

HER LIFE TRULY SAVED.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Does It.

Mrs. Chas. La Point, a well-known resident of Denver, praises this wonderful remedy. Her testimony should convince all as to the worth of the New Heart Cure and Restorative Nervine. Her letter dated Sept. 11th, 1894, reads as follows:

Mrs. La Point, 2137 Humboldt St.

"Typhoid fever left me with heart trouble of the most serious nature. Nothing the doctors gave had any effect. I had severe pains in the heart, and was unable to lie on my left side for more than three minutes at a time. My heart seemed to miss beats, and I had smothering spells, in which it seemed every breath would be my last. We accidentally saw an advertisement of

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and Restorative Nervine, and purchased a bottle of each. After taking the remedies a week, I could be lifted in a chair and sit up an hour, and in a short time I was able to do light housework. I shall be ever grateful to you for your wonderful medicines. Truly they saved my life.

MRS. CHAS. LA POINT. guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1.00 per bottle, or it will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

CAN'T GET TOGETHER.

Bob Fitzsimmons Don't Appear to Be Very Sorry, Either.

ALL GOING TO LITTLE ROCK.

Must Answer the Warrants Issued From the State Capital—Maher-O'Donnell Fight May Be Puffed Off—Martin Julian's Break—Lanky Bob Said to Be Afraid of the Big Champion.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Nov. 1.—The big fight is put over until next week, and there is no chance of Corbett and Fitzsimmons meeting in the ring before Tuesday at the very earliest. Chances are that anybody arriving here early next Wednesday morning will see the fight if it comes off. There will, however, be a fight on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Maher and O'Donnell will meet with 5 ounce gloves in Whittington park, two miles from the center of the town. This match is definitely settled, and unless the state interferes in very forcible manner it will be fought out according to programme. Smith and Ryan will probably be given a chance on Tuesday.

The fight committee came to the conclusion yesterday afternoon to have the Maher-O'Donnell fight on the receipt of the news from Little Rock that it would be impossible to get Fitz out of his legal entanglement and have him in Hot Springs for a fight this week.

O'Donnell had been brought in from Corbett's quarters at Spring Lake to be ready for the fight to come off, and when the postponement was made known he started back to his training grounds. He looks in the best of condition and said that he never felt better in his life. He expressed full confidence in his ability to whip Maher, and remarked as he left the hotel: "I will win it sure. I am in good shape and, accidents barred, I don't see how I can lose."

Maher has been training at Hughes' garden, about a half mile north of Whittington park and within 15 minutes ride of the town. He remained quietly in his quarters all day except during the morning, when he went down to the park to wait for Jim Corbett's defiance from the ring. Peter seemed confident of his ability to whip O'Donnell.

Harry White, trainer for Fitzsimmons, who has been here all day, said last night that he did not believe that there would be any fight at all between his man and Corbett. "The fact is," said White, "Fitz is afraid, and a span of oxen could not drag him in the ring. I know this is so, and have told Fitz that I will train with him no longer. I'm disgusted with the way he acts. He is afraid of Corbett, and you will see that he will never fight him."

FUGITIVE TANGLE.

Athletic Club Attorneys May Invoke the Aid of the Federal Court.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Nov. 1.—Corbett was scheduled to appear in the ring at Whittington park at high noon yesterday, throw off his cap and sweater, and announce to such people as were present that he was the champion of the world and that, as Fitzsimmons was not there, he was ready, willing and anxious to defend his title against all comers. At the appointed time a crowd of men and boys gathered in the park to see Corbett and hear him to his defiance, but after a long wait and the champion did not appear the people climbed into the streetcars and sadly went home again.

It is the understanding, now that Fitzsimmons did not appear and claim the forfeit, that Corbett will go to Little Rock today to answer to the warrant issued by Chancellor Martin of that city. Fitzsimmons being still in the custody of the Little Rock officers, there is little chance for the fighters to get together at present.

Governor Clarke is threatened with a legal entanglement that will make the Corbett-Fitzsimmons episode a matter for the government courts to handle. The numerous attorneys who are working in the interest of the fight have determined to hold the governor strictly to the letter of the state law, and any attempt on his part to exceed what they think is his due authority will be met with prompt measures in the United States district court at Little Rock.

There was some talk of measures which would practically amount to the kidnapping of Fitzsimmons and his guards, but such action was not seriously considered, as it was the desire of the attorneys to stand strictly by the law. A hurried message was sent to Little Rock asking for an immediate session of the United States district court could be held there. An affirmative answer was received and it was decided to take the matter there immediately upon receipt of word that the governor had placed the Australian under restraint other than bonds.

Proceedings at Little Rock.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 1.—"I am perfectly willing that this case be continued until tomorrow," said Martin Julian in Judge Joseph Martin's court yesterday afternoon.

Had a bomb been exploded in the temple of justice it would have created scarcely less sensation among the throng of interested spectators than did these words.

"Oh, what a fukel!"

"He don't want to go to Hot Springs!"

"Well, what do you think of that?"

These are fair examples of the expressions of utter disgust which flew from mouth to mouth as the disappointed crowd filed out of the courtroom. It had been reported that the Australian was just aching to reach Hot Springs to meet Corbett, but Julian's quick acquiescence to the motion made by the state's attorney for a continuance was a dampener to the many friends of Lanky Bob and they could hardly believe their ears. However, the motion was granted, and it is now said that this policy of postponement will be pursued until the pugilists get tired and are glad to leave the state.

HOLMES BREAKS DOWN

Sobbed Like a Child When Miss Yoke Appeared Against Him.

HER STORY WAS DAMAGING.

Says Holmes Was Away From Her Five Hours the Day Piztel Was Murdered. He Came Back Flashed and Excited, and Immediately Started For Indianapolis—Rapid Progress of the Trial.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—For about 30 minutes yesterday the nerve at which all men have marvelled forsook Holmes, and, bowed and broken, he sank his head into his hands and sobbed like a child. Meanwhile the woman he persists in calling his wife and upon whom he had pinned his highest hope, sat two yards away relating a story that slowly but surely tightened the noose on his neck. For one hour and 40 minutes she whispered to the court crier the words that told how Piztel had come to the Eleventh street house where they were stopping the night before the murder, and how Holmes had been away for five hours of the next day, coming back flushed and excited, and carrying her hurriedly off to Indianapolis. It was the day after this that the corpse was found in the Callowhill house. At the close of her examination in chief, Holmes asked to conduct the cross-examination himself, and standing in the corner of the dock nervously moving his hands he put a few unimportant questions, then he said he would reserve the right to call her as a witness for the defense.

Throughout her testimony Miss Georgianna Yoke, for so she calls herself, never once bestowed a passing glance upon the man she once loved. Miss Yoke is a tall, slender blonde of the subdued type, and demeaned herself like a woman of refinement and intelligence. She was tastefully dressed in deep black.

The case has progressed so swiftly that but few witnesses remain to be heard before the closing of the commonwealth's case. Then the defense will open, and in spite of Holmes' statement that he would himself testify and also call Miss Yoke, his counsel privately stated last night that the defense would offer no evidence, but would submit the case on argument alone. And they expressed supreme confidence in his acquittal.

His first victory was gained yesterday afternoon. The defense strenuously objected to the introduction of any further evidence touching the alleged murder of the Piztel children. The jury were temporarily taken to their room and elaborate arguments followed, at the end of which Judge Arnold sustained the contention.

CYCLIST LENZ'S MURDER.

Turkish Government Agrees to Punish the Men Guilty of the Outrage.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Minister Terrell has succeeded in moving the Turkish government to punish the men who murdered Bicyclist Lenz in Armenia. He has cabled the state department that the Kurds and Armenians who committed the murder are to be tried at Erzeroum, and that the United States will be represented at the trial by the British consul at that place. This official was the first person to learn of Lenz's murder, and as there was no American consul in that vicinity, he actively interested himself in the case and reported the result of his investigation to Mr. Terrell.

TRAGEDY IN A HOTEL.

Woman Commits Suicide In the Presence of Her Husband and Son.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 1.—Yesterday a tragedy was enacted in the Hotel English in this city. Mrs. Harry Branch shot herself in the stomach with a pistol and died within an hour. At the time, Branch, his wife and a 5-year-old son were the only occupants of the room. Branch says they have had frequent spats, and that lately he had accused his wife of unfaithfulness, which charge seemed to so prey upon her mind that yesterday she secured a pistol and ended her life. Branch, whose home is in Chicago, was arranging for an exhibition in this city at the Y. M. C. A. hall, and has been here about three weeks. The little son corroborates the father's story.

Count Scheler Liquidated.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 1.—Count and Countess Scheler succeeded yesterday in liquidating their hotel bills through the kind offices of a banker, who went security for them, and they left last night for St. Louis. Scheler is a genuine count, having proved his title by credentials, and his wife is a niece of ex-Governor Bishop of Ohio. It is said the count's financial embarrassment was due to his ill luck at poker.

The Arnica Plant.

The plant from which Arnica is produced appears to be indigenous to the mountain districts of Europe and Asia.

It is found growing wild in the Pyrenees, Apennines, Swiss and German Alps, Carpathian mountains, in the mountains of Armenia, in the Urals and the Himalayan range. It is said that the plant has also been found in the mountain districts of the United States west of the Mississippi river, but whether a native or an importation cannot be ascertained. The medicine is chiefly prepared from plants artificially grown in the medicinal gardens of France and Germany.
