Bluffton, and her prospects; all of which is a mistake. THE DEMOCRAT is working to build up Decatur; to build up Adams county; to tear down no town or community. THE DEMOCRAT heartily rejoices over the prosperity of the people of Bluffton; of Wells county; of Indiana and the people at large. Neither envy or worry has anything to do with THE DEMOCRAT, being perfectly willing that Bluffton people and Bluffton papers shall brag and boast to their heart's content.

Last Saturday, Mr. Lee Kapp, of Bluffton, bought of Christiana Shafer six vacant lots in Crabbs addition. He contemplates building three houses upon them this fall. Mr. George Gardner, of Bluffton is also prospecting for Decatur property.—Decatur Democrat.

Mr. Kapp says he has only left a bid on the lots, which for the whole number would be but a trifle of what one lot in Bluffton would be worth. We must say we were somewhat surprised when we noticed the statement in the Democrat, knowing Mr. Kapp to be strictly temperate and exceedingly virtuous, what he would do with those lots, but on inquiry found that they were wanted for a turnip patch.—Bluffton Times.

Mr. Kapp called at this office Saturday last and authorized THE DEMOCRAT to say that the statement made by us was true as stated. Mr. Kapp has also been consulting with Mr. Moon & Christen, the boss contractors, in regard to building, and proposes to build at an early date.

Our people do not wish to invest in Bluffton property, even for turnip patches. Some of our people were looking up a location for a graveyard and had an eye on Bluffton, but that is off now, in consequence of the cackle of the Times.

MONMOUTH ITEMS.

Wheat and grass are growing fine, except some of the early wheat which is damaged by the fly.

Will Finner is visiting friends in Hometown.

A party of movers from near Williamsport stopped in town for dinner one day last week, enroute for Williamsport.

Corn fodder is badly damaged by the rains.

Perry Lewton claims the honor of being the owner of the fastest horse-flesh in this vicinity.

Mr. Smith, partner of the mill here, from Arcola, Allen Co., is stopping at J. Christen's Jr.

Lyman Hart's sister who has been visiting him left for her home in New York.

Wanted, in Root township, one more teacher to teach school No. 3, or what is known as the Knapp school; male preferred.

Singing taught by Prof. Kimball, closed last Tuesday night.

Perry Robinson sold his new saw mill last week to Smith and Coulter, from Arcola, where they own another mill; consideration, $4,200, including some 15 acres of timber. Immediate possession was given.

Pleasant Mill Items.

Roads rough. Sickness is abating in our village.

Miss Sarah Galbraith is visiting friends in this place.

The robust form of Wm. Hill is again seen on our streets.

H. C. Stettler is improving rapidly. Some of our boys have a black lip. Farmers are making cider.

The Sunday school convention was a picnic.

About ninety of our citizens assembled at the residence of Rev. D. B. Beckard, on the occasion of the twentieth anniversary of his marriage. The presents were numerous and costly. All were pleasantly entertained. We retired thinking of the twentieth anniversary of our wedded life, and are yet meditating over it.

Boy, what ails the horse? It needs Kendall's Spavin Cure. See their advertisement.

If your horse has a Spavin, use Kendall's Spavin Cure. See advertisement.

Ayer's Pills contain no croton oil, calomel or mineral. They are compounded of pure vegetable extracts, which have positive virtues and always cure, where cures are possible.

Liquid Gold.—Dan'l Plank, of Brooklyn, Tioiga county, Pa., describes it thus: "I rode thirty miles for a bottle of Thomas' Electric Oil, which effected the wonderful cure of a crooked limb in six applications; it proved worth more than gold to me."

Bradford, Pa.—Thos. Fitcham, Bradford, Pa., writes: "I enclose money for Spring Blossom, as I said I would if it cured me. My dyspepsia has vanished, with all its symptoms. Many thanks; I shall never be without it in the house. Price 50c. trial bottles 10c."

Says a prominent horseman, in giving his opinion of Vanderbilt's mare Maud S.; whose great feat at Chicago put her at the head (and dubbed her "Queen of the Turf.") "In my opinion the time is not far distant when a two minute gait will be recorded." It will certainly be the case if horsemen continue to use Kendall's Spavin Cure, as it limbers up the joints, removes all blemishes, and in fact has made a complete revolution in the horse business.

CASH FOR DEAD ANIMALS.—I have established a Fertilizing Factory on the farm of John Bogenrie, near Pleasant Mills, Ind., for the purpose of working up all kinds of dead animals, and will pay the following prices for dead stock, according to weight and condition: 25c. to 75c. per hundred for dead hogs; 50c. to $1.00 per head for sheep; for cattle with hides on $1.50 to $3.00 per head, delivered at my place of business, or I will call for them myself on being notified.
